NEWS SUMMARY

THE EQUITABLE SITUATION.

Gov. Higgins and State Superintendent of Insurance Hendricks received the agents' committee and expressed the conviction that the Equitable's troubles must be settled by the courts.—Page 2.

Equitable policy-holders in Chicago ask for a receiver for the society, and that an accounting be made.—Page 2.

James H. Hyde, vice president of the Equitable society, has replied to the demand of the society's general agents that he resign. He has declared their action, perhaps unwittingly, aided the plot against him, and he has urged them to consider the error of their course and return to loyalty to the Equitable's present officers and board of directors.—Page 1.

The government, it is said, will take a hand in the Equitable muddle.—Page 2.

THE SITUATION IN THE FAR EAST.

A report current in St. Petersburg is that Rojestvensky's squadron has left Kamranh bay and is on its way to Vladivistok. Prayers have been offered for its safe arrival. Manwhile Japan's protest to France that Rojestvensky has violated the neutrality has resulted in the Russian government sending orders to the admiral not to endanger peace by undue stay in French waters.—Page 1.

DOMESTIC.

Admiral George Dewey wrote a letter to a committee of the Daughters of the American Revolution saying that John Paul Jones' body should rest at Arlington.—Page 5.

RACE TO REACH COURT FIRST

Mr. Bigelow Orders Select Council to Meet This Morning.

TO BEAT HIS RIVALS

Sudden Move Due to Chamber of Commerce Circulating Petitions for Annexation.

COMMITTEE MAKES STATEMENT

A race is on between Director Bigelow and the Pittsburgh chamber of commerce to obtain the credit of presenting the first petition to the county court for an election on the annexation of Allegheny to Pittsburgh. In New York last evening, where he went several days ago to remain over Easter, Director Bigelow was notified by long distance telephone that the chamber of commerce had set to work to get a petition signed by 2 per cent of the registerd voters of the city instead of waiting upon councils.

Director Bigelow, fearing that he might lose some laurels, gave orders for select council to be called together this morning to have introduced an ordinance petitioning the court, and to rush it through with all possible haste in order to forestall the chamber of commerce. City Clerk H. W. Minnemeyer, Jr., upon receiving this word got to work last night at 9 o'clock and sent out to all the members of select council notices of today's meeting.

"Quorum-Getter" Ordered Out.

John A. Long, superintendent of the bureau of city property and the official "quorum-getter" of councils received his instructions from Director Bigelow through City Clerk Minnemeyer to see as many members of select council as possible last night, and to impress upon each one the importance of attending this morning's meeting.

Mr. Minnemeyer said that it was not the intention of passing the ordinance at today's session, but only to introduce it, have it referred to the finance committee and by the finance committee reported to select council Monday afternoon, passed by that branch and messaged to common council Monday night and passed finally by that branch. In that case the petition approved by councils will go to the court on Tuesday morning.

It was reported last night that it was proposed today to suspend the rule which prohibits the passage of any bill on the day it is introduced, and to pass the ordinance finally at once, then to call a special meeting of common council for Monday morning so that branch might concur in the action of select. City Clerk Minnemeyer denied that such was the plan.

Action Was Precipitated.

The call for select council was prepared several days ago, but was being held until Governor Pennypacker signed the Greater Pittsburgh bill. When the governor signed the bill on Thursday, Mayor Hays said that select council would not be called because it was too late in the week and too near Easter to procure a quorum.

The mayor repeated this yesterday, but Director Bigelow changed the plans when he heard the announcement of the municipal affairs committee of the chamber of commerce that a petition was already in circulation in Pittsburgh and that another petition would be started out in Allegheny at once. In addition to these petitions it was announced that communications would be sent to councils asking them to make the matter doubly certain by passing ordinances.

It was not expected that councils would meet before the regular semi-monthly sessions on Monday, but when members of the chamber of commerce committee were notified last night that a meeting of select council would be held this morning it was stated that the communication from the chamber of commerce committee would be presented this morning.

Committee Holds Meeting.

H. D. W. English, chairman of the municipal affairs committee of the chamber of commerce, last evening gave out the following statement:

The committee on municipal affairs of the chamber of commerce, to whom was referred further action of the Greater Pittsburgh movement by the chamber, met this afternoon and decided on the following plan of procedure: In conformity with the Greater Pittsburgh act, it is circulating a petition for the signatures of 2 per cent of the registered voters of Pittsburgh, and a similar petition will be sent out to secure 2 per cent of the registered voters of the city of Allegheny. It has also addressed a letter calling on the councils of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, requesting that ordinances be passed at once in conformity with the law. The committee's desire is to expedite the election and annexation and have called on all parties mentioned in the act, so that a united front may be presented on this vital question.

Four Different Petitions.

In order to make the movement as general as possible, the chamber of commerce committee decided not only to request the Pittsburgh councils to pass such an ordinance, but will also ask the Allegheny councils to do the same, besides having another petition signed on the North Side. If these requests are complied with, four different petitions will be presented to the county court asking for an election on annexation.

The first petition by the municipal affairs committee of the chamber of commerce was put in circulation on Thursday afternoon, as published yesterday in The Gazette.

About 1,800 signatures will be obtained on the Pittsburgh petition and about 700 names in Allegheny, each of these numbers representing 2 per cent of the registered voters in each city. The registered vote, approximately, in Pittsburgh is 90,000 and in Allegheny 35,000.

Mayor Wyman called upon Mayor Hays in the latter's office yesterday morning and Mayor Hays said they had discussed Greater Pittsburgh and other matters. Mayor Hays said that Mayor Wyman was loyal to Greater Pittsburgh, but Mayor Wyman declined to talk when

THREE MEN WHO ARE ACTIVE IN EQUITABLE WAR

Gage E. Tarbell. James W. Alexander.

E. A. Woods, of Pittsburgh.

THREE ARE SHOT IN UNION DEPOT

Aged Traveler's Rifle Is Loaded, and Goes Off in Hands of Parcels Clerk.

SPOILS ATLANTIC CITY TRIP

Three persons were wounded at the Union station last night by the accidental discharge of a rifle which had been checked with the parcel clerk. The firearm was a militant weapon which was brought from Tennessee in the baggage of Dezro Schroy, aged 74, who wa scoming back north to say farewell to his old home at Rices Landing up in Greene county. The victims of the accident are:

THE INJURED.

ARTHUR MANSFIELD, aged 22, parcel clerk, wounded in the right thigh; taken to the West Penn hospital; lives in Avalon.

S. J. ROSENZWAY, aged 42, wounded in the right shoulder; a merchant residing at 8 East Seventeenth street, New York city; taken to the West Penn hospital.

UNKNOWN MAN, grazed by bullet and not badly hurt; refused to give his name.

Schroy had just stepped off a western train, en route from his home at St. Elmo, Tenn., and placed his packages with the parcel clerk to be kept while he could get his dinner and arrange to complete his journey. In the baggage was a Spencer 45-caliber rifle, wrapped in paper and belted in a canvas case. Mansfield took the packages and was about to throw the gun on the rack when a mullied explosion occurred, causing consternation in the crowded station platform.

Passengers in Panic.

Mansfield fell on the floor, still clutching the smoking weapon. A bullet had passed through his thigh, through the inch board partition, across the platform, through Rosenzway's shoulder, as he was standing suit case in hand at No. 11 gate waiting to board a train for Atlantic City, and finally across the chest of another bystander, who was waiting for the arrival of an eastern express.

A panic followed. Passengers fled in all directions. Mansfield and Rosenzway were carried into the waiting room and the station officers promptly arrested the owner of the rifle, who was standing dumbfounded at the disaster which his weapon had caused.

"Why I bought it to shoot hawks with," he explained to the officers, while two of the victims of the fatal bullet were being carried out to the ambulance. The old man stroked his long white beard and told a pathetic story, as he was taken to Central station by Detectives Lally and McGough.

His Plea Was Heeded.

"I am 74 years old," he piped. "I was born at Rices Landing. I served four years in the civil war with the Twelfth Indiana infantry. Five years ago my health failed and I sold my farm and with my wife moved to St. Elmo, down in Tennessee, where I fought in Sherman's army 40 years ago. We bought a little place and started to raise chickens. We were bothered by hawks and I bought this rifle.

"The heat bothers me down there, and I decided to spend this summer with my son, H. W. Schroy, who lives at the old home. My wife will live during this time with my daughter, Mrs. W. A. Maury, in Chattanooga. Shooting used to be pretty good up in Greene county and I just thought I would bring my rifle along. I didn't know it was loaded. When I was in the army——"

"That was a good regiment, I know it," interrupted Detective Philip Demmel, as his veteran bronze button worked its way to the front of his lapel, "and I'll not stand to let any member of it sleep in a cell."

The old army man's plea for a comrade was well taken and Schroy slept last night in the private bedrooms kept for night officers. The old man is simply being detained to await the results of the injuries of the wounded men. Last night they were reported to be doing well.

Mr. Jefferson Not So Well.

WEST PALM BEACH, FLA., April 21.—At 11 o'clock tonight Dr. Potter said that Joseph Jefferson's condition was less favorable. He seemed to be growing more restless. Today he was unable to retain nourishment. At midnight it was stated Mr. Jefferson's condition was not regarded as alarming, and some of the members of the family retired.

President Cassatt Is Expected.

NEW CASTLE, April 21.—(Special.)—President Cassatt of the Pennsylvania railroad and other officials are expected here next Friday, on an inspection trip.

FOREIGN SPIES IN ARMY AND NAVY

The American Military to Be Cleared of Men Employed by European Powers.

WORK FOR SECRET SERVICE

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Secret service men have been detailed to discover foreign spies in the American army and navy and in the various arsenals and navy yards in the country. It has become known to the authorities that a number of foreign officers, most of them Germans, have enlisted as privates in the coast artillery and in the navy for the purpose of furnishing to their governments accurate and secret information as to the strength of forts and battleships, and it is more than suspected that other officers have secured employment in arsenals and navy yards in order to get information procurable in no other way.

It is said that the record of every foreign-born man in the military and naval service will be closely examined and those against whom is found reasonable ground for suspicion will be quietly dropped from the service. It would be possible for an expert engineer officer while serving as a private to possess himself of information concerning our coast defenses which would be invaluable to the general staff of any power which might become involved in war with the United States.

The men who would be entrusted with this work necessarily would be ideal soldiers, intelligent, educated, amenable to discipline, and in every way calculate to become popular with their superiors and be entrusted with duties which would enable them to carry out their plans. That such instances have been discovered, though without proof sufficient to warrant any open action, even if such was desirable, is perfectly well known in army circles. That there are many spies still in the service is practically certain.

The only public step taken is the order to recruiting officers that no foreign-born men shall be enlisted who cannot furnish evidence of naturalization and that unnaturalized foreigners shall leave the army. It is recognized that this measure will not be effective, as any man who is a competent spy will take care to circumvent any known regulation. More dependence, however, is placed on the efforts of the secret service men.

MRS. MACKLIN REACHES SON'S BEDSIDE IN TIME

Sick Pittsburgher Rallies on Arrival of Mother and Sisters—His Wife Collapses.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

PHILADELPHIA, April 21.—After a race from Denver against death, Mrs. George E. Macklin, with her two daughters, reached St. Joseph's hospital this afternoon at 5 o'clock in time to see her son George alive.

The three women left Denver Wednesday. Bulletins announcing the sick man's condition were handed them at each place where locomotives were changed.

George Macklin, the patient, who is superintendent of the Pressed Steel Car Company of Pittsburgh is at death's door from pneumonia and has been kept alive since Wednesday solely by the use of oxygen.

When his mother and sisters arrived today Mr. Macklin rallied perceptibly, and the hope inspired by their presence may prolong his life two or three days. Mr. Macklin became ill in Florida two weeks ago and was hurried here on a special train. His wife, who has sat constantly at his bedside, collapsed this afternoon and now occupies a room adjoining that of her husband.

SQUADRON ON WAY TO VLADIVOSTOK

St. Petersburg, However, Will Act Upon Emphatic Protest in Kamranh Bay Incident.

JAPAN'S ACTION EFFECTIVE

[Associated Press Cable to The Gazette.]

ST. PETERSBURG, April 22.—Reports are current here that the Russian second Pacific squadron has left Kamranh bay and is on the way to Vladivostok, but the government will proceed with action on the Japanese protest as if the squadron had not continued its voyage.

A special service was held in the admiralty church yesterday to offer prayers for the safety of the squadron and its successful arrival at Vladivostok. The service was attended by High Admiral Grand Duke Alexis, Admiral Avellan, chief of the admiralty, and other prominent naval officers.

No representations have been made to Russia through the French embassy here on the subject of Admiral Rojestvensky's stay at Kamranh bay.

LONDON, April 22.—The Tokyo correspondent of the Daily Telegraph gives a report emanating from Peking that a portion of the Russian second Pacific squadron is coaling at Rainan, an island southeast of Tonquin bay.

PARIS, April 21.—The Franco-Japanese incident suddenly assumed serious proportions today and unusual energy was shown in preventing its embroiling France in complications in the far east. In order to secure definite co-operation between the three departments of the government, namely, naval, colonial and foreign, a conference was held this afternoon between leading representatives of each department. This brought about a clear understanding regarding the measures necessary for the maintenance of the neutrality of Indo-Chinese waters, and orders were sent to Governor-General Beau to specifically report the exact location of the Russian Pacific squadron and whether it had or had not withdrawn from French waters.

Communications with St. Petersburg led to orders being transmitted by the Russian government to Vice Admiral Rojestvensky to vigorously respect the neutrality of French waters. It was even stated that Foreign Minister Lamsdorff would carry the question before Emperor Nicholas in order to assure complete respect of French neutrality.

A telegram received here from St. Petersburg, and understood to be of official origin, says:

"The Russian admiralty has notified Admiral Rojestvensky of the grave danger to peace which will be entailed if the stay of his squadron off the coast of Annam is prolonged contrary to the laws of neutrality. No doubt is entertained that the admiral will carry out the formal instructions sent to him."

TOKYO, April 21.—The Japanese government continues to maintain silence regarding the Kamranh bay incident, and it is understood that the diplomatic correspondence on the subject is not concluded. In the meantime the party leaders here are counseling the Japanese press to use greater moderation and calmness.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Mr. Mokl, the Japanese charge d'affaires here, has presented to Secretary Taft a copy of the note presented by the Japanese minister in Paris yesterday to the French foreign office in relation to the observance of neutrality toward Rojestvensky's fleet. Secretary Taft, after reading the note, forwarded it by mail to Secretary Loeb for transmission to the president.

THIEVES MADE $30,000.

Police Round Up Shoplifters That Have Operated in Pittsburgh, and Among Other Places.

NEW YORK, April 21.—(Special.)—Two women and a man, members of a gang of eight shoplifters that have been robbing department stores in this city, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and Chicago, were sentenced in special sessions today to 11 months in the penitentiary. Three other members are under arrest at Newark and the remaining two are in flight.

The police have in their possession ten bank books, representing deposits of more than $30,000, which the thieves sentenced today are said to have admitted was the proceeds of their stealings.

Attempts on Official's Lives.

BIALYSTOKE, RUSSIAN POLAND, April 21.—An unknown man today fired at the burgomaster in the street, but killed a passing Cossack. Police Inspector Sawitski was attacked by two men who fired five shots at him, all taking effect. The assailant escaped.

WARREN AFTER BEEF TRUST

Trying to Stop the Sale of Preserved Meat Within Pennsylvania.

HAS MUCH EVIDENCE

His Men Work as Non-Unionists in the Big Western Packing House.

WASHINGTON WILL ASSIST

War is to be made upon preserved meat in Pennsylvania. Allegheny county will be selected as the battlefield and the local courts will soon be asked to determine the right of western packers to sell "doctored" beef within the confines of the commonwealth.

Dairy and Food Commissioner B. H. Warren has been preparing for this conflict with the packers for some time. He will have the assistance of the United States government and has some surprises to spring upon the men who have been using preservatives. About a year ago, when the employes of the western houses went on a strike, Dr. Warren saw an opportunity to get some inside information for future use. He had a number of picked men join the ranks of the non-unionists and their reports show they learned much about the use of preservatives in meats.

Approved by the Governor.

In order to get at the packers, Dr. Warren had a bill put through the legislature this year repealing section 2, of the act of April 27, 1903. The measure was approved Thursday by Governor Pennypacker. The law it repeals reads as follows:

That any person, firm or corporate body, who shall by himself, herself or themselves, or by his, her or their agent or servants, manufacture, ship, sell, consign, offer for sale, expose for sale, or have in possession with intent to sell, any article of food which contains more than one-half of one per centum of boracic acid, boracic acid salt, or any boron compound expressed in terms of boracic acid, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof in the court of quarter sessions shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $100 or to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding 60 days or both, at the discretion of the court; provided, however, that nothing in this section contained shall in any way alter or affect existing laws regulating the sale of milk or cream or butter.

Gives Power to Commissioner.

With this law repealed, Dr. Warren is free to go after the manufacturers or dealers who put preservatives in meat. He has a wagonload of samples and in nearly every case it was found that the limit of one-half of one per cent had been greatly exceeded. It was decided to wipe out entirely the right to use boracic acid and make a strenuous effort to prevent the sale of preserved meats.

In discussing the matter Dr. Warren said:

"We have a great deal of evidence against some of the big western packers. When the labor troubles occurred in these establishments about a year ago, I picked a number of my best men and distributed them among the packing houses of Chicago, St. Louis and Kansas City. They worked as non-union and mingled with the strikers. Daily reports were sent to my office and much detail information was secured about the methods employed by some of the houses to preserve meats. The evidence is startling. I was horrified to learn of the reckless manner in which the preservatives were put into the meat. This duty was often performed by ignorant butchers.

Uncle Sam to Take a Hand.

"Harvey W. Wiley, chief of the United States bureau of chemistry, has learned of the information our department possesses about the western packing houses and he wants a copy of the evidence. It will be turned over to him and Washington will doubtless take a hand in the fight to be made to secure purer meats. It is our duty to give the people of Pennsylvania wholesome meat and every means at the command of the department will be employed. Allegheny county will become a battle ground. There is much western beef sold in and distributed from Pittsburgh, and we will soon learn if the meat is being 'doctored.' It is not my intention to make a great many arrests. I simply desire to secure a few good cases and then endeavor to get a decision. After the department has got a court decision we will be in position to speedily prevent the sale of preserved meats.

"It is also the intention of the department to make a strong fight against the dealers in 'doctored' soda water. There are hundreds of them in Pennsylvania. I have just heard from 200 samples which I sent to our chemists. Ninety per cent of the fruit syrups are bogus and do not contain a particle of fruit. We have got a bill through which will assist us in the conviction of those adulterating fruit syrups."

COURT RULES IN FAVOR OF MISS MABEL SPANG

Declares That It Is Within the Rights of a Friend to Interfere in the Case.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, April 21.—In the appellate division of the supreme court, Brooklyn, the motion to dismiss the appeal taken by Henry J. Bebro from the decision of Judge Marean in the case of Miss Mabel Spang was denied today.

Judge Marean, in his decision, found Miss Spang to be sane, but he recommitted her to Dr. Bond's sanitarium in Yonkers on the ground that she was willful, disobedient and subject to vicious influences.

The motion to dismiss Bebro's appeal was based upon the contention that he is not qualified to interfere, being an absolute stranger to the family, but the appellate division holds that it is within the rights of a friend to become active in matters of this kind.

AGENTS HAVE HYDE'S REPLY

Equitable's Vice President Says Their Action Assists a Conspiracy.

HE UNFOLDS PLOT

Declares His Concession to Mutualization Has Been Used as Weapon Against Him.

HE RESENTS THEIR COURSE

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau, Herald Building, Herald Square, NEW YORK, April 21.

As surprising as has been any of the developments in the Equitable affairs was the statement today that at least 25 of the 35 officers and prominent men connected with the society, who had signed the document to prevent the re-election of James H. Hdye as a vice president, had repented of the step taken last February. This information was given by a man who is closely identified with both the Alexander and Hyde factions. In speaking about the matter this man confirmed much that had been told by Henry W. Knowles, and said:

"Just as Mr. Knowles said in his statement, those who signed the request that Mr. Hyde be not re-elected were coerced into giving their signatures, and today are sorry they ever subscribed their names. No one outside the Equitable can understand what pressure was brought to bear to obtain signatures to the paper requesting that Mr. Hyde be not re-elected and detailing what were supposed to be Mr. Hyde's weaknesses."

This change of sentiment that was formerly directed against Mr. Hyde is reflected in more than one way in the Equitable building. No one understands this better than does Mr. Hyde himself. The subterranean channels that were giving columns of anti-Hyde information to certain newspapers had completely closed today, and reporters were told that "there was nothing to be given out, even anonymously." Mr. Hyde tonight issued the following statement in reply to the committee of agents which waited on him yesterday:

Hyde's Reply to Agents.

"Dear Sirs:

"The subject upon which you have addressed me involves the consideration of the whole unhappy controversy which has been in progress for several months past. The injurious effect of that controversy upon your fortunes I appreciate, and I can well understand your strong desire to promote some action that will bring it to an end. In that controversy I feel that I have been treated with great injustice and that no one has so serious cause for complaint as I have. So far as any good results could be served by the resignation of any officer responsible for the injury which the society has suffered and is doubtless to suffer in the future, your request is misdirected.

"In view of the concessions I have been willing to make for the welfare of the society, I resent your misguided action, taken in utter ignorance of the true situation of which you cannot possibly have accurate knowledge. Your request, perhaps unwittingly on your part, is merely another move in the campaign of attack originally devised. When the real facts are known to the policy-holders I believe all right-minded men among them will be as indignant as I am with the methods that have been employed by my enemies for their own ends. In pursuing which they have not hesitated to sacrifice the best interests of the society and to disregard the proper protection of the policy-holders. Your action, instead of furnishing a solution of the present unfortunate situation, renders the difficulty more acute. It is regrettable that in this situation the convention of managers did not take advantage of its opportunity to become a factor in promoting honorable peace.

Tells of Plot Against Him.

"I assume you have been kept informed, through the newspapers, of the assaults that have been made upon me, but I doubt whether you have been told of the efforts I made to avert the injury to the society from these attacks. You probably know in a general way of the circumstances under which I was hastily summoned to the offices of the president, by telephone, from the country, on the eve of the annual meeting, and shortly before the expiration of the trust under which my stock is held; that I was there confronted, without previous notice or warning, with a hostile memorial of officers and employes which had been secretly circulated and in many instances signed under coercive influences; that my immediate retirement was demanded under threats; that I peremptorily refused to retire, and that such refusal was followed by the immediate subsolsion to the board of directors of a demand for my retirement and for practical disfranchisement of the stock of the society.

"It may surprise you to learn that the leaders of this attack upon me and the society have persistently disclaimed responsibility for any and all of the newspaper publications assailing me and defaming the society and its management. The plea of mutualization was a mere sham under cover of which it was designed by these leaders to wrest the control of the society from the responsible hands of the most representative body of directors in this country and to transfer it to their own grasp, through the use of the agencies as instrumentalities.

Tells of Concessions.

"I can understand the desire of your body for mutualization, but I have never believed and I do not now believe, that a system of control which virtually places the agents over the directors and officers is sound in principle. At the threshold of this matter, and before any public controversy had arisen it was, however, urged upon me that there was a genuine desire on the part of the policyholders that they be given the right to vote for directors.

"Therefore, notwithstanding my own view on the subject, and in order to meet this desire of the policy-holders, and to give time for the careful consideration of the proper method of bringing this about, I offered to place my stock in the hands of trustees for five years, to be voted in accordance with the direction of the board of directors. I could hardly have given stronger evidence of my solicitude for the welfare of the society.

"This offer was not accepted. The authors of the conspiracy made impossible demands. Finally, although I was advised by eminent counsel that the power of control of the stock could not be lawfully taken away without the consent of its holders, either by the board or by the legislature, I consented, so far as my stock interests were concerned, that the policy-holders should elect 28 of the 52 directors of the society.

Sees a Conspiracy.

"The concession was intended for the benefit of the policy-holders, but in practical effect, as I then feared and now believe, it was the purpose that any concessions by me should be utilized for the benefit and account of the instigators of this movement, who proposed to erect a constituency of agents to control the votes of policy-holders. This belief is confirmed by the extraordinary proceedings at your recent meetings in this city, in which the power dominating the meetings was quite apparent.

"Although it was represented that this important concession would assure permanent peace for the society, it was followed by new demands to which I again acceded in the belief that faith would at last be kept and peace restored. Then I was told that these concessions which had been secured from me because of my loyalty to the society and on the repeated assurances given to the board of directors and to me that they would, if granted, be accepted as a complete settlement, were simply a means to an end, and that the warfare would go on until I should be forced out of office and the voting power of the stock which had been expressly reserved, should be completely destroyed. It is evident that I have been designedly tricked.

Only One to Make Sacrifice.

"Thus far I am the only person in this controversy who has made any sacrifices. The others have no such substantial interests in the society and nothing to lose by this warfare against its prosperity. I now know that these sacrifices which I have been deceived into making have been simply an encouragement to further attempted invasions of the rights of stockholders. As a fitting phase of these proceedings you are, at this juncture, gathered here from all parts of the country and under the exciting influences of false rumors, induced to pass unfortunate resolutions without so much as informing yourselves of the facts of the situation.

"I am justified in further reminding you that the matters upon which you have assumed to act are matters not for your consideration and action, but for the consideration and action of the board of directors of the society. These matters are now in their hands, and the facts relating to them are being definitely ascertained by an investigating committee appointed by the board. To the board and to the committee I have made a number of communications, stating the facts and expressing my views upon these subjects. I do not feel at liberty to further discuss them with you. I can only say that I think you are making a mistake in the course you are following, and that your duty to the society requires you rather to submit loyally to the lawful direction of the board of directors than to associate yourself for the purpose of stirring up further strife and endeavoring to override and frustrate the action of the board.

Resents Their Action.

"While I resent, and I am justified in resenting, your mistaken action toward me, I am by no means indifferent to your good will or callous to your hostility, and I trust that in the future of the society's affairs I shall be able to gain for my own part in their administration the support and approval of the men who have now so intemperately misjudged me.

Yours very truly,

MUST PATCH UP TRUCE.

Wall Street Confidently Expects Mr. Frick to Bridge Over the Equitable's Difficulties.

NEW YORK, April 21.—(Special.)—In Wall street today the opinion was quite generally expressed that some truce must be declared pending a settlement of the Equitable's troubles. In financial quarters the cry has gone up that the indiscriminate charges of bad faith must cease, and the investigation proceed rapidly and thoroughly.

Just what sort of a makeshift will be formed to bridge the present trying situation, no one but H. C. Frick, chairman of the investigating committee, has any definite idea. Mr. Alexander's friends maintain Mr. Frick is an intimate friend of Mr. Hyde, and that he spent a week in Washington with the president urging on him the advisibility of naming Mr. Hyde as the American ambassador to France. The financial community, however, is inclined to attach little importance to these statements, and is ready to accept Mr. Frick as the Moses who will successfully lead the Equitable out of its present distraught condition.

MUST BE SETTLED BY THE COURTS

This Is Gov. Higgins' Reply to Appeal Made by Agents of Equitable.

HENDRICKS OF SAME OPINION

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

ALBANY, N. Y., April 21.—(Special.)—"Difficulties between men cannot be settled by the governor or by the legislature. They must be settled by our courts."

This was Gov. Higgins' reply tonight to the agents and managers of the Equitable Life Assurance society who called at the executive chamber to urge that the company be mutualized by legislation. The governor added that it was the opinion of some lawyers that stockholders could not be compelled by legislative act to accept mutualization without their consent.

"I cannot tell what the legislature will do," Gov. Higgins said, "but if I come to the conclusion that I can further the interests of the policy-holders—and their interests, I take it, are yours—no act which would bring about a better condition of things will be left undone by me."

In presenting to the governor the resolution adopted at the convention of agents, Joseph Bowes of Baltimore, said the delegation represented the policy-holders, "the real owners of the Equitable," and in asking for the mutualization of the company by legislation they desired merely to save the surplus for the policy-holders, "to keep it from being patrimony of any one man, and to prevent it from being used to serve ends foreign to the designs of the founder of the society."

It was learned late tonight upon reliable authority that a bill has been prepared and will be introduced in the legislature early next week, embodying the views of the agents and policy-holders behind them, and providing for complete and early mutualization of the Equitable. Under its provisions all of the 52 directors of the society will be elected by the policy-holders. Its details could not be learned here tonight.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., April 21.—(Special.)—Supt. of Insurance Hendricks today received a committee of 50 general agents of the Equitable Life Assurance society, and after listening to a statement of their side of the controversy, declared that the state insurance department would do all possible to bring about the mutualization of the Equitable, expose the dummy directors, if any were found, and give to the agents the exact condition of affairs of the society.

E. A. Woods of Pittsburgh laid stress on the fact the control of the majority of the Equitable stock, now vested in Mr. Hyde, might be shifted by him to some other person "even more dangerous than he," and that this would have serious results if the holders of the stock were permitted to continue in power.

"We do not seek the transfer of this great power to any particular person or interest," said Mr. Wood. "Incidentally, I want to call your attention to the adverse legislation talked of in this and some other states. If the legislature of the state of New York shall take prompt action providing the much-desired mutualization, then such adverse legislation as is under discussion can be prevented."

Referring to Mr. Hyde and the New York meeting, Mr. Woods said after the conference:

"He started out to tell us about the mutualization plan. He told how he was going to name 24 directors, 'my directors,' he called them. When the agents heard him talk about 'his' directors, they wondered at the patience at which he had been treated."

UNCLE SAM TO TAKE HAND IN EQUITABLE MUDDLE

Secretaries Shaw and Metcalf Have Been in Communication With President on the Matter.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The United States government will take a hand in the insurance muddle. There is good authority for saying that Secretaries Shaw and Metcalf have been in telegraphic communication with President Roosevelt in regard to the insurance matter and that the real reason for Secretary Loeb's recent trip to Camp Roosevelt in Colorado was to take to the president the messages which had been sent by them.

It is understood that a reply has been received from the president in which he gives full authority for the proper government officials to act vigorously and promptly.

It is said on high authority the investigation will be used as a basis for a bill to be introduced in the next session of congress which will put life insurance companies under the control of the government on a basis similar to that under which national banks now are kept under strict surveillance.

MR. HYDE WILL PROSECUTE HIS FATHER'S DETRACTOR

He Is Angered at Publication of His Parent's Picture Between Those of Two Noted Criminals.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

DENVER, COL., April 21.—James H. Hyde will come to Denver to prosecute George J. Kindel, whom he charges with having slandered Henry B. Hyde, his father, the late president of the Equitable Life Assurance society, by printing the latter's picture between those of Jesse James and "Soapy" Smith, once a notorious Denver confidence man.

Mr. Hyde has asked that no action be taken toward prosecuting Kindel until he can come to Denver. He intimates he will come when the controversy which is raging now among officials and agents of the Equitable company is settled. Hyde intimates also that he will spend the summer months in Colorado.

Tomorrow will be Mr. Hyde's birthday. It is said he will then come into another fortune through the terms of his father's will.

SHOWS CZAR IN COFFIN.

Picture, Recently Printed in Russian Newspaper, Is Distributed Broadcast on Postal Cards.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 22.—The picture which appeared in the Neva, the most widely circulated illustrated weekly newspaper in Russia, on April 15, of the imperial family, including the emperor, empress, the czarevitch, grand dukes and dowager empress, showing them as lying dead in their coffins, has been reproduced on cards bearing on the reverse side the Russian national anthem.

These cards are being scattered by thousands throughout St. Petersburg and in other parts of Russia. The cards were printed abroad. The police apparently are puzzled as to the line of action to pursue.

CYCLONE STRIKES THE QUAKER CITY

PHILADELPHIA, April 21.—A windstorm of cyclonic velocity swept over Philadelphia and vicinity late this afternoon. DEMAND RECEIVER FOR EQUITABLE Policy-Holders in Chicago Institute Suit Against the Great Society.

ASK ALSO FOR ACCOUNTING

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

CHICAGO, April 21.—Charging gross fraud and unlawful manipulation of the funds of the Equitable Life Assurance society, seven Chicago policy-holders today brought suit in the United States circuit court against the corporation, asking that the great concern be placed in the hands of a receiver, and that an accounting be made.

The complainant are John G. Sanditz, Abraham Sletron, Julius Ettelson, Max Ettelson, Louis Neuman, Samuel Lyons and Lina Lyons. They are holders of policies in the Equitable Life ranging from $1,575 to $3,000. The sum total of their policies aggregates $18,000.

In their bill the complainants say that for a number of months past the president, vice president and directors of the Equitable have been engaged in a controversy in relation to the management of the company. This controversy, they say, is still unsettled and continuing, and "is injurious, detrimental and destructive to the business of said corporation and the interests of your orators and oratrix." It is further alleged that this controversy is not only likely to dissipate and destroy the business of the Equitable, but may effect the dissolution of the company.

It is also stated that the assets of the Equitable amount to many millions, and it is alleged that Alexander and Hyde, president and vice president of the company, respectively, have, "in violation of the charter of the corporation and the laws of New York, fraudulently converted said assets to their own use, and have so fraudulently used, manipulated, dissipated and otherwise disposed of moneys," that the corporation has suffered great losses.

The complainants also charge that "under the unlawful and fraudulent guise and pretenses of promoting the business of the Equitable by advertising the officers have charged to the same corporation large amounts expended by them for their own personal use and pleasure, and for which the corporation never received any benefit."

In conclusion, the bill asks that the court issue a writ of subpoena, directed to the defendants, commanding them personally to appear before grand juries of the United States circuit court in this city to answer all allegations mentioned in the bill.

REFORM IS DEMANDED BY RUSSIAN JOURNALISTS

Claim Authorities Incite Proletariat Against Educated Classes and Wish Right to Arm.

[Associated Press Cable to The Gazette.]

ST. PETERSBURG, April 22.—Practically all the Liberal papers of Russia were represented in the Journalists' congress here yesterday, among the delegates being Polish, Finnish, Armenian, Georgian, Esthonian, Lettish, Lithuanian and Little Russian journalists. Among the speakers were M. Milukoff, who recently made a lecturing tour of America, and the poet Korolenko. The police did not interfere.

The program adopted comprises vague resolutions in favor of the nationalization of land, some form of liberation of the laboring classes from the industrial yoke, and the right of various nationalists to self-development, as far as consistent with the existence of the empire. A long discussion of tactics resulted in a declaration that the present system left no room for legal methods of agitation, and the delegates pledged themselves to the greatest possible agitation in favor of a legislative assembly by both legal and extra legal publications. In view of attempts of the authorities to incite the proletariat against the educated classes, the congress demanded the right of the people to arm themselves and form local militia for self-defense.

Among the planks excised from the platform was a declaration for an eight-hour work day, which was carried by a majority so narrow that it was finally decided to not include it.

JAPAN WILL USE VETERANS FOR GARRISONS

TOKYO, April 22.—An imperial ordinance issued today authorizes the secretary of war to retain in the ranks of the territorial army veterans whose enlistments will expire in May. They will be retained while needed. The war department is at present using the territorial army largely for garrison duty.

HAVE THE AUTHORITY TO PROBE BEEF TRUST

Chief Wilkie Declares His Men Are Operating Within Their Province.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

CHICAGO, April 21.—An attack by the attorneys for the packers on the right of the secret service men to operate in the beef trust investigation, the statute providing government detectives limiting their operations to the suppression of counterfeiting, was reported to Chief John E. Wilkie today and he promptly issued a statement.

"I can see no way that the packers can stop the operations of the secret service in the beef trust inquiry," said Chief Wilkie, "though I have learned that their attorneys were considering opposing our work. It is true that the law provides that the secret service shall be employed on counterfeiting and on nothing else, under the treasury department. The special act of congress, however, appropriated $500,000 for investigation of the beef trust by the department of justice and the attorney general simply made a requisition for the required number of experts from our department and is paying them out of that appropriation. The secret service since the Spanish war has had its scope of usefulness extended and has operated in many outside cases, notably the Oregon land frauds."

Sir Thomas Lipton's experience as an independent packer, previous to his retirement a year ago, will be told to the grand jury. Several of his former employes have been subpoenaed. N. G. Conybear, general manager and vice president of the English Yachtman's Packing Company, now a London firm's American manager, appeared today with Messrs. Dolden and Beckstein, of England.

Frank Bischoff, a retired casing expert of Armour & Co.; Richard Oaks, independent packer; Morris Callahan, independent hog packer, were new witnesses today. Nicholas Wolf, Isadore Heller and James Waixel, casing dealers, testified regarding the Etna Trading Company, the supposed subsidiary combine. Bischoff, who was in the casing trade for 37 years, retiring three years ago, said he never heard of the Etna company. He said casings were destroyed because diseased, but not to maintain false and exorbitant prices.

WILL BUILD LOCOMOTIVES.

Pennsylvania Railroad Orders 180 Engines Constructed at the Altoona Shops.

ALTOONA, April 21.—The annual order for 180 locomotives, mostly large freight engines, has been placed by the Pennsylvania railroad with its Juniata shops here for delivery during the year. Work on them will begin immediately.

The Pennsylvania is building, at its Juniata shops, two monster electric locomotives for use on the New York & Long Island railroad. They weigh 112 tons each and are the first of the kind ever built here.

asked concerning alleged statements of Directors Scandrett and McIlvain. In his cabinet, that they were opposed to annexation. Mayor Hays is enthusiastic for Greater Pittsburgh and is heartily in favor of the plan to have a large civic, military and industrial parade on the eve of the election.

Mayor Wants Big Parade.

He thinks the police and fire departments of the two cities should turn out, besides delegations of other city employes, with workingmen and labor organizations and large floats of business establishments and the various civic and military organizations in the two cities. He thinks a parade could be formed 10 miles long. He also thinks the local civic organizations, such as the chamber of commerce, should take charge of matters and conduct an energetic campaign to stir up sentiment and to get votes for the Greater Pittsburgh. He favors the appointment of a joint committee from the Republican, Citizens and Democratic parties to participate in the campaign.

Chairman Leslie of the Republican city committee said the mayor's suggestion for a joint committee of the three political parties was a good one, but he did not believe the Democrats would enter into it because W. J. Brennen and J. F. Enhls, leaders in the Democratic party, have declared opposition to annexation. Chairman Leslie suggests that Gov. Pennypacker be persuaded to come to Pittsburgh and speak for Greater Pittsburgh at a big mass meeting.

William C. Gill, chairman of the so-called "public defense committee" of Allegheny, which is opposing annexation, stated that the first step by the opponents will be to file exceptions with the county court when the petitions for an election are presented.

He said the exceptions would set out that the proceedings are irregular because the act is unconstitutional, and that if the court ruled against the exceptions an appeal would be taken at once to the supreme court.

GEN. JAMES M. MOORE DEAD.

Expires While Visiting Relatives in Chicago—First Enlisted in Pennsylvania Regiment.

CHICAGO, April 21.—Brig.-Gen. James M. Moore, United States army, retired, died tonight after a brief illness. The home of Gen. Moore was in New York city, and he was visiting relatives when attacked by illness. The body will be taken to Washington, where funeral services will be held on Monday. The interment will take place in Arlington cemetery.

Gen. Moore was among the first to enlist in the civil war, joining the Nineteenth Pennsylvania infantry on April 18, 1861. He served two years in the line, and was then transferred to the quartermaster's department, in which he remained until his retirement as colonel in 1901. He was promoted to brigadier general on the retired list in 1904.

Cruiser Tacoma Has Been Ordered in Haste to Santo Domingo—Italian Warships Coming.

PENSACOLA, FLA., April 21.—Orders for the cruiser Tacoma to proceed to Santo Domingo were received late this afternoon. The vessel began to coal immediately, and it is expected she will get away from port before daylight.

It is said a number of warships have been ordered to Santo Domingo by the Italian government, and, as trouble is anticipated, the Tacoma was ordered there to protect American interests.

WOMAN KILLS HERSELF IN MILAN CATHEDRAL

Beautiful Marchioness Fires Bullet Into Her Forehead During Good Friday Service.

[Special Cable to The Gazette.]

MILAN, April 21.—This afternoon a dramatic and unprecedented tragedy disturbed the silence during the Good Friday service in the cathedral. The vast duomo was crowded with worshippers, praying silently around the crucifix, when suddenly a revolver shot shattered the silence.

Thousands rose to their feet, women screamed, and a thrill of alarm stirred the whole congregation. It was quickly ascertained that a woman had shot herself while kneeling at her priedieu. She was the Marchioness Maria Palavicini, viscountess of Trent, Austria. A priest hurried to the marchioness' side and found her bleeding from a terrible wound in the forehead. She died on the way to the hospital. The suicide was due to unhappiness. The marchioness, a beautiful woman, aged 30 years, had been separated from her husband.

Owing to the desecration of the cathedral it was solemnly reconsecrated before the commencement of tonight's service.

FOURTEEN DIE IN A CONVENT FIRE

Nun Perishes in an Attempt to Save Children's Lives in Canada.

AGED LADIES AMONG VICTIMS

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

MONTREAL, April 21.—One nun, nine children and four old women lost their lives and two nuns were probably fatally burned in a fire which destroyed St. Ann's convent at St. Genevieve at an early hour this morning.

The dead are: Sister Marie Adjuteur, music teacher, aged 32 years; Amanda Garaud, St. Genevieve, aged 15 years; Bertha Tessier, Ille Bizara, aged 18 years; Marcelline Villemara, Montreal, aged 11 years; Irene Bertrand, St. Genevieve, aged 11 years; Adele Robitaille, St. Genevieve, aged 9 years; Parmelia Dugas, St. Genevieve, aged 14 years; Emma Tereult, Montreal, aged 15 years; Leoni Daoust, Ille Bizara, aged 15 years; Eglantine Proulx, Montreal, aged 11 years; Mrs. Michael Lalande, St. Genevive, aged 82 years; Mrs. Cardinal, St. Genevieve, aged 80 years; Mrs. Margaret Poitvin, St. Genevieve, aged 88 years; Mrs. Robert, St. Genevieve, aged 88 years.

Sister Marie Therese and Sister Marie Robertine were both probably fatally hurt.

As soon as the fire was discovered the villagers hastened to the scene. Bucket brigades were hurriedly formed and futile efforts were made to save the building. The occupants, hurriedly aroused by the smoke, attempted to grope their way out of the building, but there was a deplorable loss of life. Sister Marie Adjuteur, in heroic efforts to save the lives of the children in her charge, succumbed to the smoke and flames. The fire started in the old ladies' hospice.

LOSS BY FIRE AND WATER.

Several Stores Near the Duquesne Theater Are Badly Damaged.

Fire and water caused a damage of $50,000 and created much excitement early yesterday morning in Penn avenue. The establishment in which the fire originated is a trading stamp concern, owned by Sperry & Hutchinson. The fire was discovered at 1:30 a. m., and was not extinguished until 5 a. m. It is supposed to have started in the basement.

The two stores in Penn avenue adjoining the trading stamp company's place were not damaged, the fire being confined to the rear of the building, but causing damage to several stores fronting in Sixth street. The following is the estimate of losses: Sperry & Hutchinson, $20,000; Isaac Harris, clothier, $18,000; Joseph Eardsley, men's furnishing goods, $2,000; McDonald's confectionery, loss not fixed; damage to buildings, owned by William and Ellen L. Stanton, $10,000.

PLAYS CAROM WITH ENGINES.

One Locomotive Strikes Another and Dashes It Against a Caboose.

Stephen Tatrona, member of a shifting crew, was hurt and a caboose car, a shifting engine and another locomotive were damaged yesterday morning by a collision on the Allegheny Valley railroad, near Haight's Run bridge. A local freight train was going north, closely followed by a shifting engine. The train stopped, halting the shifting engine. Fireman Boyd ran back to flag approaching trains, but was too late to stop a locomotive in charge of Engineer Caldwell, coming rapidly around the curve.

Caldwell's engine struck the shifter, which was thrown against the caboose of the freight train, damaging it and overturning several box cars. Engineer Shannon, of the shifter, and Caldwell and his fireman saved themselves by jumping off. Tatrona was sitting on the front end of the shifting engine, was thrown against the caboose and seriously hurt.

ENGINES BOUGHT FOR CANAL ZONE

American Locomotive Works Gets Order for Twenty-Four Machines.

FOR USE ON PANAMA RAILWAY

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The Panama canal commission today decided to purchase a number of locomotives for the special purpose of carrying off the earth excavated in the digging of the canal and particularly in the Culebra cut. A large number of proposals were before the commission and it accepted the lowest bid, that of the American Locomotive Works, for 24 locomotives at $12,350 each, to be delivered at Colon by July 1. The new locomotives are to be of the 85-ton double-ended type, this design being accepted in order to obviate the necessity for numerous turn tables and to save time in excavation.

It is estimated that the big steam shovels will dig more earth than the locomotives can remove and the rate of progress will consequently depend on the capacity of the latter. These locomotives are guaranteed to haul 500 net tons over a 1¼ per cent gradient, the heaviest on the line of the canal. This is about three times the hauling capacity of the small locomotives now engaged in the work.

A number of proposals for freight cars and other kinds of rolling stock equipment were considered and contracts soon will be awarded for them.

If the road is to serve the double purpose of taking care of the commercial traffic across the isthmus and also become the important factor required in the construction of the canal, the heaviest and most modern equipment obtainable must be secured without delay.

Secretary Murray of the commission has been instructed to leave Washington for the isthmus with a part of the official force of the commission here on May 15. Mr. Murray will open permanent headquarters there for the purpose of conducting the major portion of the clerical work necessary at close range.

ALFRED NOBLE ACCEPTS PANAMA CANAL POSITION

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Secretary Taft today received the acceptance of Alfred Noble of his appointment as one of the board of consulting engineers of the Panama canal commission. Mr. Noble constructed the "Soo" canal and is the consulting engineer of the Pennsylvania railroad in charge of its tunnel project at New York.

SAYS SANTO DOMINGANS ARE JEALOUS OF LIBERTIES

Consul Declares They Will Regard Intervention in Their Affairs as a Direct Attack.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, April 21.—Senor Fabio Fiallo, the newly-appointed consul general of the republic of Santo Domingo, who has just arrived here, said today:

"The people of Santo Domingo are very jealous of the independence of their country, and they will consider as an attack against its sovereignty any attempt to direct intervention in the affairs of the republic. It may be possible that some of the most advanced may believe in the convenience of something more direct than moral influence, but the people as a whole do not share the same belief.

"It is perhaps the general impression in Santo Domingo that the United States will some day try to establish a naval base at Samana bay. Will they meet with strong opposition? This I will not say. I will limit myself to repeat that the Santo Domingans are extremely jealous of their national independence."

OFFICERS ARE INSTALLED.

North Avenue Chapter Epworth League Holds Interesting Service, and Hear Reports for the Year.

In the North Avenue Methodist Episcopal church, Allegheny, last night, the new officers of the North Avenue Epworth league were installed. They were as follows: President, W. J. Bruner; secretary, Miss Bella Faris; treasurer, E. Wallace Leonard.

The meeting was opened by the retiring president, R. P. Forsberg, and the reports for last year were read. President Forsberg then handed the gavel to the pastor of the church, the Rev. Dr. E. L. Eaton, who passed it to the new president, charging him to be faithful in the performance of his duties.

The reports showed that $526 had been raised during the year, and that 49 new members had been received. The year was one of the best in the history of the organization.

Irrigating Arid Lands.

William H. Andrews left last night for Washington. He said work has been started on the irrigation of arid lands in New Mexico by damming up the Rio Grande river. The work will cost the government about $7,000,000 and will make 110,000 acres of land fit for agriculture.

HIS FACE IS IN ROGUES' GALLERY

Allegheny Man's Story Will Not Go With Baltimore Chief Who Recognizes Him.

HE IS STUDYING MEDICINE

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

BALTIMORE, April 21.—John B. McCann, who has been studying here as a medical student, and whose picture the police say is in the rogue's gallery at Allegheny, was arrested this morning after a lively chase by the police, who fired several shots at the fugitive, on the charge of picking the pocket of a street car conductor.

McCann was in company with John T. O'Brien, who has served time in the Maryland penitentiary. When the two were arraigned, McCann made a plea for liberty, and claimed he had never been arrested before.

"I have just passed a successful examination in medicine," he said, "and if I am committed for court I will be ruined. I don't know the man I was with, and the only reason I ran away was that I knew he had done something wrong, and was afraid I would be arrested."

Every one gave McCann a good name until Captain of Detectives Humphrey greeted him with, "How do, Johnny."

"I don't know you," replied McCann, distantly.

"Oh, but I know you. I saw your picture in the Allegheny rogue's gallery last fall," replied the captain.

McCann's manner changed.

"Is that so?" he answered. "I thought it had been taken out. When the Allegheny police knew I was coming to Baltimore they advised me to report to you and tell you I was on the straight lay, but I forgot about it."

The Pittsburgh police have been notified of the captures, and the men will be held until some information is received from that city.

Acting Superintendent of Police John Glenn of Allegheny stated last night that a man bearing the name of John B. McCann and answering the description of the man under arrest in Baltimore, was arrested by the Allegheny police about five years ago together with "Nosey" Steel, on a charge of picking pockets. McCann's picture found a place in the Allegheny rogue's gallery for several years, but was removed recently. Glenn received a description of the man under arrest in Baltimore from the police authorities of that city last night, and declares the description tallies with that of the McCann known here.

DOCTOR'S LITTLE JOKE.

It Gets Him Into Trouble and He Must Explain to Court.

"I only played a little joke on the men and did not mean any harm."

This is Dr. T. C. McConnell's answer to a charge preferred against him before Alderman L. N. Morgan of McKeesport by Edward Schwartz, a junk dealer of that city. Schwartz says about two months ago Dr. McConnell called him and a friend who was working with him into his office and compelled him to pay $2.50, all the money in his possession, which the doctor said was for a license. Dr. McConnell lives at Pitcairn and is said to have a good practice there. He waived a hearing and gave bail for court.

HAMILTON'S

Monthly Payments if You Wish on Pianos, Angeluses, ETC., ETC.

There is one feature of this sale to which we ask your particular attention. Our regular system of easy monthly payments is available for every customer who desires to take advantage of it. And what adds to its ordinary attractiveness is the fact that although the prices on many instruments have in a number of cases been cut almost in half, the monthly payments have not been increased one dollar. For example, a piano which ordinarily retails at $200 could be paid for at the rate of $10 per month. That same piano, if now offered at $200, may also be paid for at the rate of $10 per month. Only a house having the financial resources we possess could possibly undertake such a business transaction without severe loss. We figure that by this

Great Anniversary Sale of PIANOS

We can so tremendously increase the bulk of our business that the selling cost is reduced to a minimum, and the widespread publicity which follows such an event more than pays for the price sacrifices we make during the continuation of the sale.

It's money in your pocket to avail yourself of the opportunities this thirty-fifth anniversary sale presents.

You'll find, among other things, excellent used uprights, like Fischer, Pease, Chickering, Biddle, Hardman, Decker Bros., Lindemann, Schumann, New England, Gardelle, A. B. Chase and others, at prices ranging from

$65.00, $75.00, $90.00 AND UP

There are splendid grand pianos from the littlest to the biggest sizes, and in different finishes. Square pianos, new organs and used organs are shown in profusion, and at prices in most cases less than half their value.

Self-Playing Pianos, piano players, both new and used, offer a fine selection at prices that are very moderate, and on terms that will meet the limitations of most any pocketbook.

Small goods, sheet music, talking machines, musical boxes, all have been touched by the Anniversary Sale, and bear prices in keeping with the spirit of this greatest merchandising event in our history.

Remember—Store open this evening till 10 o'clock. You are invited to call even though you may not be a purchaser. Come and hear the music.

Women's Kid Gloves--The Better Sort for Easter.

A New Book--"Sandy."
First appearance today—by the author of "The Cabbage Patch" and "Lovey Mary."
Publisher's price $1.00—our price 72 cents.
This is the most pretentious work that ever came from the pen of Alice Heegan-Rice. It is along the same lines of her other books, only this time she turns to a boy for her inspiration.

We sell no kid gloves that we cannot recommend with a clear conscience. The higher priced gloves, such as Reynier, Jouvin & Co., Dent, Fownes, Fisk, Clark & Flagg, we are not asked to recommend as they are celebrated in every part of the world where women wear gloves. The name alone sells them.

All the gloves which we handle and which are not well known have our guarantee back of them. Therefore the purchaser runs no risk whatever, no matter what is paid for a glove. We recommend our $1.00 gloves as readily as we do the $1.50 or $2.00 ones, knowing there are none others to equal them at the price.

$1.00 a pair. Women's overseam Kid Gloves—glace finish, Paris point embroidered backs—all the newest Spring shades, as well as black and white.

$1.00 a pair. Women's real Kid Suede Gloves—silk whipped back, perfect fitting—shown in every new shade as well as black.

$1.00 a pair. Women's English Cape Gloves in mannish styles, splendid quality and finish.

$1.50 a pair. Women's Glace Gloves, made for us especially by a leading Paris manufacturer—the new greens and blue show up effectively in this line.

$1.65 a pair. French Suede Gloves of best quality—these gloves have no superior either as to fit or finish. You are sure to be charmed with the lovely tints they are shown in.

$2.00 a pair. Women's glace finish Gloves, the product of a leading French maker, the dyeing, cutting and sewing all done by hand.

$2.00 a pair. Women's 8-button Suede Gloves in pastel shades. Also modes and tans.

$2.25 a pair. Women's 16-button Suede Gloves, white, brown, mode and tans.

Men's Easter Hats.

Women's Easter Hats! Such is the cry everywhere, with little said about Men's Easter Hats. Yet men are accustomed to have their Spring Hat in time for Easter, if not a little before. The man who goes to church on Easter morning with wife or sister or mother will want to look his best, of course, both in honor of the fair feminine and for his own credit's sake. A new hat goes a long way with a man towards being well dressed, and we have every kind. Take a half hour today to look them over—

John B. Stetson's extra lightweight, self-conforming Derbies, the easiest derby a man can wear, $3.50.

The "Stetson Special," newest Stetson hat out, $5.00.

Stetson's Clear Beaver Derby—a genuine beaver hat—the best materials that can be put in a hat enter into its make-up, $6.00.

Derbies and Soft Hats that were made to our special order, newest and most up-to-date shapes—$2.00, $3.00, $4.00.

Silk Hats, on the most approved blocks, $5.00, $6.00, $8.00.

Opera Hats of French manufacture, $5.00, $6.00, $8.00 and $10.00.

Coachmen's Hats, $3.00, $4.00, $5.00 and $6.00.

The Napoleon Straw—

This is a child's hat which at the present time is creating quite a sensation in New York. It is the cutest and most becoming style ever gotten out for children between the ages of 2 to 8 years. This hat cannot be bought anywhere in Pittsburg outside of our store. $4.00 each.

Other styles of children's Straws, from 50c to $5.00.

Tams, Caps and Hats of cloth, silk and felt—every description—50c to $5.00.

Women's Easter Neck Fixings.

If you have forgotten to provide neck dressings in the hurry and excitement of preparing the Easter outfit, come today any time and you will find selection at our Neckwear Counter unimpaired regardless of the exceedingly heavy demands which have been made upon it the past ten days.

Ostrich Feather Stoles, all at a fourth less than regular prices.

Marabout Stoles, all at one-half off regular prices.

New Ribbons for Easter.

It would be a very unusual thing, indeed, if women did not find uses for ribbon in getting ready the Easter toilette. We are well prepared in the Ribbon Department for whatever may be asked—Plain and Fancy Warp Prints, Dresden Plaids, Jacquards, Ombres, Roman Stripes, Japonais, Failes, Taffeta Brilliant, Satin Messaline, Loop Edge Ribbons, Moires, Double-Faced Satin—such are a few of the many styles of ribbon to be seen at the Ribbon Counter. The following are specially priced—

Satin Taffetas, Plain Taffetas and Fancy Ribbons, all widths and colors, 3½ to 8 inches wide—

18c and 20c grades for 15c a yard.

35c, 40c and 50c grades for 25c a yard.

75c and $1.00 grades for 50c a yard.

Girdles, Sashes or any other article made from ribbon, for a slight advance over price of ribbon.

New Veils for Easter.

There is an adjunct to the Easter toilette which must not be overlooked. And we have such a charming assortment of veils. All the usual kinds with many a novelty that you can see nowhere else. We buy them mostly in Europe, selecting them personally.

Automobile, Novelty Lace and Chiffon Veils, in the new Alice blue, red, navy, brown, white and black, 50c to $5.00.

New Spotted Veilings, chenille, velvet or woven dot, on plain, fancy and hairline meshes. Black, magpie, jackdaw, brown, navy and all the new light shades to match the hats, 25c to $3.00 a yard.

White washable Veils, 1½ yards long, serviceable borders, $1.00, $1.50, $2.00 each.

Hemstitched Chiffon Veils, 3 yards long, black, brown, navy, gray and white $1.25 each.

SPECIAL—Fancy Tuxedo and chenille bordered Veils, assorted styles, regular 25c quality for 15c a yard.

Some Easter Reminders for Everybody.

Women will please take a hint from us that today is especially opportune for selecting a new Hat for Spring. So far as variety goes there is no more anywhere than right in our large Millinery Department—very few places that have as much, and no place where best styles are sold for such popular prices.

Again, we ask women to note that if they have put off getting the smart Jacket for Easter there is plenty of time today—between 8 and 5:30. We are enabled to meet the dictates of your fancy, both in style of garment and the price. And the same may be said of suits and waists.

Men, who have the habit of rushing in at the last moment, are reminded that our Clothing Department is at their beck and call any hour of today, and that we can fit out easily and perfectly the man who has delayed in getting his new things for Easter. Best clothes for the least money.

Then men must not forget that in the Furnishing Store there is every sort of belonging they require. The finest handkerchiefs and gloves, the best neckwear, the best half hose, the best shirts.

Women will please not forget that the Jewelry Counter offers many suggestions in pretty things and inexpensive things that go a long ways toward adding touches of smartness to the Easter dress.

Everybody must keep before them that flowers are not only typical of Easter, but that potted flowers are nice on all occasions. We are selling potted flowers, many varieties of rosebushes and green plants in our East Basement for about as little as you could expect to pay for fine specimens.

Mothers will please remember if they want that precious baby to look ever so nice tomorrow that our Infants' Department, second floor, East, offers the most splendid baby raiment for the smallest prices.

And that puts us in mind that if baby is to have an outing tomorrow a Go-Cart should be provided. Every style of Go-Cart in East Basement, from least expensive to finest.

No doubt if the day be fine, as it surely will be, women will approve of a Parasol. The very latest creations at the Parasol Counter.

The Oxford is the feminine shoe for Easter. We are showing dainty Oxfords, Gibson Ties and Pumps in our Shoe Store, and prices will be found right.

To the above hints regarding today we might add that if there is anything you need to help out your Easter appearance, just come to us. We are sure to have it.

Saturday, April 22, 1905.

The sudden death of Henry P. Ford, former mayor of this city, came as a shock to his family, his friends and the public. Though it had been known he was not in robust health, his death had been deemed a somewhat remote contingency. Mr. Ford was very widely known and was highly esteemed. Prior to his election as mayor in the hard-fought campaign of 1896—when he was opposed by George W. Guthrie, he had served in councils and was president of the select branch. After the expiration of his term as mayor Mr. Ford had not taken an active part in politics or civic affairs.

President Shonts and Vice President Wallace of the new Panama commission have made contracts for the delivery of 24 double-end mogul engines to the Panama railroad as soon as possible. These will be needed to handle the canal traffic, independent of the trans-continental business. The contract has no bearing upon the policy of the commission toward commercial shipments, which might be inferred from the recent discussion of rates and the belief expressed that a reduction in charges would cause an increased tonnage. These locomotives will not be more than sufficient for the distribution of canal supplies for a few years.

There is reason in the request of Superintendent Wallace of the police bureau for some better means of catching violators of the automobile regulations. A motor scorcher cannot be overtaken by a policeman on foot, or by a horse. It is an open question, however, whether an automobile or two will greatly improve the situation. They might chance to be always in some other locality when infractions of the law occurred, and if they were not machines of the first-class might be as easily distanced by a racer as a horse and buggy. More conspicuous numbers and illumination at night might serve a better purpose. In any event there should be rigid enforcement of the ordinances against dangerous speeding.

Opponents of the Greater Pittsburgh have outlined their campaign, which is to file exceptions to the petition in the county court, alleging unconstitutionality of the act, lack of necessity for the proceeding, etc., and, if overruled there, to take an immediate appeal to the supreme court. There will be no serious objections to this program, as it contemplates expeditious settlement of the questions at issue. The fear has been entertained that tactics of delay might be employed to postpone, if possible, the preliminaries of annexation beyond the terms of the present city administrations. The plan suggested is fair fighting and must be commended to that extent, as dilatory tactics would have to be condemned as a trifling with popular desire.

It is the belief in Vienna that if Crete is annexed to Greece it will be the signal for immediate proclamation of the kingdom of Bulgaria by Prince Ferdinand. The Viennese commentators point out that Bulgaria is bound to Turkey by no stronger tie than Crete and that it is no less restive under the bond. Prince Ferdinand is known to be ambitious and his recent visit to the European capitals was for the purpose of securing consent of the powers to Bulgarian independence. The powers, however, appear to have trouble enough on their hands without giving assent to the segregation of Turkey's nominal dependencies in the Mediterranean sea and the Balkan peninsula, where turbulence is a constant factor. It is not probable they will encourage Greek annexation of Crete.

Mr. Bryan is urging the theme of public ownership of utilities with all the ardor of a simon-pure socialist. He has seized upon the issue for the next national campaign since the municipal election in Chicago, as he hopes it may have a larger popular following than free silver, anti-imperialism or "trust busting" along Bryanesque lines. It can hardly be doubted that Mr. Bryan's shiftiness in the adoption of issues has weakened public confidence in his sincerity on the one hand, or in his acumen on the other. The logic of events has so often and so completely refuted the Nebraskan's dogmatic assertions that he can be no longer looked upon as an oracle by any but the most obtuse disciples. Public ownership of utilities may be an issue in the next campaign, but it is not probable it will be a winning issue. The further Judge Dunne gets along with his project the less likely is it to enlist popular support for wider application.

Pushing Consolidation.

Greater Pittsburgh will not be delayed beyond the time necessary to test the new law in the courts and to hold the election. This is made certain by the action of the chamber of commerce in starting a petition yesterday. The law provides for two methods of bringing the matter before the court—one by resolution of councils and the other by petition of not less than 2 per cent of the voters. The chamber has decided to proceed by means of petition and if councils do not take speedy action no inconvenience will result.

It has been supposed Pittsburgh councils would be eager to adopt a resolution requesting the court to take steps for the necessary election, and there is no proof to the contrary. There have been rumors, however, that councilmen may make common cause with aldermen and ward leaders who oppose consolidation on personal grounds. The chamber of commerce will be prepared for any such contingency. Moreover, the chamber realizes that this question is not of a partisan character, and will endeavor to keep out partisan influences from the campaign for the popular vote, as it did from the campaign before the legislature.

There can be no reasonable objection to the action taken by the chamber. A majority of the people in both cities favor the annexation of Allegheny and they should be given the opportunity to express their sentiments at the polls, free from any complicating conditions. The petition of citizens, irrespective of political affiliation, keeps the subject free from outside issues. The call for select council to meet this morning is evidence that the administration is anxious to hurry action and to obtain credit for it.

One Way Out.

A case was argued before the United States supreme court this week, decision upon which will have immense importance as regards the taxable value of franchises. The case came up on appeal from the New York courts on the franchise tax law of that state, which taxes the value of the franchises held by corporations as so much property in their possession. If the corporation makes compensation for the franchises it enjoys that diminishes by so much their property value, but whatever the value may be it is taxed like other property owned by the company. The law provides for the distribution between the state and municipalities of the proceeds of the tax, which run high in the millions. The corporations have resisted the law on the ground that it is unconstitutional, but it was upheld by the state courts. Many millions of back taxes are dependent upon the decision of the supreme court.

Counsel for the corporations in argument stated that "if the present statute is upheld, it will undoubtedly be followed by similar legislation in every state." Certainly this will be the case or the people will know the reason why. It will open the way to rescue for the people vast amounts of public wealth lost through the treachery or improvidence of public trustees. The fact that a public service corporation may have induced a venal city council to give it valuable franchises to the use of public property will not save it from the necessity of paying taxes on that property, and the more valuable it is and the less compensation made for it the heavier will be its tax bills. A way will be open by which—if the legislature can be induced to act—the consequences of the failure of the linear tax ordinance may be retrieved and similar humbuggery will prove futile to confirm the corporations in unjust privileges.

New Texas Idea.

Houston, Tex., is trying a municipal experiment of as much interest as that in public ownership in Chicago and one that may be of more practical value. Houston has been controlled by a bunch of Democratic politicians, as all Texas cities are, and for years went from bad to worse. At present the city has a funded debt of $3,000,000, a floating indebtedness of $200,000 and its public property in a bad state of dilapidation. The money has been spent without adequate returns in good government, good highways, comforts or conveniences that cities should provide.

In this extremity Houston appealed to the Texas legislature for relief in the form of a new charter, with ripper attachment. The bill has passed. The entire city government is unseated—mayor, controller and councils, composed of two members from each ward. In their stead are installed a mayor, controller and four aldermen, elected by the people on one city ticket. Provisions for initiative, recall and referendum were eliminated from the new charter, but Houston is satisfied to try its experiment in the management of a municipal corporation by a commission of five, checked by a department of accounts.

Houston got its suggestion of government by commission from Galveston, where a commission was put in charge after the great disaster. The Galveston committee has rehabilitated the city, paved streets, erected public buildings, provided for schools and constructed a great sea wall that is one of the engineering triumphs of the century. It has paid for all of these things out of current revenues derived from a levy of $1.50 on each $100 of property valuation—a tax of 15 mills—and has a surplus in the city treasury. Galveston is a better city in every way than before it was devastated by hurricane and tidal wave.

Houston, on the other hand, has been paying a rate of 20 mills on the dollar, accumulating indebtedness and suffering deterioration of its public works. It decided it had been the victim of a public calamity, less spectacular than that of its neighbor, Galveston, but none the less real. So it adopted the commission idea in spite of the opposition of its politicians. It expects to get better service by extreme concentration of responsibility and if that is not wholly satisfactory it will try again for the initiative and referendum on large improvements and on the disposal of franchises.

It is a fact that concentration of authority and responsibility in municipal affairs is nearly always attended by benefical results. It has been the experience of New York since creation of the board of revision and estimates, that city affairs are better managed; the new system in Baltimore has given much satisfaction. There is no reason to doubt it will have a similar effect in Houston, but in any event the experiment will be worth watching. At the very worst there cannot be so many grafters to be satisfied before the benefits begin to reach the public.

The Business Situation.

So far as industrial affairs are concerned there was very little that was new in the developments of the week. An incident of the iron market was the announcement of the purchase of 30,000 tons of foreign pig iron by an American manufacturer who will convert the same into steel rails for export to South America. The production of domestic furnaces is maintained at the recent maximum, and the iron trade as a whole continues in a strong and healthy condition. A moderate improvement is reported in mercantile trade, but this branch of business has been slow in expanding as compared with the activity in some industrial lines.

Weather conditions throughout the week were not favorable to outdoor work or to retail shopping. The recent cold wave was severe enough to injure early fruits and extended far enough south to interfere with farm work. In the northwest spring wheat seeding was also interfered with, but no appreciable damage was done to winter wheat, which, as shown by the government report, entered the spring season under more favorable conditions than for years.

In financial circles the chief incident was the sharp reaction which occurred in the stock market, accompanied by heavy liquidation of speculative accounts. It is possible that this reaction may go farther, in which event it may be well for the public to bear in mind that the cause is wholly separate and distinct from anything connected with general business. It is well known that there are two great factions in Wall street which are financial rivals. The extent of this rivalry and the bitter ends to which it could be carried was revealed in the stock market fight of May, 1901. The object of that fight was control of the properties which were later thrown together to form the Northern Securities Company. This week the supreme court of the United States handed down its decree for the disintegration of that combination of railroads, and the first formal steps were taken toward carying out this mandate.

Pending the long period of litigation which was finally disposed of this week there has been expert maneuvering on the financial chessboard for advantage in the railroad world. Professional speculators in Wall street have been engaged in trying to anticipate the moves on this chessboard. They have made large purchases of one railroad stock after another which they thought would be needed by the players of the game. They have worked night and day turning out rumors intended to enhance the market value of the stocks thus accumulated. So far there has been no realization of the many "deals" said to be in process of negotiation. Meanwhile members of the same speculative clique have been trying to "corner" the wheat market. The strain upon their financial resources entailed by the task of trying to hold the high-priced stocks and at the same time hold May wheat contracts at an abnormally high price level has been too great, and liquidation in one or both markets was imperative. The high market value of many railroad and industrial stocks, as well as of May wheat, was maintained largely by manipulation. Under the circumstances the reaction in prices is not only natural, but much to be desired.

An Illustrious Precedent.

Nervous people alert to detect signs of the approaching decline of the republic into an autocratic empire have found a serious indication in the appointment of a consulting engineer on irrigation work at a salary of $10,000 a year. "This is an office which the president appears to have created of his sovereign will and pleasure," says the Boston Herald, "congress not having established it or made any appropriation for it." But the fact of the case is that congress gave general authority for reclamation work in the arid regions, and empowered the secretary of the interior to "perform any and all acts" that might be necessary to carry into effect the purposes of the law. This work is not sustained by specific appropriations, but congress provided that proceeds of sales of public lands in arid regions should be set apart as a special fund which may be drawn upon for the cost of reclamation work. In pursuance of the authority conferred upon him the secretary of the interior, and not the president, appointed a consulting engineer and other engineers.

The Washington Post, while admitting that this action is in pursuance of law, thinks it dangerous. It says "the practice of enacting laws creating vast lump sums to be expended in the discretion of departments and commissions, without accountability to congress except in the way of reports as to the manner of expenditure, is an open door to extravagance, if not corruption." On the contrary we believe that such discretionary authority will result in better and more economical work than if congress itself should undertake to supervise the details and regulate the appointments. Congress is better occupied in enforcing responsibility for results. A very illustrious precedent can be given for such policy, no other than the advice of Thomas Jefferson himself. When secretary of state under Washington he endeavored to have congress appropriate a lump sum for the diplomatic service to be apportioned according to the discretion of the president. It would still be a good plan to adopt and would lead to the improvement of the service. It would of course be the duty of the president to report the details of expenditures to congress, which would be in a better position to exercise real control than by the present system.

Masonry at Washington.

It is rather a noteworthy fact that the great majority of presidents of the United States, from Washington down to Roosevelt, have been members of the Masonic fraternity. In the later years the best known of these are Garfield, Harrison and McKinley. Garfield was a Knight Templar and held his membership in all the York rite bodies in this city. He was a charter member of a Washington blue lodge and remained on its rolls until his death. McKinley was also a Knight Templar, but his membership was in Ohio.

John Quincy Adams, who came into the presidency during the days of the anti-Mason excitement, talked and wrote against the order with considerable vigor. Andrew Jackson was at one time grand master of the Grand Lodge of Tennessee.

An informal poll was made of the two houses of congress a few years ago by a Washington Mason, and it was discovered that more than 87 per cent of the members of the house were in the order, and more than 80 per cent of the members of the senate.—Boston Transcript.

When Napoleon began to defeat the well tried generals of Europe they complained that he was always far in advance of where he should have been by the rules, but it was all due to his better knowledge of how to get work from his soldiers. TALKED OF IN GOTHAM

By Frank A. Parker.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, April 21.—It wasn't Dr. Parkhurst, nor was it District Attorney Jerome who raged today at Tenderloin conditions as exemplified recently by the murder in Toby's saloon. It was Police Commissioner McAdoo, who has under him over 8,000 policemen paid by the city to clean up such plague spots. The head of the force was not sparing in his words of denunciation; he likened the small joints that thrive in the Tenderloin to "ulcer spots," and said that they "ought to be extirpated."

This Parkhurstian denunciation was occasioned by the commissioner's personal investigation of the Toby saloon murder. He said the police were looking for a man named Regan, whose brother is now in custody, intending to charge him with the crime. Through his secretary, Mr. McAdoo issued this statement:

"This thing of considering the Tenderloin as a kind of no-man's land, where, by sort of common consent, one man can kill the other and the whole affair be considered as something with which the public has nothing to do must be stopped. It seems to be a part of the common law of that region that men and women who are present at these murderous affairs are supposed to brazingly perjure themselves and profess ignorance of everything that takes place. It is considered bad form to give any evidence which will help the police authorities to find a murderer. I believe these ulcerous spots ought to be extirpated and are not permissible, even in the Bohemian life of the Tenderloin."

Busy Day at Ellis Island.

Today's arrivals of immigrants on the various transatlantic steamships at this port number more than 10,000, marking the real spring rush to the United States and exceeding all previous records for the same period in past years. The steamships are being handled in the order of their arrival, and those arriving last will have to hold their steerage passengers until tomorrow on board the vessels. Today's European invasion was brought on the following steamers: Deutschland, 292; Lombardia, 1,041; Pennsylvania, 2,879; Baltic, 1,850; Neckar, 2,600; Gallia, 1,100; Christiania, 631. The steamship Pennsylvania's list of 3,086 passengers, of whom 2,879 were steerage, is the largest number ever brought to this port one one vessel.

But It Wasn't Stage Money.

The police of Paterson, N. J., are busy today trying to ascertain what became of a roll of about $200 that John Nolan threw away yesterday in front of the Susquehanna railroad station. The money belonged to Charles W. Elbow, who was carrying it in his hip pocket when he lost it. Nolan had found the money while walking along the street and thought it was "stage money," and for that reason he was doubly amused at the frantic effort of the crowd to get it. It amused him to think how they would be "fooled." He noticed, though, that several persons examined the bills and placed them in their pockets and then it suddenly dawned on him that perhaps the money was not "stage money" after all, and he pushed the remainder of the roll down into his pocket. There was less than $50 left.

Doctors Baffled by Epidemic.

That diphtheria anti-toxin has been useless in the cure of cerebro-spinal meningitis is the reluctant verdict of members of the Academy of Medicine. In discussing the subject, Dr. George L. Peabody said: "I am compelled to make the humiliating confession that we have fallen into a trap without adding anything to our knowledge. I was never more painfully impressed with our helplessness in treating cerebro-spinal meningitis. In Roosevelt hospital we gave the treatment in 22 cases, mostly young children. Eleven died, only one patient showed any marked effect from anti-toxin—a girl who was ultimately cured."

Robbers Get Easter Gowns.

Twenty fashionable women are doomed to disappointment. A bold burglar has entered the establishment of their tailor and carried away their new Easter dresses. The clothing was neatly packed in boxes, awaiting delivery, and was valued at a high figure. The real victim, however, is I. Kleinberger, a woman's tailor, who has some of New York's fashionable women among his patrons. So anxious is Mr. Kleinberger to avoid disappointing his patrons that he has advertised that he will pay $100 to the persons who return the goods and ask no questions.

Women Take Up Municipal Ownership.

If at the next local election the question of municipal ownership is not a plank in the platform of the Democratic party it will not be the fault of clubwomen of the Bronx. If all the women have the energy and ambition of Mrs. Nina Muller, of Union avenue, who is leader in the fight, there will "be something doing" in the next election. Mrs. Muller, who is the wife of Conrad Muller, a prominent Democratic politician and a lawyer, came from Chicago with a mind ready to embrace the idea which the western city is so enthusiastically supporting. She has succeeded in arousing her friends and neighbors within a radius of several miles and on Sunday an organization will be effected. Then the fight will begin in earnest.

No Safety for Fruit Trees.

Venturesome amateur gardeners may set out geraniums or other exotics before that time, but the practical and experienced will bide their time. So far, loss may be saved by exercise of good judgment, but as to fruit trees there is no remedy save in selecting northern exposures for orchards. The tree in the yard or garden is too large to protect by artificial means and must take its chances.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

QUIET OBSERVATIONS

By Erasmus Wilson.

Well, what of it?

Suppose the women do get the upper hand and run things their way?

Didn't Darius, Alexander the Great, Napoleon and others try to run things on this earth at various times?

And haven't certain able men and women tried to run things in this country of ours?

Where are all these now?

And isn't the earth still revolving on its axis, the sun rising and setting as usual, and the people getting along quite well, all things considered?

What a blessing that neither the earth nor the people therein fear the kicker, the faddest, or the self-constituted reformer.

You see, there is an eternal fitness of things, and there is no power on earth that can permanently destroy, or even effectually upset this order.

From your point of view you can see what seems to be the only true way. Your neighbor, whose point of view is but slightly removed from yours, does not, and cannot see it as it appears to you, consequently you cannot agree on the matter. Each goes his way deploring the perversity of the other.

* * *

We think we only need certain things to make our lives complete, and we think well, and if we go about securing these things in the right way we are likely to succeed.

But there's the rub. We don't go about securing these things in the right way, and because we don't succeed we lay the blame on our neighbors instead of taking it to ourselves.

A young man thinks that if he were a lawyer he would be all right. After spending years in study he finds himself a lawyer all right, and nothing more. He can't understand why people don't crowd business on him, load him down with fat retainers, and place him at the head of the bar.

Years, long, weary years, come and go, and still he does not succeed.

Is it the fault of the profession or is it an instance of the unfitness of things? The people do not owe him anything, nor does the world owe him a living. If he has taken the unfit way he will meet with failure, sure.

The profession, or trade, must fit the man or the results will not be satisfactory. A mistake in the choice of avocation is as fatal to success and personal happiness as a mistake in the choice of a life partner.

* * *

The girl of the period, as she now appears in the center of the stage with the spot-light following her movements, has it in her mind and heart to right the wrongs now existing in the social world. There can be no doubt as to her honesty of purpose, but whether she succeeds or not will depend upon her ability to do the right thing at the right time. This, in turn, will depend largely upon her education and training, and not a little upon her necessities, for necessity is the spur that goads us on to doing things.

Man has been driven, literally driven, to do nearly everything that he has accomplished since his debut on earth. Woman is being driven to do something in order to better her condition, to keep pace with the times.

That she should do the right thing at the right time on her first effort could not be expected, not being infallable. And then conditions are changing with the years, so that she must become progressive.

The strong-minded woman was in the lead for a long time. She was dead sure she was the Moses to lead her sisters out of what she termed worse than Egyptian bondage. But, Moses like, she never reached the Canaan of which she talked so much. Other leaders have tried, and many more will try before the goal is reached.

* * *

One of the vital phases of the problem now confronting the woman of the hour is, what is left for her to do that she has not already tried?

There are no soft snaps to be picked up, no new professions to break into, nor anything that she can monopolize, or corner, or convert into a trust.

Nor is woman alone in danger of having to go back to the mines, as it were, for the young man of the hour is likewise in sore straits. This is clearly set forth in a recent editorial in the Hilltop News, from which the following excerpt is taken:

"The trades offer little inducement, clerkships none—and hence so many are going into the professions that the average doctor, lawyer or preacher is not making over $1,000 a year. Statistics say this of New York and Philadelphia, and 'twould not vary much in other cities. Many there are who make much, very much more. We speak of an average. Fewer men are marrying at an early age; more women going into shops and offices; girls are taking the places of men in many lines, and that at salaries men would not work for, and are thus cheating themselves out of husbands and homes for their future old age. The store girl and the office girl may feel independent and brave for a few years, but when the bloom of youth is once brushed off by the contact with business (and it don't take long), she loses her charm for the young man, and soon even the storekeeper finds that he must replace her with younger material. Then what? A lonely, premature old age. Few men of even 25 can afford today to keep an establishment of their own on the scale of the society in which they move. Hence marriage is indefinitely postponed, waiting for "better times." Are they coming? Not alone is it a business problem, but a social one, that will be hard to deal with in the future. It is race suicide in another form."

Mr. Quiet Observer:—I have been reading your Quiet Observations for over a year, and have found them very interesting, but for about the last month, I think you have been a little hard on what you call the bachelor girl.

I haven't very much to say, but one thing I will say, and that is, "Hurrah for the Big Chief!" in the issue of April 9. He certainly is one of the very few men who has a little sympathy for the so-called bachelor girl. I am glad to say that I am not one yet, but if my choice doesn't show up I will be one until he does, and perhaps for a long time.

Why not get at these bachelor men and give them a piece of your mind the same as you do with the girls, as I read in your column some time ago, that it is not the proper thing for a girl to do a man's work, and if she should propose, she certainly would be doing it? And now let me repeat the words of the "Big Chief:" "Go your way, bachelor girl, and may God bless you. You are the salt of the earth, and we need more of you."

ANOTHER STENOGRAPHER.

* * *

Dear Quiet Observer:—While traveling over the hills of upper Armstrong county near the borders of the groundhog district of Jefferson county a few winters ago, I stopped one cold evening at a tumble-down farm house, and while waiting the preparation of the evening meal I picked up a book and read a poem which began:

"N for Nannie and B for Ben,
I see them now as I saw them then,
Carved in the oak tree old—"

I have never been able to find the poem since nor do I know the author. It is a pretty, sentimental poem, telling how Ben deserted Nannie for one who had gold. Nannie dies and Ben comes back and reads the letters on the "oak tree old."

I would be very grateful if you tell me where to find it. OLD BACH.

TRADING STAMPS STORE IS CLOSED

Indignant Housewives Discover Vacant Room When They Apply for Premiums.

HAS BRANCH IN PITTSBURGH

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Press Building.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., April 21.

Many anxious housewives with filled books of the Trading Bond Company have called at the firm's store, 909 Market street, the last few days, only to find the place closed. In the window is a "for rent" sign, while beside it is a sign bearing the words, "We are here to stay" and "Our premiums never disappoint."

The concern has operated in Philadelphia for the past two years and a half. Recently, however, their business is said to have fallen off and only a small stock of goods was carried toward the last. It is said that people calling with filled books were told to leave the books at the store and that the premiums they desired would be sent to them as soon as received. Many people thus parted with the evidence of their claim, it is said, and never received the premiums.

Ten days ago the fixtures and remaining goods on hand were taken out of the store at night, it is charged, and shipped out of the city to one of the company's stores in another city. Since then a constant string of people has been calling at the empty store room. The company, which is said to be conducted by a Pittsburgh man by the name of Lamar, has stores in Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Erie and other places.

DELCASSE WOULD LEAVE CABINET

French President and Ministers Urging Him to Retain Foreign Portfolio.

WAVERING IN HIS DECISION

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

PARIS, April 21.—After a notable service of nearly eight years in the direction of foreign affairs Theophile Delcasse today informed President of the Council Rouvier of his desire and intention to resign.

A cabinet council was held and at its conclusion M. Rouvier proceeded to the Quai d'Orsay where, voicing the wishes of President Loubet and the ministers, he earnestly besought M. Delcasse to retain his place in the cabinet. When the president of the council came from the interview he stated to his colleagues that he bore a favorable impression of its results. M. Delcasse, he said, had given no final answer, but had promised to reserve his determination until tomorrow when a final answer will be given. It is believed that M. Delcasse will yield to the insistence of President Loubet and the president of the council.

The motives leading up to M. Delcasse's sudden determination to retire from the cabinet are primarily attributed to internal controversies over the Moroccan question; and this to some extent has been accentuated by similar controversies over French neutrality in the far east. The Socialistic criticisms have been particularly vehement during recent days on the Moroccan question and this appears to have finally decided M. Delcasse to surrender the question into other hands. It is felt that his retirement now would be hailed in Germany as a German triumph, and this is one of the main considerations leading M. Rouvier to earnestly appeal to M. Delcasse to remain in the foreign office.

LONDON, April 22.—It is unanimously admitted that the retirement of Foreign Minister Delcasse would be a great victory for the German emperor, and London papers express the hope that M. Delcasse will consent to reconsider his decision to retire from the French cabinet at this time, when so many delicate questions of policy such as Morocco, far eastern neutrality, etc., are requiring the ablest man at the helm. The "Daily Telegraph" says editorially "that no statesman in Europe during the last seven years has seen so very near the heart of things or threw his weight more consistently and powerfully in the scale of pace."

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Diplomats here hold the opinion that Morocco more than the menace to French neutrality in the far east is responsible for the threatened retirement of M. Delcasse, the French minister of foreign affairs. It is learned that France has informed Germany that nothing could have been further from her intentions than to injure German interests in Morocco, and even has gone so far as to say the French position there not only furnishes a protection to the commerce of other nations, but insures rather than threatens the integrity of Morocco. So satisfied is Germany, it is stated, with the attitude of France, and so different is that attitude from what Germany believed, that it is believed here Berlin and Paris are approaching complete accord on the subject. In the diplomatic corps here, M. Delcasse long has been regarded as one of the few world diplomatists of today.

MACK IS FORCED FROM PRESIDENCY

Jacob E. Ridgway Is the New Head of the Keystone Telephone Company.

WILL ENLARGE OPERATIONS

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Press Building.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., April 21.

The resignation of John M. Mack from the presidency of the Keystone Telephone Company today caused no little surprise, not only among financiers and business men, but among Mr. Mack's personal friends. The new president of the Keystone is Jacob E. Ridgway. President Ridgway tonight announced that the Keystone will be reorganized and that the company will issue $3,000,000 worth of bonds and that stock will be retired, if the board of directors aproves. The proposed bond issue, President Ridgway explained, is to enlarge the operation of the company to extend wires and put in telephones.

Mr. Mack's retirement, it is believed, has been forced by the political influence of Insurance Commissioner Durham and others of the city leaders. Coming at a time when financiers and political leaders are discussing the proposed gas deal, Mr. Mack's resignation as president of the Keystone is believed by many to be the first move in a plan inspired by certain political leaders to eliminate Mr. Mack from all connection with semi-political business ventures with which he has been conspicuously identified in recent years.

There were all kinds of rumors on the street with regard to the gas deal and the sudden resignation of Mr. Mack. One rumor had it that it is proposed to consolidate the United Gas Improvement Company, the Keystone Telephone Company and the Philadelphia Electric Company. This rumor had it that Mr. Mack's resignation was the first step in this gigantic proposition. The influence of Insurance Commissioner Durham in deposing Mr. Mack, it was rumored, would be followed during the coming year by his forcing Mr. Mack to retire also from the directorship of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company.

CHESTER D. POTTER.

ARLINGTON PLACE FOR JONES' BODY

Admiral George Dewey's Declaration May Change View of D. A. R. Congress.

BELONGS TO WHOLE NATION

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Room 10, Postal Building.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 21.

Admiral George Dewey takes issue with the Daughters of the American Revolution that John Paul Jones' remains should be buried at the United States naval academy at Annapolis. In the congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution on Wednesday, resolutions were introduced and referred to a committee, which so recommend. The committee has requested the views of Admiral Dewey. In response he sent today a letter to Mrs. Elizabeth C. Williams, chairman of the committee, which said:

"John Paul Jones belonged, it is true, to the navy; but first of all, and above all, he belonged to the United States of America. And in my judgment, as the nation's hero, his remains should be placed in the ground sacred to the nation's dead, the National cemetery at Arlington."

A prominent member of the Daughters of the American Revolution said today that the broad view of Admiral Dewey, recognising Paul Jones as a great national figure rather than as a great naval figure, would doubtless find great favor among the patriotic body of women assembled here, and that when the resolution comes before the congress tomorrow, the resolutions will probably be so amended as to recommend the interment of the remains at Arlington, instead of at Annapolis.

MOTION TO STRIKE OUT STANDARD OIL PLEADINGS

Attorney General of Missouri Contends for a Judgment of Ouster Against Company.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

JEFFERSON CITY, MO., April 21.—A motion was filed in the supreme court today by Attorney General Hadley to strike out the pleadings filed by the Standard Oil Company and the Republic Oil Company to his information alleging combination to control the supply and price of oils in this state. These pleadings deny the allegations set forth in the information filed by the attorney general, and at the same time attack the constitutionality of the anti-trust law.

Attorney General Hadley in his motion contends that such pleadings cannot be filed in the supreme court. The motion concludes as follows:

"And informant further moves that the court strike out the whole of said return and answer, and every line thereof and render judgment of ouster against respondents for the following reasons: (1) Because the same is not responsive to the information and writ therein. (2) Because the same is insufficient in that it is neither a plea nor a justification, nor a disclaimer."

MR. ROCKEFELLER'S PASTOR TALKS OF HIS PARISHIONER

Says Men Who Call the Oil King Hard Names Cringe and Cower in His Presence.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CLEVELAND, April 21.—Dr. Charles A. Eaton, pastor of the Euclid Baptist church, which John D. Rockefeller attends, tonight talked of his rich parishioner.

"If any one wants my sentiments as to the centralization of wealth without reference to Mr. Rockefeller or any individual man, he can have it any time.

"The attitude of the generality of men toward Mr. Rockefeller is remarkable. At a distance they call him all the hard names at their command, and in his presence they cringe and cower before him. I have seen one of the biggest men of one of the highest professions so embarrassed in Mr. Rockefeller's presence that he stammered."

PRESIDENT GETS NEWSPAPERS

The Pelt of Bear Killed by Mr. Roosevelt Is Being Prepared for a Rug.

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, COL., April 21.—A large bundle of newspapers was sent to President Roosevelt today by Elmer Chapman, a courier. Many of the papers contained stories of the president's hunt.

The pelt of the bear killed by the president is being prepared for a rug. The skin of the head will be drawn over a paper mache form, but natural teeth will be used. The skull is to be added to the collection of C. Hart Merriam, biologist of the department of agriculture.

MAY HAVE USE FOR CARNEGIE HERO FUND

BROCKTON, MASS., April 21.—(Special.)—An agent of Andrew Carnegie, F. M. Wilmot, is coming here Monday to decide whether any of the philanthropist's hero fund can be distributed among those who performed acts of heroism during the Grover factory boiler explosion March 20, which resulted in 58 deaths. A fund raised in Brockton has reached $82,882, of which $6,142 has been appropriated and $3,274 actually expended.

TRADING STAMPS ARE DOOMED IN COLORADO

DENVER, April 21.—Gov. McDonald today signed the medical, the anti-trading stamp and the anti-boycott bills. The medical bill was introduced in the house to prohibit osteopathists and Christian Scientists from practicing in Colorado, but was so amended by the senate as to allow representatives from all schools equal privileges.

Czar's Gunboats at Crete.

CANEA, ISLAND OF CRETE, April 21.—Two Russian gunboats anchored off Canea on Thursday, on the occasion of the opening of the Cretan chamber of deputies. The censor, however, eliminated from press telegrams all mention of the presence of these vessels.

TAKE PHOTOGRAPHS WITH CAMERA ATTACHED TO KITE

Army Officers Make Experiment for Securing Pictures of Enemy's Defenses During War.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, April 21.—A board of army officers, among whom was Gen. A. W. Greely, the chief signal officer, went to the Indianhead proving grounds today to conduct experiments by which a camera suspended in the air by means of a kite may be controlled and operated by an electric device operated by a person standing on the ground. It is claimed that photographs of the surrounding country for a distance of 10 or 12 miles may be taken in this way.

There was considerable wind blowing today and some rain fell, but notwithstanding this three exposures were secured at various distances in the air, one of which was taken at an altitude of perhaps 400 feet. It will be some days before the plates are developed.

Army officers are watching the developments with considerable interest in view of the possibility of the use of the camera for purposes of photographing an enemy's troops and defenses in actual warfare.

ENTOMBED MINERS DEAD.

Bodies of Five Men Are Rescued from Cabin Creek Company's Mine in W. Va.

CHARLESTON, W. VA., April 21.—(Special.)—Burt Green, Oscar Crump, William Allen, Charles Nichols, and Ira Nichols, the five miners entombed last evening in the explosion in the Cabin Creek Mining Company's mine at Kayford, were found dead and their bodies recovered from the mine today. The last body was taken out at 9 o'clock this morning after 15 hours' work by the rescuing party. Four others miners were injured. They will recover. All the miners killed were from Greenup, Ky.

Indications point to the explosion being caused by ignition of dust from a powder shot.

GROUNDS FOR INSANITY.

They Include Scholarly Tendencies and Self-Opinion in Case of New York Physician.

NEW YORK, April 21.—(Special.)—Application was made to Supreme Court Justice Geigerich this afternoon for the commitment of Dr. William Karl Kubin to an insane asylum on these grounds:

He is extravagant in money matters; spends most of his time reading books; attends lectures at Columbia university; does not agree with other doctors concerning the treatment of some diseases, and bought an X-ray machine to experiment with.

The application for Dr. Kubin's commitment was made on behalf of the wife.

WRITING LOVE LETTERS.

Bessie Helen Davis Will Not Prosecute Edward Smedes for Shooting Her in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, April 21.—(Special.)—Occupying private rooms in the Pennsylvania hospital, owing to the kindness of the members of The School Girl Company, Bessie Helen Davis and Edward Smedes, who shot her and then fired a bullet into his own brain in a Ninth street hotel, idle away the hours by writing love notes to each other.

Miss Davis has not shown any disposition to prosecute her assailant. Both are rapidly recovering. Smedes may be well enough by Monday to leave the hospital. In that case he will be taken before a magistrate.

Two Dogs Are Shot.

A dog belonging to John Hickey of First avenue, Homestead, was shot yesterday by its owner after having gone mad from an injury inflicted by a milkman, who threw bricks at it. The dog snapped at Officer West Noble of the Homestead police, who discovered that it was a victim of rabies. A mad dog which was unlicensed and wandering about Thirteenth avenue, Homestead, yesterday afternoon attacked Cook Alexander, a newsboy, and bit him on the leg. The wound was cauterized and the dog shot.

Many Societies Will Parade.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Saengerfest last night in Cecilia hall, Allegheny, it was announced that all the German societies in the county would participate in the street parade and be represented in the Volkfest which will be held in Ross grove on June 7. Chief Marshall Charles Kirschler reported that 160 aids had been appointed to assist in the parade. Another subscription of $1,000 for the Saengerfest fund was reported. Three concerts are being arranged for the occasion.

Trouble Over Jug of Whisky.

Charged with stealing a jug of whisky W. R. McKenna, a railroader, was arrested in Smithfield street, near First avenue last night on complaint of an Italian who claimed he tried to steal his jug of whisky. McKenna claims that a friend of his told him to bring the jug from a saloon in which they were drinking. He declares that the friend said the jug belonged to him, but when he started out the Italian stopped him.

Suffolks Have Arrived.

NEW YORK, April 21.—(Special.)—Among the passengers on the Deutschland were the count and countess of Suffolk. They are here to visit the mother of the countess, Mrs. Levi Z. Leiter at Washington, and attend to some necessary details in the settlement of the estate of the countess' late father.

Thieves Operating at Swissvale.

Early yesterday morning two houses were entered in Swissvale. At David Little's house at 1473 McClure avenue, the silverware was overhauled but none stolen. A window of Robert J. Ranwolf's drygoods store was pried open and $150 worth of neckties and other drygoods are missing.

EX-MAYOR FORD DIES SUDDENLY

Well Known Republican Politician Succumbs to Attack of Heart Failure.

FUNERAL ON EASTER MONDAY

Henry Parker Ford, former mayor of Pittsburgh, died of heart failure shortly after 11 o'clock yesterday morning at his home in Green street. For some time Mr. Ford had symptoms of heart disease, but on Thursday seemed to enjoy his usual health. At 4 o'clock yesterday morning he aroused the members of his family and complained of feeling ill. A physician was called and he seemed to revive. At 11 o'clock he asked to be allowed to sit up in bed, but fainted in the attempt and in 10 minutes passed away.

The funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the family residence and will be conducted by Tancred Commandery, Knights Templar. Not long ago Mr. Ford observed the thirty-fifth anniversary of his initiation into the Masonic fraternity and expressed the wish that the Templars should officiate at his obsequies. The interment will be made in Homewood cemetery.

Story of a Busy Life.

Mr. Ford was born at Hudson, N. Y., October 16, 1857. He was a son of John and Susan Carpenter Ford and his birthplace was on the famous John Phoenix estate. In 1838 the family removed to Clarion and his father engaged for a time in the lumber trade. Later the Fords came to Pittsburgh, and upon the death of his father in 1852, young Henry was left an orphan. He was educated in public schools of the city and took a short course at a commercial college. When 16 years of age he secured employment with a local book concern and soon earned a reputation as an accountant. From this time he supported himself and was promoted to the position of bookkeeper.

Mr. Ford took charge of the books of the Associated Firemen's Insurance Company of Pittsburgh and later with the Eureka Insurance Company, and held the position until 1861, when he was placed over the accounting department of Singer, Nimick & Co., where he remained 10 years. From 1871 until 1876 he was a partner in the firm of Emerson, Ford & Co., saw manufacturers of Beaver Falls.

Retired from Business Life.

On retiring from the Beaver Falls concern he became secretary and treasurer of the Crescent Tube Company and was bookkeeper of its successor, the Pennsylvania Tube Company. Illness obliged him to give up business entirely, and he resigned in 1881. After this time he looked after his growing private interests and devoted himself to his one hobby, politics.

Since he was 17 years of age Mr. Ford had taken an active interest in politics and was a lifelong Republican. He was distinguished as the youngest man who ever served on a school board in Pittsburgh, having been secretary of the old Seventh ward board when he was but 19 years of age. In 1881 he was elected a member of select councils from the Eleventh ward and held his seat until 1886. In that year Mr. Ford was nominated for mayor on the Republican ticket and was opposed by George W. Guthrie, the nominee of the Municipal league.

Mr. Ford Was Elected.

In one of Pittsburgh's bitterest mayoralty campaigns the Republicans won a decisive victory and Mr. Ford took his office in April, serving three years. For eight years previous to his election he was president of select council and resigned to become mayor.

Mr. Ford had been a member of Franklin lodge, No. 221, F. and A. M., since 1870, and was secretary of the lodge until his business caused him to remove to Beaver Falls. He belonged to Zembabel chapter, No. 162; Tancred commandery, No. 48, Knights Templar, and Pennsylvania consistory, Ancient Accented Scottish Rite Masons. He was also a member of Syria Temple, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine.

In June, 1870, Mr. Ford married Miss Rebecca Gillespie, a daughter of the late John and Mary Gillespie of Philadelphia. He is survived by Mrs. Ford and three daughters. The latter are Mrs. Joseph Henry Hunter of 347 Stratford avenue, Miss Mary G. Ford and Miss Katherine Ford.

Eruption of Vesuvius Increasing.

NAPLES, April 21.—The eruption of Mount Vesuvius is increasing and frequent explosions are heard. Streams of lava are running down the mountain and the crater is emitting smoke, ashes and red-hot stones.

Good Bargain in Clothing.

Clothing valued at $100 was stolen from the home of Abe Miller, a grocer, of 1300 Penn avenue, Thursday afternoon and was later found at the home of Stony Polosky, 81 Spring alley. The latter's wife had purchased the clothing for $7.

The Death Roll.

Josiah W. Guy.

Josiah W. Guy, one of the best known residents of Oakdale, died last night at his home at that place after a short illness. He was born March 23, 1830, in Finley township, Allegheny county. Mr. Guy moved to Oakdale in 1874, where he had since resided, having been engaged in the real estate and insurance business. His wife died two years ago. Mr. Guy was an elder in the Presbyterian church of Oakdale for many years and was prominent in church work. He was an uncle of Dr. J. Guy McCandless, former director of the department of public works, and Dr. Alexander E. McCandless. He is survived by the following children: Mrs. Margaret Elizabeth Linn, wife of the Rev. A. E. Linn, pastor of the Lawrenceville Presbyterian church; Miss Anna Matilda Guy of Oakdale, William Riley Guy of Oakmont; Harry Guy of this city, connected with the American Bridge Company, and Mrs. Samuel McClurg of Wilmerding and William H. Guy, poor director of Allegheny county, and two sisters, Mrs. Eleanor Duncan, who lives in the west, and Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Johnstown of Homewood, Pittsburgh.

Mrs. Ann Eliza Evans.

Mrs. Anna Eliza Evans, widow of John Evans of Evans, Dalzell & Co., died yesterday morning at the residence of her son-in-law, William McLain, 5527 Howe street, after a short illness of pneumonia. She was born April 5, 1832, in Pittsburgh, and lived for many years on the South Side. She was a member of the Second Presbyterian church. She is survived by the following children: Mrs. William McLain of this city, Mrs. H. Herman Mechling of Brooklyn, Mrs. R. E. McClure of Cleveland and H. C. Evans of Brooklyn. Mrs. John Masterton, who died in 1900, was a daughter.

Mrs. Nicholas Steppich.

Martha Elizabeth Steppich, nee Kiernan, aged 78, wife of Nicholas Steppich, died at 8 o'clock last night at her home, 2119 Forbes street. She was born in Germany and came to this country in 1856, marrying here two years later. She lived in the Fourteenth ward for the past 40 years. She is survived by her husband and three children, Mrs. George Donaldson, Mrs. Charles E. Koch and John Steppich.

Thomas Minto.

Thomas Minto died yesterday at his home, 123 Flowers avenue, Hazelwood. Mr. Minto was 78 years of age. He will be buried from the house at 2 p. m. Tuesday. Mr. Minto came to Pittsburgh about 18 years ago. He is survived by a daughter in England and four children in this country—Mrs. James Walton and Richard Minto of Cresson and G. W. and Thomas Minto of Pittsburgh. A son, Jonathan, died four months ago.

Maj. Willam W. Armstrong.

Maj. William W. Armstrong, a prominent Ohio Democrat, died yesterday at Cleveland, aged 72 years. He held a number of state and municipal offices during his active life and was for a number of years editor of the Cleveland Plain Dealer. He is said to have been the man who suggested the rooster as the emblem of the Democratic party.

Obituary Notes.

J. Le Henderson, division freight agent of the Erie railroad, died Thursday night at Youngstown, O. He was born in Sandusky 65 years ago and had lived in Youngstown for 32 years. He was a member of the Presbyterian church.

Jeremiah Kelly, aged 39, and single, died yesterday from pneumonia at the home of his sister, Mrs. Patrick O'Council, in North Braddock. He was born in Wales and had lived in Braddock 24 years. He was a member of St. Thomas Roman Catholic church. Besides his sister he leaves one brother, Michael Kelly of Braddock.

FIANCEE OF STOKES OBSERVES PASSOVER

Multi-Millionaire Will Leave Cleveland Soon, but Miss Pastor Is to Remain Awhile.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CLEVELAND, O., April 21.—Miss Rose Harriet Pastor, former stogiemaker of Cleveland, but now the bride-to-be of James G. Phelps Stokes, the multi-millionaire of New York, observed the Passover custom Friday of remaining indoors. Tonight she was the guest of honor at an informal gathering at the Council Educational alliance in Woodland avenue. She talked about settlement work in New York. Mr. Stokes will cut short his visit here and return to New York, but Miss Pastor will remain 10 days.

She has arranged to address the girls in several cigar and stogie factories where she formerly worked.

Members of Illinois House Would Not Arise When Former Expelled Colleague Was Again Sworn In.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., April 21.—A peculiar spectacle was witnessed in the lower house of the Illinois legislature today. Reversing all precedent, the members of the house unanimously remained seated while the oath of office was administered anew to Representative Frank D. Comerford, recently expelled because of failure on his part to substantiate charges which he made alleging corruption on the part of his fellow-members of the legislature. Comerford, after his expulsion, was re-elected by his constituents.

Invariably on previous occasions members taking the oath have done so in the presence of all members standing.

CITY OFFICIALS FINED FOR AIDING POOLROOM

EDWARDSVILLE, ILL., April 21.—Incident to the passing of the poolroom at Madison, Ill., which was razed by indignant citizens last year, pleas of guilty were entered in the circuit court today by 16 men charged with having operated the poolroom, and they were fined a total of $3,625. In addition, William Street and Patrick McCambridge, city officials of Madison, pleaded guilty to having resisted officers by taking the part of the poolroom men when the room was raided, and were fined $200 each.

HORACE GREELEY IS UNDERGOING REPAIRS

NEW YORK, April 21.—(Special.)—Horace Greeley was taken today from his pedestal at Broadway and Thirty-third street, near the patch of green which bears his name. The base on which he has been for nearly seven years was torn up from its fastenings with the kindly aid of a derrick. Examination showed that the upper pedestal had slipped north four inches. Workmen will plant a concrete foundation.

ITALIANS WERE HACKED TO PIECES IN WOODS

KINGSTON, N. Y., April 21.—One Italian was found hacked to death and another dying from stab wounds in the woods near Arkville, Delaware county, today. Three other Italians, who had purchased tickets from Arkville to New York before the murder was discovered, were arrested on the train near Kingston. All were employed as wood-choppers near Arkville.

HAMBURG'S SECRETARY OF POLICE SENTENCED

ST. LOUIS, April 21.—In the criminal court today Judge Bishop sentenced Emeil Kepner to five years' imprisonment on conviction of having forged a check for $5 and cashed it. Kepner, who is 26 years old, said he came from Hamburg, Germany, and that he was secretary to the Hamburg chief of police.

Men Summon Their Leader.

NEW CASTLE, April 21.—(Special.)—The employes of the New Castle Traction Company have summoned W. D. Mahone, international president of their union, to arbitrate their trouble with the company, which is demanding that all employes undergo additional examinations for sight and other physical tests. The company claims the examinations are necessary, because the men may at any time be ordered to duty on the cars between here and Youngstown. The men believe it is a scheme to enable the company to discharge the older employes, who draw the maximum wages.

Three Vacancies in Councils.

The First ward of Braddock will have three councilmen to elect next spring. Lew F. Holtzman, at present president of the borough council, announced yesterday he would resign his seat, as he is going to move into the Third ward. James J. McCarthy, who has a liquor license, will also resign owing to the recent ruling of the license court, and the term of John Shields expires. There are said to be a score of candidates for these places.

PEASANT COMMISSION OF REACTIONARY VIEWS

Witte's Position Grows More Untenable and There is a Report He Will Retire.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

ST. PETERSBURG, April 21.—The personnel of the Goremykin commission, appointed to discuss questions relating to peasant tenure of lands, was announced today. It includes M. Stichinsky, formerly chief adjutant of the Russian interior department, M. Von Plehve, son of the late interior minister, and other adherents of the former minister, giving it a decided reactionary tone.

The position of M. Witte, president of the committee of ministers, grows more and more untenable, and there is a report that he will retire.

Additional Cossacks are being brought to St. Petersburg in view of the anticipated disorders on May day. Two squadrons of Cossacks of the Don arrived here yesterday.

The students who were tried for engaging in red flag demonstrations in front of the Kazan cathedral December 11, have been sentenced to from three to four months imprisonment. As the time they have already spent in the fortress is credited to them the majority of the prisoners will be released and the others have only a few days longer to serve.

SEIZE A LOTTERY PLANT IN TEXAS

SAN ANTONIO, TEX., April 21.—United States secret service officers seized a printing plant today with which lottery tickets have been printed. Several arrests have been made in connection with the affair. It is said that tickets for several Mexican lotteries have been printed and distributed all over the country.

ATTEMPTED TO BURN WHISTLER'S BIRTHPLACE

LOWELL, MASS., April 21.—(Special.)—Two attempts have been made this week to burn a house in Werthern stret, in which the artist Whistler was born. Very little damage was done the house either time, but the police believe the incendiary will try again, and guards have been placed near the house.

Still After Rev. Father Monda.

UNIONTOWN, April 21.—(Special.)—County Detective Alex McBeth will leave Monday for Washington, to see if anything further can be done toward getting extradition papers for the return of the Rev. Father L. A. Monda, of Connellsville, whom the Italian government refuses to surrender. Requisition papers were granted yesterday by Gov. Pennypacker and with these were instructions to present them to the state department at Washington.

Two Die from Injuries.

Thomas McClelland, aged 45, of Duquesne Junction, died yesterday at Mercy hospital from injuries sustained several weeks ago. He was an engineer on the Union railroad and was thrown from his engine. He was married to Miss Elizabeth Long of Duquesne Junction on Thanksgiving last. Frank Babbot, an Italian laborer, aged 35, was crushed to death yesterday morning by the collapse of a brick shed at the Edgar Thompson blast furnaces, Braddock.

Strikes Oil in New Field.

KITTANNING, April 21.—(Special.)—The Carnegie Natural Gas Company, which has been drilling for gas on the J. H. Mater farm near Cohensville, today struck oil. The well, which is estimated to be good for 200 or 300 barrels, is in new territory, and it is thought will be the means of opening up a large field.

James Melly Dead.

PHILADELPHIA, April 21.—James Melly died suddenly yesterday at Atlantic City where he had gone for his health. Mr. Melly was born in Lebanon in 1853. He was largely interested in the Lebanon iron works, car works and other enterprises in that town, as well as the Sterling boiler works of Barberton, O.

Minister Clay's Home Burns.

PARIS, KY., April 21.—The handsome country home of Brutus J. Clay, minister to Switzerland, burned today. The servants were so excited that nothing was saved. There is only $1,000 insurance.

Fraud Order Issued.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—(Special.)—The postmaster general has issued a fraud order against the Arcade Manufacturing Company and the Arcade Novelty Manufacturing Company, Quincy, Ill.

DEATH HAS TAKEN SENATOR PLATT

Connecticut Statesman Passes Away at Summer Home in His Native Village.

CLOSE OF HONORED CAREER

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, CONN., April 21.—United States Senator Orville Hitchcock Platt of Connecticut died at his summer home in this, his native town at 8:53 tonight from pneumonia. The end came almost unexpectedly, the immediate cause being the breaking of the abscess which had formed in the right lung, and which produced strangulation. In the room at the time were Mrs. Platt and the senator's only son, Judge James P. Platt, of the United States circuit court. The funeral will probably be held next Tuesday. The service will be conducted in the Congregational church of the village, by the Rev. Robert Carter.

Senator was born here on July 13, 1827, and was nearly 78 years of age. Proud of his strength and activity it had been his ambition, so his friends say, of becoming the "Father of the Senate" in point of years.

Senator Platt's last public utterance was at the state capitol on March 21, when before the general assembly he delivered the eulogy over Gen. Hawley, whose body lay in state in the corridor below. He succeeded Senator Hoar, after the latter's death, as chairman of the judiciary committee of the United States senate. Later he was made chairman of the special committee of the senate, appointed to conduct the Swayne impeachment trial, and this was followed by his appointment as presiding officer of the senate sitting as a court during the impeachment trial. This was his last high public duty.

Senator Platt was first elected to the senate in 1879. His last re-election was in 1903. While not a brilliant speaker, he was a clear and forceful one. This plain speech brought him very near to his constituency and was one great source of his influence. By both temperament and feeling Senator Platt was peculiarly the representative of New England ideas and of the old-fashioned Puritan integrity and conscience.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Both branches of congress will honor Senator Platt's memory by a large representation at his funeral. Sergeant-at-Arms Ransdell tonight communicated with Vice President Fairbanks with a view to the appointment of a committee of senators. Sergeant-at-Arms Casson of the house, who is in New York, will communicate with Speaker Cannon and arrange for the appointment of a like committee from the house of representatives.

HARTFORD, CONN., April 21.—A successor to United States Senator Platt will probably be elected by the general assembly which is now in biennial session. This will be in accordance with law, and the election will be for the balance of the term, which will expire in 1909.

Advertising is a system of education.

When you send a boy to school you do not complain that his time and your money have been wasted because he does not graduate the first month.

You know that education is slow work. You know that the mind has to receive and assimilate many facts and that an education must be acquired little by little. It is the end that crowns the work.

Do you view advertising in the same light? If you do not you are making a mistake.

Before the great public will learn to buy your goods it must be educated, and education is slow work. Little by little you must impress upon people the facts with reference to your products. And little by little the public mind will come to understand what it is all about. The result will be sure, and the reward in proportion to the liberality of your educational campaign.

You will find in The Saturday Evening Post an excellent text book for your purpose. It is read regularly in 800,000 homes by 4,000,000 people. Its readers are the kind of people who buy advertised goods—just the people you wish to reach. If you place your advertisements before them in every issue of The Post it will be none too often.

SERVICES OF SONG FOR EASTER DAY

Music, Flowers, and the Story of the Resurrection Will Mark the Event.

CATHOLIC PRIEST HONORED

Easter Sunday, with its services of song and flowers and story of the resurrection, will be observed tomorrow in churches of all denominations with an impressiveness which advance programs promise will outdo previous years in this locality.

There is scarcely a choir in any congregation in the two cities but has been diligently rehearsing an elaborate musical program for weeks, in anticipation of the day, while in many churches special committees have been appointed to arrange for floral decorations with special appropriations set aside for the purpose.

Pontifical high mass will be celebrated in the Church of the Epiphany tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock by Bishop Canevin, while at the evening service the bishop will celebrate pontifical vespers. The musical program will be in accord with the new regulations for Catholic church services and includes the Gregorian chants.

Episcopal churches, as customary, will feature their services with music and floral decorations. The Easter cantata, "From Death to Life," will be presented in St. Andrew's church, Sixth avenue, at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. At Trinity church, Sixth avenue, special music will be provided in the evening by a vested choir of 40 voices, while in the evening another musical program will be carried out.

Elaborate Musical Offerings.

In the First Presbyterian church, Arch street, Allegheny, the Highland Presbyterian church, North Highland avenue, and in the Second Presbyterian church, Eighth street, elaborate musical offerings will be presented both morning and evening, while the same might be said of all churches of all denominations.

Versailles Methodist Episcopal church, which has been remodeled and enlarged, will be reopened with special services tomorrow after a suspension of services for several months. The pastor, the Rev. Samuel W. McCorkle, will be assisted in the services by the Rev. Dr. Latchau McGuire of this city.

The Rev. Frank H. Lewis, recently of Baltimore, who has accepted a call to the First Methodist Protestant church, Aiken avenue and Howe street, will preach to his new charge for the first time tomorrow.

The annual sermon before the Ladies' Bible society of Allegheny will be preached in the Second United Presbyterian church, Stockton avenue, Allegheny, tomorrow night, by the pastor, the Rev. Dr. William H. McMillan.

Epworth League Conference.

Epworth leagues of the Pittsburgh Methodist Episcopal conference will begin a five-weeks' missionary campaign on Monday. Miss Martha B. Hixon of New York, assistant missionary secretary of the young peoples' societies, and Miss M. Elizabeth Hunter, conference league secretary, will spend one week in each of the five districts in the Pittsburgh conference. The meetings for next week are as follows: Monday, Bingham Street church; Tuesday, West End church; Wednesday, South Avenue church, Wilkinsburg; Thursday, Lincoln Avenue church; Friday, Denny church. A feature of the campaign will be an exhibition of missionary curios, maps, charts and literature in the Smithfield street church Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons.

The congregation of the Shady Avenue Baptist church has voted its pastor, the Rev. Dr. W. A. Stanton, a three-months' vacation to travel abroad. Dr. Stanton will sail in June and will attend the Baptist congress in London from July 11 to 18. A good-sized Pittsburgh delegation of Baptists is preparing to attend the congress.

The new Moller pipe organ, recently installed in the Eleventh United Presbyterian church, West End, will be used for the first time tomorrow morning, when a special program will be carried out.

Good Friday Was Observed.

The observance of Good Friday was not confined to the churches yesterday. The day is a legal holiday in this state, and public offices, banks and stock exchanges were closed. In Roman Catholic and Episcopal churches the day was solemnly observed. In the Church of the Epiphany, as well as all Catholic churches, the mass of the pre-sanctified was celebrated. Black vestments were worn by the priests and the solemnities were in keeping with the day. During the afternoon and evening the ceremony of kissing the crucifix was impressively observed.

Announcement has just been made that the Very Rev. Francis L. Tobin, vicar general of the Pittsburgh diocese of the Roman Catholic church and irremovable rector of St. Mary's church, Forty-sixth street, has been made titular prothonotary apostolic. The Rt. Rev., or Monsignor Francis L. Tobin, as he will be henceforth called, was born in Dublin, Ireland, in 1840, and entered the priesthood in 1862. Leaving a professorship in St. Michael's seminary, he became assistant rector of St. Patrick's church and later rector of St. James' in the West End. In 1888 he took the rectorship of St. Mary's church and has repeatedly been honored. The date of the ceremony of the investiture will be announced shortly.

GLADDEN RETURNS TO HIS CHARGES

Declares It Is His Right and Every Citizen's to Judge the Rockefeller Gift.

MAKES REPLY TO DR. ABBOTT

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, April 21.—Dr. Washington Gladden, in a signed statement which will appear in the Outlook, edited by Dr. Lyman Abbott, Monday, refutes Dr. Abbott's injunction to "judge not," as applied to Rockefeller and Standard Oil. Dr. Abbott, in a previous issue, practically told Dr. Gladden he was committing a grievous error in taking the stand he has on the Rockefeller gift.

Dr. Gladden will say in reply:

"The Outlook affirms it is not right for the American board or for Dr. Tucker or Dr. Gladden, to sit in judgment on Mr. Rockefeller. I will let Dr. Tucker and the American board speak for themselves. I speak for myself when I say that in my opinion, it is not only my right, but my duty, and the duty of every American citizen, to sit in judgment on Mr. Rockefeller and upon the thing which he represents.

"Of course it is understood that it is John D. Rockefeller as a factor in the economic, political and social life of this people with whom we are dealing. We have nothing to do with his relation to other worlds. What uses the Almighty may have for him we do not undertake to determine. Our question is simply what the American people ought to think about him and to do with him.

"Mr. Rockefeller is not simply a private person. He is the representative of a great system which has become a public enemy. The organization which he represents has been and now is a gigantic oppressor of the people. The maxim, 'Judge not,' addressed to responsible American citizens with reference to their attitude toward public enemies, is certainly misapplied. Should we have bidden the Christians of New York not to judge Tweed or Croker? Should we warn our brethren against judging such iniquities as those that have been practiced in St. Louis and Grand Rapids and Philadelphia? It would make it very comfortable for the malefactors.

"The first duty of every citizen is to form clear judgments on all such questions, and fearlessly to express them. The only force by which law is made effective in this country is the force of public opinion. It is every man's duty to contribute to the creation of a sound public opinion. And that is only done by forming and uttering judgments on the rightfulness or wrongfulness of policies and practices which affect the general welfare.

"It is our duty as a people to judge this gigantic monopoly. The Congregational people must bear their part of this responsibility. Because they are judges they must not accept gifts from those whom they are called to judge."

COLUMBUS, O., April 25.—(Special.)—"I cannot descend to that level; it is beneath my dignity to make reply to such a man; his statements are their own reply, and the more the papers print them the better I shall be pleased, for there could be no better way of showing him up in his real light." This was the statement of Dr. Washington Gladden, when asked if he had anything to say about the Bedford banquet statements of Treasurer Rogers of the Standard Oil Company, anent the Rockefeller gift incident.

WANTS ROCKEFELLER MONEY.

Institute for Social Service Makes Appeal for Funds Despite President Strong's Position.

NEW YORK, April 21.—(Special.)—Rockefeller money is wanted in carrying on the work of the Institute of Social Service, though an appeal for money to Mr. Rockefeller was sent against the wishes of Dr. Josiah Strong, president of the institute.

Mr. Rockefeller received a letter from the institute, requesting a contribution to educate social secretaries, to add an aesthetic environment to factory life, and to serve as clearing houses for the newest ideas in workaday betterment. President Strong was surprised when the story of the letter was repeated to him today. He declared no appeal had been sent to Mr. Rockefeller recently with his knowledge, and that one had been sent without his knowledge he was loath to credit.

LEHIGH MEN TO DINE.

Over 250 Alumni and Guests Expected at the Annual Dinner.

At the annual dinner of the Pittsburgh Lehigh club to be held next Saturday evening at the Union club, between 250 and 300 members and guests will be expected to be present.

Doolittle of the University of Pennsylvania, formerly of Lehigh; Dr. John A. Brashear, Julian Kennedy, Chancellor S. B. McCormick, Judge Joseph Buffington, the Hon. H. K. Porter, Robert Pitcairn and Maj. W. L. Sibert. G. W. Snyder is president of the club and will be toastmaster. W. A. Brady is vice president and C. P. Matheson, secretary and treasurer.

GOVERNMENT SUSPENDS PROMINENT POLITICIAN

Fred H. Wilson Is Said to Have Misappropriated Public Funds and Padded Payrolls.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, April 21.—By an order issued by Secretary Hitchcock today Fred H. Wilson, financial clerk in charge of the United States Indian warehouse at New York, was suspended from duty. Although the secretary would not discuss the character of the charges, it is said that they include misappropriation of government funds, the padding of payrolls and too much activity in politics. Special Indian Agent McNichols has been placed in temporary charge.

Under the rules of the civil service, Wilson was given three days in which to answer the charges. He made a denial on all, but his answer was not considered satisfactory to the secretary, and the order of suspension was issued pending further investigation.

In the national campaign of 1900 and 1904 Wilson was an important officer of the Republican national committee. He was a protege of Senator Scott of West Virginia and a friend of Cornelius N. Bliss and other members of the committee.

Seventy Families Made Homeless.

NEW YORK, April 21.—Three firemen were hurt, six women were severely burned, 70 families were made homeless and property valued at $150,000 was destroyed by a fire in the heart of the thickly-settled Hebrew center in the Brownsville section of Brooklyn today.

"Especially the BUFFALO LITHIA WATER of Virginia."

For Bright's Disease, Albuminuria, Renal Calculi, Gout, Rheumatism and All Diseases Dependent Upon a Uric Acid Diathesis.

Samuel O. L. Potter, A.M., M.D., M.R.C.P., London, Professor of the Principles and Practice of Medicine and Clinical Medicine in the College of Physicians and Surgeons of San Francisco, Cal., in his "Hand-Book of Materia Medica, Pharmacy and Therapeutics," in the citation of remedies under the head of "Chronic Bright's Disease," says: "Mineral waters, especially the BUFFALO LITHIA WATER of Virginia, has many advocates." Also, under "Albuminuria" "BUFFALO LITHIA WATER is highly recommended."

George Halsted Boyland, A.M., M.D., of Paris, Doctor of Medicine, of the Faculty of Paris, in the New York Medical Journal, August 22, 1896, says: "There is no remedy as absolutely specific in all forms of Albuminuria and Bright's Disease, whether acute or chronic, as BUFFALO LITHIA WATER, Spring No. 2, accompanied by a milk diet. In all cases of pregnancy, where albumin is found in the urine, as late as the last week before confinement, if this water and a milk diet are prescribed, the albumin disappears rapidly from the urine and the patient has a positive guarantee against puerperal convulsions."

T. Griswold Comstock, A.M., M.D., of St. Louis, Mo., says: "I have often prescribed BUFFALO LITHIA WATER in Gouty and Rheumatic conditions and in Renal Calculi, accompanied by Renal Colic, and always with the most satisfactory results. In Renal Calculi, where there is an excess of Uric Acid, it is especially efficacious."

Medical testimony which defies all imputation or question mailed to any address.

BUFFALO LITHIA WATER is for sale by druggists and grocers generally.

Are Required to Make Liquozone—Yet the First Bottle Is Free.

We spend 14 days and nights to create the virtue which you find in Liquozone. During all of that time it employs immense apparatus, and skill and care. At the end of two weeks we get one cubic inch of Liquozone for each 1,250 cubic inches of gas used.

This process has, for more than 20 years been the constant subject of scientific and chemical research. The object is to take gases which are germicides, tonics, nerve foods and blood foods, and to condense their virtues into liquid, stable form.

The main result is to get into a liquid, and thus into the blood, a powerful yet harmless germicide. And the product is so helpful—so good for you under any condition—that even a well person feels its instant benefit.

Liquozone is not made, like medicine, by compounding acids and drugs, nor is there any alcohol in it. Its virtues are derived solely from gas, made in large part from the best oxygen producers. Nothing but gas enters into it.

Used the World Over.

During the past two years this remarkable product has sprung into world-wide use in the treatment of germ diseases. It is used more generally than any remedy ever used before.

Millions of homes in America know from experience what Liquozone can do. One home in five—wherever you go—has some one whom Liquozone has cured. And in numberless homes where Liquozone is daily used, sickness has been almost banished.

But there are millions of others who don't know Liquozone yet. Many still cling to medicine for what medicine cannot do. Many remain sick without knowing how easy it is to get well. We publish this offer for them.

Your own neighbors—your friends—can tell you what Liquozone has done. Please ask them about it. Then try to believe that what it has done for millions it is bound to do for you. Ask us for a bottle to try. Please learn, at our expense, what this wonderful product means to you. Then, for the good of all, tell others about it, as others will tell you.

We Paid $100,000

For the American rights to Liquozone and the rights in other countries have sold for proportionate sums. We mention this fact to indicate the value of Liquozone—the value to you. Men have never before paid such a price for any discovery used in the cure of sickness.

We need not tell you that we proved Liquozone well before buying it. For years it was tested through physicians and hospitals, in this country and others. It was employed in every stage of every germ disease; in all the most difficult cases obtainable. With thousands of sick ones, considered incurable, we proved that it did what medicine could not do. Then, and then only, did we pay the price.

Since then we have spent nearly $2,000,000 to make Liquozone known. We have bought the first bottle and given it free to every sick one we learned of. These people told others, and the others told others. The result is that Liquozone is now more widely employed than any medicine ever was. And no one can doubt that it is doing more for sick humanity than all the drugs in use combined.

Kills Inside Germs.

The greatest value of Liquozone lies in the fact that it kills germs in the body without killing the tissues, too. And no man knows another way to do it. Any drug that kills germs is a poison, and it cannot be taken internally. For that reason medicine is almost helpless in any germ disease.

Liquozone is a germicide so certain that we publish on every bottle an offer of $1,000 for a disease germ that it cannot kill. Yet it is not only harmless but of wonderful benefit—better than anything else in the world for you. No one is so well that he cannot be helped by it.

The reason is that germs are vegetables; and Liquozone—like an excess of oxygen—is deadly to vegetal matter. To the human body Liquozone is exhilarating, vitalizing, purifying—the most needful, the most helpful thing possible. But to germs it is certain destruction; and these facts are true of nothing else in existence.

Germ Diseases.

These are the known germ diseases, all due to germs or to the poisons which germs create. These are the diseases to which medicine does not apply, for drugs cannot kill inside germs.

All that medicine can do for these troubles is to act as a tonic, aiding Nature to overcome the germs. But those results are indirect and uncertain, depending on the patient's condition. A cure is always doubtful when drugs are used, and some of these diseases medicine never cures.

Liquozone has amply proved its power to destroy the cause of these troubles. Every disease in this list has been cured with it so often that we have come to believe that results are almost inevitable. Our faith in the product is so great that in any of these diseases—no matter how difficult—we gladly send to every patient who asks it, a guarantee covering a two months' test.

Asthma	Hay Fever—Influenza
Abscess—Anaemia	Kidney Diseases
Bronchitis	La Grippe
Blood Diseases	Liver Troubles
Bright's Disease	Malaria—Neuralgia
Bowel Troubles	Many Heart Troubles
Coughs—Colds	Piles—Pneumonia
Consumption	Pleurisy—Quinsy
Colic—Croup	Rheumatism
Constipation	Scrofula
Catarrh—Cancer	Skin Diseases
Bronchitis	Stomach Troubles
Dysentery—Diarrhea	Throat Troubles
Dandruff—Dropsy	Tuberculosis
Dyspepsia	Tumors—Ulcers
Eczema—Erysipelas	Women's Diseases
Fevers—Gall Stones
Goitre—Gout

All diseases that begin with fevers—all inflammation—all catarrh—all contagious diseases—all the results of impure or poisoned blood.

In nervous debility Liquozone acts as a vitalizer, accomplishing what no drugs can do.

50c Bottle Free.

The way to know Liquozone, if you have never tried it, is to ask for a bottle free. We will then send you an order on a local druggist for a full size bottle—a 50c bottle—and will pay the druggist ourselves for it. This applies only to the first bottle, of course—to those who have never used it.

This offer applies not only to those who are sick. It is open to anyone who wants to feel better—who desires to keep well. Every home has a hundred uses for Liquozone. Every person would be better for using it daily, as we do.

The acceptance of this offer places you under no obligations. We simply wish to convince you; to let the product itself show you what it can do. Then you can judge by results as to whether you wish to continue.

This offer itself should convince you that Liquozone does as we claim. We would certainly not buy a bottle and give it to you, if there was any doubt of results. You want those results; you want to be well and to keep well. Then be fair with yourself; accept our offer today. Let us show you, at our expense, what this wonderful product means to you.

Liquozone costs 50c and $1.

PROTEST AGAINST OSTEOPATHY BILL

Gov. Pennypacker Hears Remonstrances from Doctors of the Old Schools.

TREE TAX REBATE APPROVED

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
HARRISBURG, PA., April 21.

Allopathic and Homeopathic schools of medicine have combined against the Fox bill, legalizing the practice of osteopathy, and for the Hoke bill, which brings the osteopaths under the control of the present state medical examining boards. The National Association of Osteopaths is also fighting the Fox bill because the western colleges of osteopathy are at present unable to meet the four-year course which it prescribes. The osteopaths of this state, while not entirely satisfied with the Fox measure, are anxious that it shall become a law.

Both bills are before Gov. Pennypacker, who gave a public hearing today on the Fox bill. Senator Fox of Harrisburg, by whom the bill was drafted, made the chief argument for the measure, while among those who appeared against it was his brother, Dr. L. Webster Fox, the Philadelphia eye specialist. Many other prominent physicians of the two old schools, including Dr. Heckel of the Allegheny County Medical society, were present at the hearing.

During the arguments Senator Fox said that the legislature had not the right to declare whether any one school of medicine was or was not good, it could merely regulate the practice of each school.

"But, senator," smiled the governor, "after all, is there a great deal of difference? A person doesn't go insane allopathically or homeopathically—he simply goes insane."

The governor today signed the bill granting tax rebates for tree planting. This bill is designed to play an important part in the reforestization of the state. Any person who shall plant not less than 600 trees an acre on ground which does not now contain trees shall be allowed a tax rebate of 80 per cent for 35 years. The proviso is made, however, that the rebate is not to amount to more than 45 cents an acre.

The governor was so busy with other matters today that he did not have time to consider any other legislation, except a bill relative to the purchase of real estate at judicial sales, which was signed.

Representative Cook of Pittsburgh, author of the Greater Pittsburgh bill, called on the governor today to personally thank him for signing the Greater Pittsburgh bill, and also for sending him the pen with which he attached his signature to the measure. Mr. Cook told the governor that there was no doubt about a majority of the people of the twin cities voting for consolidation, and that city councils of Pittsburgh would immediately get in motion the machinery for an election under the bill.

WEST PENN RAILWAY SYSTEM IS INSPECTED

Financial Men Avail Themselves of Chance to See Traction and Lighting Properties.

A number of Pittsburgh bankers and brokers took advantage of the holiday in financial circles yesterday to make a tour of inspection of the traction and lighting properties of the West Penn Railways Company. They went as the guests of W. S. Kuhn, president of the railways company, and L. L. McClelland, treasurer of the Municipal and Corporations Securities Company. In the party were Charles A. Painter, president of the Pittsburgh stock exchange; Edward A. Duff, vice president of the Safe Deposit and Trust Company; James Carothers, E. A. Orr, A. C. Robinson, C. J. Stoney, Jr., Robert D. Book, Chester T. Hoag, W. H. Watt, Jerome Hill, Jr., W. D. Woods and J. R. Van Wagener, the last named treasurer of the West Penn Railways Company.

The party was carried in a special car over the lines of the company, which connect Uniontown, Connellsville, Scottdale, Mt. Pleasant and Greensburg, covering nearly 100 miles. An inspection was also made of the great power plant near Connellsville, which furnishes power for the Pittsburgh, McKeesport & Connellsville railway, the Pittsburgh, McKeesport & Greensburg railway, and also for the electric lighting of the several towns and cities of the Connellsville coke region.

The Municipal and Corporations Securities Company and N. W. Halsey & Co. of New York recently purchased $2,500,000 bonds of the West Penn Railways Company, and a sufficient amount of the total authorized issue has been reserved for additional extensions and improvements of the system, which is one of the largest and most important in Western Pennsylvania outside of Pittsburgh.

EMPEROR ATTENDS CHURCH SERVICES

Austrian Ruler Participates in Good Friday Ceremonies, as Do the Archdukes.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

VIENNA, April 21.—The members of the imperial house of Hapsburg, the most catholic of the reigning houses of Europe, are actively participating in the Easter tide observances. Emperor Francis Joseph and the archdukes were present at the Good Friday ceremonies in the palace today, having joined in the procession through the palace to the parish church.

His majesty knelt thrice as he approached the altar and then adored the cross and kissed the wound marks of the body. After adoration and mass at this church, the imperial procession proceeded to another chapel in the palace, all bearing lighted torches. Here vespers were heard.

The ceremonial burial of Christ began at noon today and will continue until tomorrow afternoon. The public will be admitted to the parish church, where priests pray continually, a long line of people filing through the corridors of the palace to the church between sentries who are posted at every turning. The procession continues all night.

CRUSADE ON GAMBLERS.

New Castle Mayor and Chief of Police Notify Them to Close Their Rooms.

NEW CASTLE, April 21.—(Special.)—Mayor Louis Hainer and Chief of Police Spiers today notified all gamblers to close their rooms. Ex-Mayor Jackson began a crusade during the latter part of his term, but it was dropped for a time. The new mayor and the chief of police spent a night locating gambling and other illegal places and today's order is the result.

An ordinance provides that convicted gamblers may be sentenced to work upon the streets, and Mayor Hainer says he will impose that penalty if he has the opportunity.

STERLING M. STUART DEAD.

Son of Noted Authoress Dies as the Result of Injuries Due to a Fall.

NEW YORK, April 21.—(Special.)—Sterling M. Stuart, son of Ruth McEnery Stuart, the authoress, died today at the residence of George H. Clements, Flushing, to which he was removed yesterday from Flushing hospital, in order that he might be given osteopathic treatment for dislocation of the spine.

His death was caused by injuries received a few weeks ago in attempting to enter the home of his mother in Flushing late at night, without awakening members of the family.

Empress Remembers Nurses.

NEW YORK, April 21.—Consul General Burns, of Germany, today received from the German empress, Augusta Victoria, 57 diplomas to be presented to the women at the City hospital on North Brother Island, who assisted in the work of rescuing and caring for those who were saved from the steamer General Slocum, which burned last June with a loss of more than 1,000 lives.

NAN PATTERSON IS MOVED TO TEARS

Gives Way to Her Emotions While Attending Good Friday Service in Prison.

NEW WITNESS WILL TESTIFY

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, April 21.—Nan Patterson was moved to tears today while attending the Good Friday services held in the Presbyterian chapel in the Tombs prison by Chaplain Monroe. Nan and her sister, Mrs. Morgan Smith, had listened to a strong sermon in which the chaplain told of the great event commemorated by Christians on this day, and how even the greatest sinner might hope to find forgiveness through God's mercy.

At the end of the sermon, Nan and her sister joined in singing "Nearer My God to Thee." Nan's voice ringing out above all the others. Suddenly she stopped, and was seen to lift her hands to her face, while tears trickled between her fingers. She shuddered and appeared about to fall when her sister Julia seized her.

After the service Chaplain Monroe said: "Never since I have been chaplain of the prison have I witnessed a more impressive scene. Nan Patterson has thrown herself at the feet of the Master."

Nan will hereafter occupy a cell with her sister, Mrs. Smith. This arrangement was made today by Warden Flynn of the Tombs. The cell is in the new hospital ward in the women's section.

Abraham Levy of Nan's counsel has communicated with a Chicago lawyer in regard to Samuel Eisenberg, who claims to have seen Young shoot himself. He has been advised that the man is willing to return to New York and go on the witness stand.

CHICAGO, April 21.—Samuel Eisenberg, who has told of seeing a man kill himself while in a cab with a woman June 24, 1904, in West Broadway, New York, expressed willingness today to go to New York and testify on the witness stand in the case of Nan Patterson.

"The cab in which Young and Nan Patterson sat, passed within five feet of me," said Eisenberg today. "The man appeared drunk and he appeared to be fighting with the woman. She was clinging tightly to his hands. The cab was moving very slowly and the woman said something to the driver as if to tell him to go faster. He cracked his whip and the horses went faster.

"Suddenly the man got his hands free and pulled a revolver from his pocket. His hand went up and down and then the shot rang out. The man fell forward, the revolver fell from his hand and he fell over on the woman's lap. The woman seemed to faint, because her head fell on his shoulder."

HOLDS AN AUTOMOBILIST FOR TRIAL IN COURT

Charged With Breaking the Speed Laws—Supt. Wallace Wants Autos for Officers.

Alvin P. Schumaker, an enthusiastic automobilist of No. 923 North Highland avenue, yesterday was held for court in $300 bail by Magistrate Moke on a charge of violating the state speed laws. The information was made by Policeman H. B. Pehler, who alleged that on April 13 Schumaker was running his machine at a rate of 25 miles an hour.

At the hearing Attorney James F. Burke asked that the defendant be discharged on the ground that a recent act regulating the speed of automobiles, which becomes effective next January, would repeal the law of 1903, under which the information was made. Magistrate Moke decided the act of 1903 would remain effective until the act of 1906 became operative.

Superintendent of Police Wallace will ask councils to make an appropriation for the purchase of several automobiles for his bureau. It is almost impossible for officers to arrest automobilists who violate the speed laws. They cannot keep up with a horse and Superintendent Wallace believes policemen will have to be supplied with machines in order to do effective work.

Superintendent Wallace was recently driving on the boulevard and a machine passed him swiftly. Wallace knew the automobilist was breaking the speed laws and turned to get the number of the machine, but the auto had already passed from view.

Many auto drivers pay no attention to policemen, and some of them have devices on their machines to conceal their identity. All machines are required to carry a license number on the rear of the machine. The number is on a metal plate and is usually suspended under the machine. Some owners have a string attached to this plate and when they pass a policeman at a high rate of speed they lift the plate against the body of the machine, so it is impossible for the officer to see it. If the police department was supplied with machines officers could speed after the violator and place him under arrest.

May Go After Mrs. Chadwick.

CLEVELAND, April 21.—County Prosecutor Keeler today said he was seriously considering the advisability of bringing Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick to trial upon the indictments for forgery returned by the county grand jury. He said the feeling existed among many lawyers that there was a probability that the United States circuit court of appeals would grant her a new trial, and that the federal authorities would have difficulty in again convicting her on the charge of conspiracy.

More Wives Found for Hoch.

CHICAGO, April 21.—Two more alleged wives of Johann Hoch have been discovered, according to letters received by the state's attorney today. Both are in Baltimore. One of the letters is from Mrs. Margaret Thomas, and alleges she married Hoch in Cincinnati on April 21, 1898. The other is from Mrs. Mary Von Kleucki, and declares that on July 2, 1898, she married Hoch in Baltimore.

FREE---FREE---FREE! ONE SURE CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA

Maybe You Call Yours Indigestion—Maybe You Don't Know What Is the Matter With You—You Have That Fagged-Out Feeling—A Dinner Makes Good Headwork Impossible—Your Digestion Is Going Wrong.

Dr. Acker's English Dyspepsia Tablets Will Cure You.

Why Not Enjoy Three Hearty Meals a Day and Every Minute Between—Digestion Means Health and Life to You.

We do not ask you to take a griping poison that injures your stomach while purging you. Nor yet a nauseating liquid. But just take a small tablet after every meal. Take it and our guarantee of a cure or money back. It is an old English Remedy, the prescription of a famous physician, Dr. A. E. Acker.

Pleasant to take—instant relief—sure cure. A few from thousands of letters written us. Read these:

A PHYSICIAN WRITES.

"I have had such splendid results in prescribing your Dr. Acker's English Dyspepsia Tablets that I write you direct and ask you to quote me your price on them in large quantities."—C. F. Norris, M. D., Oshkosh, Wis.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.

"For eight years I suffered greatly with Catarrh of the Stomach. I tried various physicians and a great many remedies without obtaining any relief. Last May Acker's English Dyspepsia Tablets were recommended to me and they had a wonderful effect on my stomach and entire system. My appetite improved; I can digest my food, and now weigh 159 pounds, a gain of 17 pounds since I began using the Tablets. I strongly recommend Acker's English Dyspepsia Tablets to all like sufferers."—Louis L. Metzger.

CURED SELF AND FRIENDS.

D. J. DeLong, of Chicago, manager of the "Brotherhood Home Journal," the official organ of the Brotherhood of Railroad Employes, say of Acker's English Dyspepsia Tablets:

"Personally, I can say for Acker's English Dyspepsia Tablets that they do all that is claimed for them, and more, too. They have cured me, and several of my friends now taking them upon my recommendation have been restored to health. I consider the Tablets a great medicine for Dyspepsia. You can find in my house a box in the bedroom, sitting-room, dining-room, and in my desk at the office always, in case my food disagrees with me. If all the dyspeptics in the United States would each try one box of Acker's English Dyspepsia Tablets, all the other so-called cures for dyspepsia would be knocked higher than Gilderoy's kite." —D. J. DeLong.

OLD PROB PREVENTED A VICTORY FOR THE PIRATES

OLD PROB PLAYS THE BEST HAND

Baseballists and Umpire Try to Outwit Him, but He Soon Dampens Their Ardor.

PIRATES ARE IN THE LEAD

The Pirates, ably aided and abetted by Umpire Klem, tried their level best to buck against the weather man at Exposition park yesterday afternoon, but old Prob was out in his fighting clothes, and the result was a complete rout for the baseballists and the umpire, at a point where the score stood 6 to 1 in the Pirates' favor and an ultimate victory almost a certainty.

Had the club officials followed the program marked out for the afternoon, by some misguided newspapers which announced the contest would be called at 3 o'clock, the local team would have been one step nearer the coveted pennant. The crowd of over 4,000 assembled at the park early and there was plenty of growling about being fooled. At 3 o'clock the sun was shining and there was every indication of a pleasant afternoon. When the game started at 3:30 the sun was still shining; in fact, Old Sol seemed to smile on the Pirates as they lined up three runs in the first inning.

When the second inning was started the clouds gathered and before the inning was over the rain began to descend, but not strong enough to force the umpire to stop play, and the Pirates added three more runs to their string. It was in the Cardinals' half of the third that Old Prob cut loose and showed himself master of the situation. When two were out and with two on bases the pouring commenced, chasing both the umpire and players to cover. After a wait of 10 minutes the contest was resumed on a field that was shoetop deep with mud. The next batter was given a base on balls, thus filling the bases, and it looked like trouble when the rain began again and the umpire called the game off for the afternoon.

The pitchers doing duty were Flaherty for the Pirates and Egan for the Cardinals. The Carnegie boy was showing fine form, except in the third inning, when the rain told on him and the Cardinals managed to get one run and had three men on bases, with two hands out. Manager Clarke was largely responsible for the one run, as he held the ball, permitting Shannon to get home with the score. He was properly "called" by both the spectators and his own players. Up to the third inning the visitors had been unable to secure a safe hit, but in that inning both Shannon and Smoot drove the ball safe, the former for a double, the latter for a single, and these with two bases on balls threatened trouble.

The twists and curves served by Egan, a new pitcher on the Cardinals' staff, were very much to the liking of the Pirates, and they proceeded to make merry both at the bat and on the bases; in fact, the base running was one of the pleasing features of the brief session. Clymer, who was first up in the opening inning, drew a base on balls, and Clarke and Beaumont followed with the prettiest kind of bunts, filling the bases. Wagner was given a base on balls, forcing Clymer home with the first run. Clancy sent a fly to right field, on which Clarke scored, but Wagner was thrown out at second. Leech drove a warm grounder to Josh Clarke, who was playing short for the Cardinals, and he fumbled the ball, allowing Beaumont to score the third run of the inning.

Ritchey opened the Pirates' half of the second with a single to left and Peitz sacrificed him to second. On Murch's fumble Flaherty was safe at first and Ritchey went to third. Clymer again drew a base on balls, filling the bases. Clarke's effort was gathered in by the pitcher, who fielded Ritchey out at the plate. Beaumont's single to left scored Flaherty and Clymer and Clarke counted on Wagner's single to middle field.

During the preliminary practice of the teams Jake Beckley, the first baseman of the St. Louis team, was struck on the finger with a swiftly batted ball. The finger was broken. This accident, which will keep Beckley out of the game for many weeks, forced a change in the makeup of the Cardinals, Mike Grady going to first base. Dave Brain, the visitors' shortstop, was also on the sick list, and Josh Clarke, brother of Manager Fred Clarke of the Pirates, was at short, which is not his position, as he is an outfielder. The score:

Pittsburgh	3	3—6	5 0
St. Louis	0	0—0	0 2

Batteries—Pittsburgh, Flaherty and Peitz; St. Louis, Egan and Warner. Umpire—Klem.

QUAKERS' GREAT FINISH.

Score Five Runs in Eighth Inning and Beat Boston Before Great Crowd.

BOSTON, April 21.—In the presence of more than 18,000 people Boston today lost the opening game in this city. After apparently losing the game through errors and Coakley's wildness, the visitors batted out five runs and won the game in the eighth inning. Up to then Gibson was invincible, holding Philadelphia to a lone hit and striking out eleven men. Waddell, who succeeded Coakley in the box for the Athletics, struck out five of the six men who faced him. Score:

The Great Horse Sale Opens Monday.

The horses for the Blue Ribbon sale at the Riverside Sales Stables are rapidly arriving. Already over two hundred head of high class horses of all kinds are in the barns, ready for inspection prior to the big sale on April 24, 25, 26 and 27, and evenings of 25, 26 and 27, by electric light. They are the grandest lot of horses ever shipped into any market and their sale will be a grand horse show, which everyone interested in horses should attend. Their barns are conveniently located, being at the Allegheny end of the Sixth street bridge.

ALMOST RAISE RIOT.

Angry New Yorkers Want Baseball Game or Their Cash.

NEW YORK, April 21.—A terrific thunder and rainstorm broke over American league park, on Washington Heights, this afternoon and spoiled what promised to be an interesting baseball game, the initial one of the season, between the Washington and New York teams. Nearly 20,000 persons attended.

When the storm broke, before the third inning, spectators wildly demanded that the game be called and a riot seemed imminent. The police were then instructed to announce that there would be no admission charged for the game here next Monday between the same clubs. The game was not called until after the opening of the final half of the fourth inning. The crowd showed its displeasure at the delay in calling the game by cheering the visiting Washingtons when they knocked out three runs off Chesbro's pitching in their half of the fourth inning, making the score 3 to 1 in favor of Washington, which, under the rules, does not count in the championship series.

West Virginia Easy Winner.

MORGANTOWN, W. VA., April 21.—(Special.)—Between showers this afternoon West Virginia university defeated the Wesleyan University of West Virginia 9 to 1 in a game that had to be called at the close of the first half of the eighth inning owing to the downpour. Wesleyan got its one run by timely hitting. Score:

LOCAL COMPANY GETS BIG AGENCY

Land Trust Company Has Arranged to Handle Allotment at Altoona.

NEW BLOCK IN HOMEWOOD

Evidently Pittsburgh firms are getting a wide reputation as successful lot sellers, judging by the calls they receive to handle lot plans in outside towns. A few days ago the Land Trust Company secured the exclusive agency of a big allotment at Altoona which is owned by George F. Streit and F. J. Saupp. The plan is known as the Millvale allotment, and consists of 330 lots lying in the Ninth ward of Altoona. The lots average 25x120 feet in dimensions and face on 50-foot streets. Sewer, water and gas connections will be put in preparatory to putting the plan on the market in mid-summer. The property runs down to the Pennsylvania railroad and is about midway between the car shops and the immense foundry now being erected for the railroad. Fully 15,000 men are employed in these works. A street car line runs through the plan, making it only five minutes' ride to the business center or less than 15 minutes' walk. The lots will be sold at prices averaging about $350 each. The Land Trust Company has handled several allotments very successfully, notably its Squirrel Hill allotment, which was sold off at a pace never equaled in the city before. It will establish an office at Altoona next month and prepare to push the property.

Architect Chosen—Bond Issue Arranged.

John B. Elliott has been selected an architect for the new school house to be built in the Eleventh ward. The purchase of a site 120x100 feet in Miller street for $25,500 was arranged a few days ago and a bond issue of $315,000 to pay for the building has been authorized. The building will be a two-story brick structure containing 18 rooms and will cost at least $100,000. The present structure will be torn down so that the new school yard will have a total frontage in Miller street of 220 feet. The old Miller street school house was formerly used as a school for colored children, but was bought later by the central board as a sub-normal school. Seven years ago the Eleventh ward school board bought it for $10,000. Its eight rooms are entirely inadequate and it has been proposed to secure the basement of the Knox schurch at Wylie avenue and Brownsville road for school purposes. The citizens of the ward generally favor the erection of a large and up-to-date school building, but a few were opposed to paying so much for the site.

New Bank Building Opened.

The Homewood Peoples bank will hold a formal reception at its new building at 618 Homewood avenue today from 1 o'clock to 9 o'clock. The building, which has been in course of erection for nearly a year, is not only the finest business block in Homewood avenue, but is one of the best arranged and most tasty banking homes in the city outside of the downtown district. The structure is three stories high with walls of pressed brick and stone, trimmed with terra cotta. The banking rooms are finished in marble and mahogany. The bank has been located in Frankstown avenue during the erection of the new building.

If any place around Pittsburgh has a building boom this summer it is likely to be the Monongahela valley. The starting of the mills has turned the tide of prosperity that way again, and the first evidence of it is seen in the number and kind of the buildings authorized or already started. There are now under way nearly a dozen good business blocks in Homestead, and at least three purchases made within the last week mean the erection of good buildings soon. Munhall, West Homestead and Hays are having a good spring in house building and there are also a large number of houses going up at Wilmerding and Pitcairn. Several of the realty companies up the valley are also reporting to do considerable house building on their plans.

A Real Holiday Quietude.

Good Friday produced a decided lull in the realty market yesterday and business was almost at a standstill owing to the closing of the banks and all the city offices. Many leading brokers were out of town also, which added to the general air of quietude which was manifest.

Homestead: Julian Kennedy, the civil engineer, has bought from Louis Rott a vacant lot, 80x110 feet, in Eighth avenue, near Dixon street, Homestead, for $5,000 through the Homestead Realty Company.

Hastings street: John A. Sharp sold for the Robinson estate to W. F. Tarver two lots, 25x120 feet each, in Hastings street, Twenty-second ward, for $2,400.

Good sales werereported in the Homestead real estate market yesterday. Among them was the purchase from President Louis Rott of the Homestead National bank of a lot in Dickson street by Julian Kennedy, the well-known engineer. The consideration was $5,000. Sales to the amount of several thousand dollars were effected in small transactions.

Good Deal in McKeesport.

Another deal for Fifth avenue (McKeesport) realty was closed yesterday, by which John Malloy, a wholesale liquor dealer, became owner of the property occupied by J. B. O'Neal, a saloonkeeper, at Fifth avenue and Tube alley, for $56,600. The property was bought from the John Martin heirs of Dravosburg through W. J. German. The price is $2,240 a foot front, the property having a frontage of 25 feet in Fifth avenue by a depth of 140 feet to an alley. It is improved with a three-story brick business and residence structure. The occupant has a three-year lease, and it is understood that the purchaser bought the property as an investment. Mr. Malloy is also owner of 20 feet separated from his latest purchase by 25 feet, and it is said that negotiations are on for the connecting property. Two years ago Mr. Malloy bought the 20 feet for $26,000. Mr. Malloy's purchase is about half a block from the property bought on Monday by the Peoples' bank for $180,000, or $2,800 a foot front, the highest price ever paid for Fifth avenue realty. Real estate operations during the last week in McKeesport have been unprecedented, nearly half a million dollars being represented in the transactions.

PRODUCE MEN TO GATHER.

They Will Make Merry at Hotel Lincoln Saturday, May 6.

Members of the Pittsburg Produce Trade association will banquet Saturday evening, May 6, at the Hotel Lincoln. An elaborate program is being arranged for the event, and it promises to be something unique in the history of Pittsburgh banquets.

W. J. McCracken is president of the association, T. E. Renton vice president, A. L. Travis treasurer and G. L. Thomas secretary. The arrangements for the evening's entertainment are being prepared by Mr. Travis, James M. Wallace and E. M. Blake. Among the numbers on the program will be an entertaining story from former Senator C. A. Muehlbronner on "Adolf in the Mammoth Cave," and addresses from other gentlemen present. A number of leading railroad officials will be present, and the dealers propose to say what they really think about railroads, regardless of the feelings of those who have them in charge.

ATTRACTIVE SPRING CLOTHING

Buy it Now—Wear it Now—Pay Later at Your Convenience.

We all love new garments at springtime. Seems as if we want to be in full accord with nature. The tree is commencing to don its spring garb; the field mar put on its coat of green; Old Sol smiles warmly with approval and all nature is overwhelmingly happy.

There may be some among us who feel that a scarcity of cash will prevent them from sharing in the cheerfulness that spring always brings. They may feel that they will not be able to purchase the bright, attractive and clever garments that fashion has decreed proper. To all such the firm of Menter & Rosenbloom Co., 126 Sixth street, give this advice:

Credit is the same as Cash at our Store—your Credit is Good—then why not use your Credit to purchase the things that will make your life happier and brighter during the next six months.

Banish unhappiness—the thought of wearing clothing not in keeping with the season is foolish. Come right to this store and make your selection from styles and patterns new and correct.

The mission of this store is to clothe man, woman and child and no store can do it better or at more moderate cost.

And always remember that your promise to pay is just as good as ready money at this store.

Going, Going—

Soon it will be gone. Distribution is going on now at Fleming's drug store 2,500 packages of Dr. Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets, absolutely free of charge.

Do you ever suffer from indigestion? Do you ever have a stomach headache?

Then you'll want to snatch at this opportunity. Each package, the full 25-cent size, containing two full bottles of this standard English remedy. Read announcement on page 8. Then hasten your steps to Fleming's drug store (410 Market st.) and perhaps you won't be too late.

Present thrift means future independence and "thrift" is only another word for savings. Four per cent compound interest paid by the Peoples Savings bank, Fourth avenue and Wood street.

GATES IS GETTING OUT OF HIS DEAL EASILY

Since He Shifted Burden on Valentine, That Master Hand Is Stopping Losses.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CHICAGO, April 21.—Good Friday's respite on the board of trade gave a chance for leisure reckoning on the past, present and future of the May wheat deal today. On two main points there seemed to be pretty general agreement—that John W. Gates has surrendered his leadership, and that the shifting of fortunes is not likely to be of the vast proportions which the events of the last fortnight portended.

The deal, so far as Gates' management went, looked like a failure to the best judges in the trade. It has been shifted, and so far as the Valentine master hand appears, it is assuming more the appearance of partial success. Keeping in mind the new tactics employed in the pit for three days past, keeping in mind also the adroit way in which May wheat was liquidated in large quantities without starting anything like a panic until stop loss selling orders by other longs started it on the break yesterday, it is a reasonable conclusion that the Gates losses do not promise to be a quarter of what they might have been under former management.

A liberal part of the enormous line held for May has been sold out in the open market with little if any loss; notice has been served on contract wheat makers all over the country, the northwest in particular, that this market is not to be held up as a target for them to shoot at; important lines of wheat already prepared for shipment to Chicago have been ordered to Buffalo instead, or will be held at home at Minneapolis for milling supply; but the master stroke of all, as seen by old-time experts, is the purchase of from 5,000,000 to 6,000,000 bushels of July wheat at bottom figures of a long decline, securing enormous profits from hedging sales made by the May bull clique, from $1.02 down to 87 cents.

LEISHMAN HAD TROUBLE GETTING THE SULTAN'S EAR

Turkish Ruler Always Too Busy to Receive the American Minister on Important Business.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Some of the difficulties encountered by the American minister at Constantinople in his efforts to gain an audience with the sultan last year to obtain settlement of American claims are set forth in the following official paraphrase made public at the state department today, of a cablegram received at the time from Minister Leishman:

Mr. Leishman reports that, in the absence of any further communication from the palace about the audience, he attended selamlik and that the grand master of ceremonies informed him then on account of important visits in the harem his majesty could not receive him today. In view of the fact that the audience was demanded in the name of the president and that he has been twice put off, it seemed to Mr. Leishman to be beneath the dignity of the government of the United States to have him go again to the palace to seek an audience unless positive assurance be given in advance that he will be received by the sultan. Requests further instructions.

Exasperated by the dilatoriness of the porte, Secretary Hay informed Mr. Leishman "that the American fleet will arrive at Smyrna in a few days, and instructed him to use his best endeavors to obtain a satisfactory answer from the Turkish government before its arrival, and if that government should continue to refuse or to neglect to grant the moderate and resonable requests of this government to take an indefinite leave and to depart from Turkey in one of the United States naval vessels, leaving the legation in charge of the secretary of the legation."

THIS TARGET COST $50,000.

Is Duplicate of Hull of Modern Battleship, for Uncle Sam's Gunners to Practice On.

NEW YORK, April 21.—(Special.)—Technically called a launching, the floating crane Hercules picked up the floating target at the New York navy yard today and dropped it into the water as if it had been a piece of wood, instead of being, as it really is, a duplicate of a section from the hull of a modern battleship, and weighing at least 90 tons.

So far as known no country has ever constructed so expensive a target, nor one with which so many useful experiments can be made. The appropriation was $250,000, and the target has cost at least double that amount. It looks like a huge box, is 12 feet square and 32 feet deep. On six of the eight sides are channels or grooves in which ballast, in the form of blocks of pig iron, are placed. In the interior are 12 compartments and a manifold system of piping, with pumps to empty any of the compartments in the event of their being flooded. On the face of the target are 12 pressure gauges, to show the force of any concussion.

MAKE HIGHER PRICES.

Merchant Pipe Advances $1 and Boiler Tubes $4 a Ton Under Latest Rate Card.

Another advance in the price of merchant pipe and of boiler tube has been made by the National Tube Company, the leading producer.

The advance in pipe is one-half point, or $1 a ton. The advance in boiler tubes is two points, or $4 a ton. The changes are effective at once. The increase is due to the heavy demand upon the tube concerns of the country at large. The business in this line ranks among the very best in the whole steel market.

The Wool Market.

BOSTON, April 21.—The Commercial Bulletin tomorrow will say of the wool market:

In sympathy with operations in the west this market is even a little stronger than a week ago, and this position is sustained by the condition of the goods market. Foreign wools have sold freely, but not to the degree of last week's sales. The new clips which have arrived here have been quickly bought up and a very fair business has been transacted in pulled wools. Contracting in the west continues vigorously at fancy prices. The tone of all the foreign markets has still further improved with fairly active trade. The shipments of wool from Boston to date from December 29, 1904, according to the same authority, are 79,249,566 pounds, against 71,373,368 pounds at the same time last year. The receipts to date are 89,278,373 pounds, against 66,398,301 for the same period last year.

Bill Aimed at "Bucket Shops."

BOSTON, April 21.—The Massachusetts house today passed a bill aimed at the so-called "bucketshops." The measure provides that any persons or corporations who contract trades in stocks or bonds with a bet or wager depending on the outcome, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000, or imprisonment of not more than a year.

Shad Are Short.

Shad are short in Pittsburgh. A heavy storm along the Atlantic coast has lessened the supply of the fish, and those that were selling at 75 cents in Pittsburgh Thursday are now 85 cents, wholesale, in Baltimore. The shortage is attributed by dealers to a heavy storm in the region of Baltimore, from whence they come, cutting off the supply.

New York Money Market.

NEW YORK, April 21.—Prime mercantile paper, 4@4½ per cent; sterling exchange nominal, with actual business in bankers' bills at $4 86.20@4 86.25 for demand, and at $4 84.45@4 84.50 for 60 day bills; posted rates, $4 85 and $4 87; commercial bills, $4 84½@4 84¾.

FINANCIAL AND TRADE NOTES.

NEW YORK, April 21.—Stockholders of the Joseph Ladue Gold Mining and Development Company voted to dissolve the company at a meeting in Jersey City today. Similar action had already been taken by the directors. The company was organized by the late Joseph Ladue of Pittsburg, N. Y., who was one of the founders of Dawson City, in the Klondike. The company had an authorized capital of $5,000,000.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—National bank notes received today for redemption, $1,018,200; government receipts from internal revenue, $390,998; customs, $508,388; miscellaneous, $34,741; expenditures, $1,480,000.

In the Oil Fields.

Two weeks ago the Producers & Refiners Company drilled in a test on the James Rutman farm, southwest of Wylieville, Greene district, Wetzel county. The well was drilled with a view to developing a gasser to supply the Producers & Refiners' pumping station, but when drilled into the Big Injun a good show of oil was developed. It was drilled to and through the Gordon and found nothing in that formation, and it will now be tested in the Big Injun and will probably make a 15-barrel pumper. It is rather light as an oil producer, but will no doubt be the incentive for drilling some other tests in that locality. In the Wick district, in Tyler county, Porter, Livingston & Co. have drilled their No. 10 on the W. E. McKnight farm through the Cow Run sand and will have a very light pumper, not good for more than 2 barrels a day. In the Elm Run district, in Ritchie county, the Salina Oil Company has completed its No. 7 on the W. H. Moore farm and has a show for a 10-barrel pumper from the gas and salt sands.

On the E. R. Ferree farm, in the Burning Springs district, in Wirt county, the Donoho Oil Company has completed a deep duster. When this test proved a duster in the shallow formation it was decided to drill through all sands and make a test for a deep well. It has now been drilled through the Gordon at a depth of 2,640 feet and found that formation barren. In the same district, G. N. Graw has drilled his No. 16 on the Camden-Rathbone tract through the Big Injun, at a depth of 1,160 feet, and has a very light show of oil. In the same district, W. C. Edwards & Co. have completed No. 47 on the Rathbone oil tract and have a 4-barrel pumper in the first Cow Run sand at a depth of 470 feet.

Down in the Big Lime district, near Milton, Cabell county, the old wells are still producing, but some have fallen very low. There are still thirteen in the list of producers, and the last reported gauges are as follows: Nos. 1, 2 and 3 E. W. Beckett, 60 barrels; Nos. 1 and 2 Harshbarger, 25 barrels; Nos. 1 and 2 C. C. Beckett, 5 barrels; Nos. 1 and 2 Kilgore heirs', 45 barrels; No. 2 and 4 T. Burns, 25 barrels; No. 1 Chapman, 5 barrels, and No. 1 T. J. Berkley, 5 barrels. On the last named farm the McCoach Oil & Gas Company has started to drill at No. 2. By the foregoing it will be seen that the thirteen wells have an aggregate production of 170 barrels or an average of a little more than 13 barrels a day. There is very little new work starting in the district.

In the Joy district, on the Ohio side, near Amesville, Morgan county, the Berea Oil Company's test on the John Beasley farm has been drilled through all sands and is a duster. This well was put through or rather below where the Gordon should have been found, but that formation was not encountered. In the same district, the Midland company has drilled its No. 21 on the J. H. Jones farm through the shallow sand and has a show for a 2 or 3-barrel pumper.

In the Leetsdale district, Beaver county, the Little Sewickley Oil Company has drilled its No. 11 on the G. N. Sevens farm into the 100-foot sand and has a show for a 15-barrel pumper. Near Georgetown, Beaver county, the Mill Creek Investment Company has completed its test on the H. S. Pugh farm and has a duster in the Berea grit.

Railroad News.

President Oscar G. Murray of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad has decided to make improvements in connection with the coal supply of vessels for use in locomotives. He has authorized the establishing of water-treating plants at Emblem and Glenwood to eliminate the acids, etc., from the river water used. The work will cost in the neighborhood of $150,000. At Layton the present reservoir capacity will be increased. At Griffith a fairly good quantity of mountain stream has been located, which is to be dammed and furnish water at this point by gravity. At Emblem it will be necessary to continue the use of the river water, and, to use this satisfactorily, a purifying plant of 50,000 gallons capacity an hour is to be installed. This plant will also furnish a supply of water that will be carried to Versailles by gravity. At Glenwood it is also necessary to use the river water and a purifying plant of about 100,000 gallons capacity an hour will be constructed. At Delmar the Allegheny river water will be piped to suitable storage tanks and made use of. The recent annual droughts in this district have resulted in the river waters becoming badly contaminated and polluted by the refuse from mines, mills and decaying of animal and vegetable matter, and this has resulted not only in the scarcity of supply, but in water that is entirely unfit for locomotive purposes, and the consequence has been an unlimited expense and delay in the handling and maintenance of power and in the movement of traffic. A 50,000 gallon tank will also be installed at Bessemer, Pa.; a gravity water supply established at Rodemer, on the Cumberland division; a dam across Higher river and an additional water tank constructed at Cornwallis, W. Va.

B. & O. Earnings.

The March statement of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad shows gross earnings $6,223,789, an increase of $389,412; expenses, $4,223,693, an increase of $175,209; net earnings, $2,000,096, an increase of $214,203. For the nine months of the fiscal year ended March 31, 1905, the gross earnings were $55,886,202, an increase of $1,715,149; expenses, $35,553,193, an increase of $440,981; net earnings, $18,313,009, an increase of $1,274,168.

P. R. R. Relief Fund Report.

The monthly report of the Employes Relief fund of the Pennsylvania railroad lines east of Pittsburgh and Erie show payments for March of $143,052 20, of which $50,699 45 was on account of death and $92,352 75 on account of disability by sickness and accident.

Business Opportunities.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY—For a man with some business ability and having some capital, we offer an interest with general management of an iron industry, in full operation; a modern plant, splendid buildings, main buildings of brick, 52x185 feet and 75x200 feet, respectively; frame building 75x200 feet, together with other necessary buildings and 13 acres of land.
Business well established, products in excellent demand; orders for goods exceed the output.
Excellent facilities, water, transportation, fuel and other necessaries provided for, to work on an economical basis, so as to meet any competition.
Only reason for offering an interest is the age of present principal owner, who has made a fortune out of the business, but now being 76 years of age and having ill health, must retire from active management.
To a competent, energetic man, with some capital this is a golden opportunity. C. A. Dougherty & Co., Canton, Ohio.

BUSINESS—We buy and sell all kinds of business everywhere; will organize your business into a corporation or a stock company and sell your stock; we guarantee stocks and bonds; secure partners for established business; we furnish capital to extend business; no schemes entertained; correspondence solicited; all our transactions are strictly confidential.

DAVIDSON JURY SEALS VERDICT

Big Condemnation Case Finished With Clear Charge by Judge Frazer.

CONTEMPT CASE IS HEARD

The jury in the $1,500,000 damage suit of Eligabeth Davidson and others against the Baltimore & Ohio railroad over a tract of land condemned for railroad purposes returned a sealed verdict at 7:30 o'clock last evening. The case has been on trial for over a week, and was given to the jury at noon yesterday.

W. B. Rodgers, for the plaintiff, finished his argument shortly before noon. It was commenced on Thursday at 2 o'clock. He reviewed all the testimony relating to real estate values and made all that was possible out of the alleged action on the part of the railroad company in asking the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to have a train at the Second avenue and Try street switch, when viewed by the jury, to illustrate how the tracks blockaded the property. He told the jurors that this was done with the evident intention of influencing their judgment, and that it was purely by accident that the plaintiffs discovered the scheme. He told of the conductor of the train approaching one of the attorneys for the defense and asking if the blockade was satisfactory, and how the attorney refused to answer the question.

Little Tilt in Court.

"Why, gentlemen," said Mr. Rodgers, "I wouldn't be surprised if the lawyers for the other side had a hand in placing those signs on the property."

At that remark Mr. McCleave jumped up and demanded what he meant to insinuate, accusing Mr. Rodgers of trying to tell the jury that the counsel for the defendants would deliberately place the signs referred to on the property.

Mr. Rodgers said he simply remarked that he wouldn't be surprised if they took a hammer and tacks and did the work, but he did not accuse them of doing it.

"Well, I will not have it," replied Mr. McCleave.

"What are you going to do about it?" asked Mr. Rodgers.

Mr. Rodgers then went into the evidence as to the price per square foot, claiming they had 18 witnesses as to values, 11 of whom were property owners in the vicinity. He compared their figures, some claiming $9 per foot and others as high as $10, making a general average of $1,255,250 for the tract. He told them the owners were powerless under the eminent domain laws to keep their property, and that they would have to accept the finding of the jury as final. He appealed to their judgment, asking for a verdict of $1,500,000.

Judge Frazer started his charge by explaining the methods of acquiring property by condemnation, showing the jury that it had nothing to do with the price agreed upon by the viewers, but was to take into consideration everything adduced by competent testimony. He explained that in cases of this kind witnesses were permitted to take the stand to give their judgment as to values. He explained that the price the property would bring at the date of condemnation was to be taken, not the value of the property today.

Railroad Pleads for Time.

Testimony was heard by Judge Frazer in the equity suit of John A. Snee against the West Side Belt Railroad Company. Some time ago Snee entered suit against the company, alleging that in building its line it had diverted the course of Peters creek through his property, and asking an injunction to restrain the company from maintaining the obstructions on his land. This was granted in the lower court, and the railroad carried the case to the supreme court, where the lower court was sustained. The railroad, failing to comply with the order to remove obstructions, Snee asked that the company be attached for contempt, and a rule to show cause was granted. The company alleged that failure to secure iron girders for bridges within the contract time, bad weather and a possible freshet were responsible. It asked for an extension of 90 days in which to comply with the order, and it was on this that testimony was taken. Several engineers and contractors were put on the stand to prove that the company was proceeding as rapidly as possible.

A petition in involuntary bankruptcy was filed against the Volant Clay Manufacturing Company of Volant, Lawrence county. The petitioners are the Smith, Hutton & Kirk Co., the New Castle Portland Cement Company and Marshall Bros., all of New Castle. Claims amounting to $2,415 90 were filed.

Martin Henning, Homestead, leaves a $500 estate to a sister, Sophia. The will is dated April 12, 1905, the date of Henning's death, and was signed by him on his deathbed. Susan Still, McKeesport, leaves a $10,000 estate to her sister, Anna G. Wiggins. Elizabeth L. Stone, Allegheny, leaves a $8,000 estate to her husband. Margaret Reisheck, Allegheny, leaves a $4,700 estate to be divided among her two children and a grandchild. Mark A. Oskin, Braddock, divides $1,000 between his six children. Frederick Kunse, McKeesport, leaves an unestimated estate to his four children, three of whom are in Tillamook, Ore. Patrick Teouillas leaves a $1,600 estate to his widow. James Oesterling, Millvale, leaves an unestimated estate to his widow.

CHICAGO FACES GENERAL STRIKE OF TEAMSTERS

All Local Concerns Employing Union Drivers Are Notified to Cease Hauling to Montgomery Ward.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

CHICAGO, April 21.—Business agents from 47 teamsters' unions in Chicago, have been instructed to demand that employes cease hauling goods to Montgomery Ward & Co., whose teamsters and garment workers are on a strike. A refusal will, in each case result, it is stated, in the calling of a strike by the joint council of teamsters. Prior to the action of the business agents of the unions, a defiant attitude was shown by the Chicago Employes' association. A placard pasted on every wagon owned by the new teaming corporation, backed by the association, reads:

"This war belongs to the Independent Company. We deliver goods to Montgomery Ward & Co., and employ non-union drivers." Below this placard is pasted a copy of an injunction issued by Judge Brentano prohibiting any interference with the business of Ward & Co.

SOCIETY

MISS JEAN McGINLEY, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. McGinley, has chosen her sister, Miss Marion McGinley, to serve as maid of honor at her wedding to Edward S. Moore next Wednesday. The Rev. Dr. J. Kinsey Smith, pastor of the Shadyside Presbyterian church, will solemnize the marriage at 5 o'clock in the afternoon at the McGinley home in Forbes street. In addition to the maid of honor Miss McGinley's attendants will include Miss Louise Kay, Miss Gertrude Childs, Miss Sallie Hill, all of this city, and Miss Margaret Cobb of Chicago. Paul Moore will serve as his brother's best man and the duties of ushers will be performed by Charles Foster and Thomas Atterbury McGinley, brother of the bride, both of Pittsburgh; Bradford Brinton of Chicago and Samuel Sutthin of Indianapolis. Mr. Sutthin, it will be remembered, was one of the ushers at the wedding of Miss Helen Ethel Cassidy and Warren Fairbanks, which took place here over a year ago. The ceremony on Wednesday will be followed by the usual wedding supper and reception, and during the evening Mr. Moore and his bride will leave the city on their wedding trip. Although no at-home days have been announced, they will live in St. Louis. Judge W. H. Moore and Mrs. Moore, parents of the prospective bridegroom, will be here over the wedding, as well as several other relatives. All will have apartments at the Schenley.

Among the social affairs which will precede the wedding is a luncheon to be given by Miss Gertrude Childs on Monday. Mr. Moore will give his bachelor dinner at the Pittsburgh club that evening, while Miss McGinley entertains her attendants at dinner at her home. The rehearsal will take place on Tuesday afternoon and in the evening Mr. Thomas McGinley will give a dinner for the entire bridal party at the Golf club. The wedding will be one of the most interesting of the spring, and coming, as it does, so soon after Easter, will inaugurate the spring social season which will, however, be a very short one, as those in the front ranks of society are already making plans for their summer flittings. Miss McGinley was formally introduced to society at a large reception which her mother gave at her home last winter. Her real debut, however, may be dated back to the days of her childhood, when she, with a half hundred other children of prominent families, participated in a kermiss for the benefit of the Pittsburgh and Allegheny Free Kindergarten association. It was one of the first affairs ever held in the new Carnegie Music hall, and Miss McGinley acted as queen of the fairies, leading the other little tots through the mazes of the grand march, while the rear was brought up by her younger sister, who is now to be her maid of honor. Miss McGinley's engagement to Mr. Moore was announced last summer at a luncheon which Miss Childs gave in Manchester-by-the-Sea, where both families were spending the summer.

Reception for Bryn Mawr's President.

Miss M. Carey Thomas, president of Bryn Mawr college, is expected in the city next Friday to be the guest of Mrs. Frank N. Taylor of Penn avenue, Homewood. This will be the first visit made by Miss Thomas to Pittsburgh and the alumnae have planned a large reception in her honor. The affair will be given in the ballroom of the Hotel Schenley on the evening of Saturday, May 6. The committee in charge includes Miss Mary Agnes Gleim, Miss Ruth Gentry, Miss Sarah Ellis, Miss Eleanor James, Miss Elizabeth Utley, Miss Helen Briggs and Miss Mary Van Wagoner. Miss Thomas, introduced by the Rev. Dr. Samuel B. McCormick, will make an address at the reception. The patronesses are Mrs. John Caldwell, Mrs. John R. McGinley, Mrs. James Hay Reed, Mrs. Charles H. Spencer, Mrs. Edward H. Utley, Mrs. J. J. Miller, Mrs. William J. Holland, Mrs. Henry A. Breed, Mrs. William Thaw, Mrs. F. D. McClintock, Mrs. James MacFarlane, Mrs. Jesse T. Lazear, Mrs. Frank N. Taylor, Mrs. Alexander R. Peacock, Mrs. G. Taylor Alderdice, Mrs. Joseph W. Marsh, Mrs. Thomas B. McKaig, Mrs. Robert L. Martin, Mrs. George Breed Gordon, Mrs. Benjamin Thaw, Mrs. Carter Curtis Beggs, Mrs. William Nimick Frew, Mrs. William Mackay Hall, Jr., Mrs. John Brown Herron, Mrs. Charles B. McLean, Mrs. George W. Dewees Wood, Mrs. Richard Beatty Mellon, Mrs. Daniel M. Clemson, Mrs. Ralph Baggaley, Mrs. Arthur Hamerschlag, Mrs. R. C. McCague and Mrs. Louis W. Daizell.

Palmer-Evans Wedding Rehearsal.

The rehearsal for the wedding of Miss Jeannette Morrison Palmer, daughter of Mrs. Henry Palmer, and Sanford Bell Evans took place last evening at Mrs. Palmer's home in Bellefield avenue. The rehearsal was followed by an informal little supper at the Hotel Schenley. The wedding, which takes place next Wednesday evening, is to be preceded by a number of social affairs. Harry Ross, who will be one of the ushers, will give a dinner on Monday at the Country club, his guests, in addition to the bridal party, including his sister, Miss Ross, and Frank McClure. Mrs. J. M. Hansen of Walnut street will entertain at euchre this afternoon in honor of Miss Palmer.

Dinner Precedes Wedding Rehearsal.

A dinner given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Andrew S. Braznell of Wilkinsburg preceded the rehearsal for the wedding of their daughter, Miss Lorna E. Braznell, and Karl Denny Ashcom of Ligonier, which is set for Tuesday next. Dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock, Miss Braznell presenting her matron of honor, Mrs. Benjamin Sumner Braznell, with a handsome gold belt buckle, and her little flower girl, May Florence Shaw, with a necklace of gold beads. The ushers and best man received gold cuff links from Mr. Ashcom.

Gives Dinner of Twelve Covers.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Garland gave a dinner of 12 covers at their home in Edgewood Park last evening. The dinner was followed by the rehearsal for the wedding of Miss Florence Edna Jarret, niece of the host and hostess, and David Cooke Farrar. A gold band bracelet engraved with the initials of the bridal party was Miss Jarrett's gift to her maid of honor, while Mr. Farrar presented his best man with a stickpin. Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Farrar, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Farrar, Jr., Mrs. William Henry Jarrett and the members of the bridal party were the dinner guests.

Pittsburghers Going to Baltimore.

Joseph Reed, whose wedding to Miss Maude T. Howell of Baltimore is to take place on Tuesday, left for Monumental city last evening and will be followed tonight by his mother, Mrs. George W. Reed, and her daughter, Miss Margaret Reed, and Richard Hawkins, who will serve as an usher. A. Marshall Bell and Richmond Graff, also ushers, will leave on Sunday evening and a fourth usher, Richard Hawkins, on Monday evening. Mr. and Mrs. George W. Orr, Jr., of Pittsburgh on Thursday evening and will visit several other cities before reaching Baltimore.

Linens for Bride-Elect.

Miss Helen McAdams of Sheridan avenue gave a luncheon at her home yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Grace D. Mercer, whose marriage to Dr. Paul J. McLain will take place on Tuesday. Prior to the luncheon Miss McAdams had embroidered all but a few stitches on several pieces of linen which were finished by the guests yesterday afternoon and then given to the bride-elect. The guests were Miss Mercer, Miss Jane Arnheim, Miss Annie Lowry, Miss Nellie Craig, Miss Mary McAuley, Miss Eva Martin and Miss Mame McAdams.

Lippincotts in Brooklyn.

Dr. J. A. Lippincott and wife of Pittsburgh, after spending the winter abroad, are now making a short visit to Col. Henry Lippincott, M. D., at his home in Brooklyn, N. Y. Col. Lippincott went to the Philippine Islands in charge of the medical department of the expedition under Gen. Otis, but is now retired.

Notes of Society.

A reception and progressive euchre will be given on Easter Monday evening in Lyceum hall, Washington street, by the ladies of Epiphany parish.

Major Samuel Hubley and Mrs. Hubley of Pacific avenue will spend Easter in Atlantic City, having left Pittsburgh on Thursday evening.

A euchre and informal dance will be given on Monday evening in the Keystone Bicycle club, Howe street, East End.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Deem of Waverly avenue, East End, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Effie Josephine Deem, to Frank G. Monroe of Wilkinsburg. The engagement will be terminated by a quiet June wedding.

A charity euchre for the benefit of the Pittsburgh Home for Babies will be held on Wednesday, May 3, in conservatory hall, Dithridge street.

Miss Theresa Keller of Brackenbridge, Pa., and William Hughan of Tarentum were married yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock in St. Peter's Roman Catholic church, Tarentum, by Rev. Father John Walsh. They will reside in Tarentum.

AMONG THE CLUBS

New Era Club Plants a Tree.

Congressman-elect William H. Graham made an address yesterday afternoon in West park, Allegheny, the occasion being the planting of a tree by the New Era club. The tree, an oriental plane, a species of sycamore, was planted near the Phipps conservatory in what was once the old burying ground. The thirty-eighth anniversary of the founding of the park occurred on Thursday of this week, and the club women yesterday commemorated that event by the tree-planting.

The exercises commenced at 3 o'clock, but the rain shortened the program, and a large portion of the company which had assembled in the park adjourned to the conservatory, where William Hamilton acted as host. Prayer, offered by the Rev. J. A. Henderson, was followed by the planting of the tree, Jonathan Gallagher, one of the two surviving original commissioners of the parks, throwing in the first shovelful of earth; William Hamilton, superintendent of parks, throwing the second, and followed by Mr. Graham, congressman-elect; John Morrow, superintendent of the Allegheny schools; Mrs. James R. Kibler, president of the New Era club, and Miss Kate Cassatt MacKnight, president of the State Federation of Pennsylvania Women.

Mr. Graham's address comprised a history of the Allegheny parks, arranged by John Slagle, who, besides Mr. Gallagher, is the surviving member of the original commission, and Robert Dilworth, secretary of the commission. In the course of the address Mr. Graham referred to David Reddick, the surveyor sent from Washington county to lay out the city of Allegheny. Just before his death Reddick requested that he be buried in a standing position on the line between Pennsylvania and West Virginia, so that he might be ready for the race when the Angel Gabriel blew his horn. This was done and the body of the surveyor was subsequently found on the exact line between the two states.

Miss MacKnight was to have made an address on the "Forestry Work of the Women's Clubs in Pennsylvania," but the rain came on and the people adjourned to the conservatory. There were over 100 club women, school children and city officials in the company which witnessed the tree planting.

Kitchen-Garden in Soho.

The Soho bath committee met yesterday morning and authorized the establishment of a kitchen garden in connection with the settlement which will be inaugurated soon in the house recently purchased in Soho for the public baths. The house is being fitted up as rapidly as possible for settlement work. The first floor will be given up to public rooms, with living rooms and a library on the second floor. Many books have already been donated to the library, but more are needed, as well as furniture with which to furnish the house. The baths will be erected on the adjoining site. The members of the permanent Soho bath commission, who were elected several days ago, have not all sent in their acceptance, and their names are not yet made public. Attorney Levi Bird Duff is chairman and the other members include prominent men of Pittsburgh, together with the mayor, presidents of both branches of the council, the president of the Civic club and the chairman of the permanent civic committee, ex-officio members. The board will meet to organize next Friday afternoon in the Civic club rooms and then assume control of the property at 2404 Forbes street.

Will Observe Donation Day.

The annual reception and donation day at the United Presbyterian Home for Orphans in Allegheny will be observed on Thursday afternoon and evening, May 8. The day is earlier than usual this year, because a large representation from the United Presbyterian churches in this district will go on to attend the annual meeting of the Women's General Missionary society, which will be held later in the month in Oregon. A meeting of the board of managers of the Orphans' home was held yesterday, when arrangements were made for the reception and donation day.

Trees for Washington Park.

There will be a tree planting in Washington Recreation park next Friday afternoon, April 28, when six trees provided by several women's clubs will be planted under the direction of the Recreation parks committee of the Pittsburgh joint committee of women's clubs. One of the trees will be given by the New Era club and another by the Wilmodausis. There will be interesting exercises, consisting of addresses and music.

Hospital Donation Day.

"Donation day" was observed yesterday afternoon by the Suburban Hospital club of Avalon in the Avalon borough hall. Groceries, provisions, jellies, old linens and all kinds of things suitable for hospital use were accepted by the committee in charge. The club is composed of women of the borough and has a membership of 85. It is going to put a tile floor in the operating room in the Suburban General hospital, Bellevue.

Club Housewarming.

The Business Women's club will have a housewarming this afternoon and evening in the new club house, 515 Arch street, Allegheny. The members of the club will receive from 3 o'clock until 9, and in addition to exhibitions by several of the classes, there will be an Easter sale of fancy and useful articles.

New Era's Social Meeting.

A social meeting of the New Era club will be held next Wednesday afternoon, April 24, at the home of Mrs. Joseph W. McGinnis, 354 Graham street, Shadyside. Mrs. McGinnis' sister, Mrs. R. W. Smith, will be hostess to the clubwomen on that day.

To Inspect Southern Industries.

Gen. A. J. Warner of Marietta, O., passed through the city last night on his way to South Carolina, where he is interested in several industries. One of them is a plant built to furnish power for operating street railway cars and furnishing electric lights. The power is generated by a water fall.

THE LAXATIVE OF KNOWN QUALITY

There are two classes of remedies; those of known quality and which are permanently beneficial in effect, acting gently, in harmony with nature, when nature needs assistance; and another class, composed of preparations of unknown, uncertain and inferior character, acting temporarily, but injuriously, as a result of forcing the natural functions unnecessarily. One of the most exceptional of the remedies of known quality and excellence is the ever pleasant Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., which represents the active principles of plants, known to act most beneficially, in a pleasant syrup, in which the wholesome Californian blue figs are used to contribute their rich, yet delicate, fruity flavor. It is the remedy of all remedies to sweeten and refresh and cleanse the system gently and naturally, and to assist one in overcoming constipation and the many ills resulting therefrom. Its active principles and quality are known to physicians generally, and the remedy has therefore met with their approval, as well as with the favor of many millions of well informed persons who know of their own personal knowledge and from actual experience that it is a most excellent laxative remedy. We do not claim that it will cure all manner of ills, but recommend it for what it really represents, a laxative remedy of known quality and excellence, containing nothing of an objectionable or injurious character.

There are two classes of purchasers; those who are informed as to the quality of what they buy and the reasons for the excellence of articles of exceptional merit, and who do not lack courage to go elsewhere when a dealer offers an imitation of any well known article; but, unfortunately, there are some people who do not know, and who allow themselves to be imposed upon. They cannot expect its beneficial effects if they do not get the genuine remedy.

To the credit of the druggists of the United States be it said that nearly all of them value their reputation for professional integrity and the good will of their customers too highly to offer imitations of the manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., and in order to buy the genuine article and to get its beneficial effects, one has only to note, when purchasing, the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package. Cures Hundreds by New and Marvelous Method of Treatment.

MAKES THE LAME WALK AND THE DEAF HEAR

HAS HE SUPERNATURAL GIFTS?

Discards Useless Drug and Medicines, Yet Heals Hopeless Invalids Pronounced Incurable by Physicians.

Offers Services and Home Treatment Free of Charge to Rich and Poor Alike—Believes It His Duty to God and Man to Labor for the Sick and Afflicted Who Stand in Need.

NEW YORK, April 20.—(Special Correspondence.)—The mysterious healing power of Professor William Wallace Hadley of this city, which enables him to cure hopeless invalids when doctors, drugs and all other means have failed, has aroused widespread wonder and comment in all circles, physicians and scientists being as much in the dark for an explanation as those outside the medical profession.

Various attempts to discover this man's secret have failed, since he has refused to disclose the source of his most marvelous control over disease and his strange power to stay the clutch of death. Yet the proven facts and evidence show that in hundreds of instances when patients have been pronounced hopelessly incurable and given up to death by doctors, Professor Hadley has restored them to health so easily and quickly that it borders closely upon the miraculous or divine. These cures are the more strange and startling since it is known that he has discarded the useless drugs usually prescribed by physicians and accomplishes these marvels by a new and wonderful method of treatment unlike any heretofore known to science. Indeed, one woman goes so far as to state that Professor Hadley made her heart beat again in her body when she was prepared for the grave, and he has performed dozens of other seeming miracles of healing in the face of death. He claims that there is no disease he may not cure, and there is every reason to believe that this claim, startling as it is, is no more than the literal truth, since the records show that he has cured cancer, consumption, paralysis, deafness and other diseases supposed to be incurable, with the same ease and certainty that he cured stomach and kidney troubles, rheumatism, catarrh and the more common ailments that human flesh is heir to.

Powerful and peculiar as is Professor Hadley's ability, an almost equally remarkable thing about this man is the fact that he gives his treatment free of charge to rich and poor alike, devoting himself to the relief of afflicted humanity independent of fees or reward. He is quoted as saying that he looks upon this power he possesses as a divine gift, and that he feels it is his duty as a Christian to help all who stand in need, without attempting to extort money for his services.

During a recent interview with Professor Hadley the eminent scientist firmly but courteously declined to discuss the secret of the power that he holds, but finally was induced to speak of some of the almost miraculous cures he has made. Speaking of the case of Joseph R. Stewart of Camden, N. J., one of his recent patients, Professor Hadley said: "Mr. Stewart had been told by various physicians that he had cancer of the stomach, complicated with kidney disease and bowel trouble, that his case was incurable and beyond the reach of medicine, and that he must make the most of what little life was left to him before death claimed him. He suffered most terrible agonies, and was on the verge of the grave when he applied to me as a last resort. Notwithstanding what the doctors had said, I accepted the case and put him under my treatment and cured him. Today he is worth a good many dead men, and in a recent letter to me speaks of his cure as a 'miracle.' Then there was the case of Mrs. M. Worthington of Egg Harbor, N. J. For twenty-five years she had been a hopeless invalid from complicated female troubles, many long months bedridden in hospitals, and pronounced hopelessly incurable and given up to die by all her physicians. But she put her faith in me, threw away her old medicines, and is today the picture and reality of perfect health. I took up the case of Mr. E. C. Bass of El Campo, Tex., after the doctors had given him up to death and could do nothing to revive him. Brought to this condition by the combined attack of kidney and liver diseases, dropsy and articular rheumatism, he suffered the torments of the damned and was almost insane with pain. Doctors and their medicines failed utterly. But I did not fail. I cured him. I restored him to life and health without his even knowing just how it was done. Then recently I received this letter from Mrs. E. C. McManus of Allison, Ala., which will give you an idea of how my patients regard my power to cure." The writer copied Mrs. McManus' letter, which, word for word, is as follows: "At last I am free from pain and disease, at last my health is restored to me; it seems little short of a miracle that you could absolutely cure any one as sick as I was. When you made me well again you cured catarrh of the stomach and bowels, liver and kidney diseases, female trouble and piles. All these you cured as I am the living witness. I am so thankful to you for all you have done for me, for all you saved me from. I would have died without your treatment. May God bless you and your good work." And one from C. S. Harrell of Cato, Ark., reads: "You seem to know just what the trouble is and just how to cure it. Hereafter I am through with quack doctors and their useless drugs, for they are not worth a pinch of salt compared with your treatment. I was sick so long with liver and kidney disease and stomach trouble that all the blood seemed gone from my body, and I looked like a corpse ready for burial. I was so weak and suffered so much and so constantly that I could not work on my farm as I needed to. Now I am feeling wonderfully different. You have driven the disease out of my body as you promised, and I assure you that I am most thankful for it. I feel that you saved my life."

"Cases come to me from all over this country," continued the Professor, "that have baffled some of the best physicians and specialists, where one doctor has said the trouble was one thing and the next something else, until the patients were at a loss to know what disease they really were suffering from. Is it any wonder that sufferers fail to get well when they are not only treated for the wrong disease, but also given useless medicines on the hit-or-miss plan? But I am able to make a correct and careful diagnosis of each case that comes to me, and seeing the cause, apply the power to cure."

"But how about those who cannot afford to come to New York to have you treat them?"

"It does not make the slightest difference. I cure them in their homes just as easily and just as surely as if I went to them or they came to me. Distance cannot weaken the healing power I have. All that any one who is ill in any way, from any cause, has to do, is to write me a letter, addressing William Wallace Hadley, M. D., office 1062 S. No. 2236 Broadway, New York, telling me the disease they suffer from most, or their principal symptoms, age and sex, and I will give them a course of home treatment absolutely free of charge.

"Do you really mean that any one who is sick can write you to be cured, without paying you any money?"

"Yes, I mean just that. I believe that as a Christian it is my duty to God and man to help all who are in need. When I have been given the power to cure, I do not believe that I have the right to make any one waste his money on useless drugs when I can heal him without them. It is not alone the needless expense, but medicines and the surgeon's knife often do more harm than good, as even the medical profession will confess if they speak the truth. We all owe a duty to our fellow men, we must all serve in one way or another. Where a rich man gives money, I give health. I am not a millionaire, but I am able to afford to do my share toward relieving the suffering of mankind. And I am happy to give freely of my services wherever they are needed. And I am especially anxious to cure any poor mortal who has been told that his or her case is incurable, that there is no hope left on earth. Or any one who have grown weary spending money on drugs and doctors in a vain search for health. If they will write to me and accept my offer there is not only hope, but an almost absolute certainty that they need be sick no longer. And it is a blessing that my power makes a letter to me do just as much good as a personal visit."

GOOD FRIDAY PROVES EXCELLENT FOR TRADE

Business Is Heavy and Prices Hold Firm in all Market Lines.

Good Friday was a particularly good day for the local markets. Every buyer seemed to be out, laying in a stock which would help celebrate the ending of the 40 days of abstinence. Along Liberty street dealers were so busy they could scarcely answer questions.

There were no changes in any of the local markets. Flour is simply waiting for business to be resumed in the speculative market before it makes another move. Should wheat suffer another drop Monday there is no doubt but that another severe cut in price will take place.

The egg market is weaker and the price is marked down. New cheese is coming in and is offered in quotations today. Butter is only a fair market and is so scarce that it is hard to tell what it would be if there was enough to supply the demand. It is not believed there will be any change next Monday.

Strawberries have moved up sharply in price and may reach $5 a crate today. Asparagus is also scarce and the California product is selling at $6 50 and $7 00 a dozen.

HAY AND GRAIN.

Receipts of hay and grain yesterday were as follows: Pennsylvania lines, 45 cars hay, 24 cars oats, 4 cars corn, 2 cars straw, 5 cars feed. Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, 3 cars hay, 3 cars rye, 2 cars oats. Baltimore & Ohio, 10 cars hay, 3 cars oats, 1 car corn and oats.

There being no meeting of the grain exchange yesterday but little was doing in that line. Most of the dealers were in their offices and reported a fair amount of business at the quotations ruling Friday:

Foreign Money Markets.

LONDON, April 21.—Good Friday was observed by all business interests here today.

PARIS, April 21.—The tone on the bourse today was heavy and trading was inactive, owing to fears of complications in the far east and the uncertainty in regard to the Moroccan question. Russian imperial 4s were quoted at 87.35 and Russian bonds of 1904 at 508. Three per cent rentes, 99 francs 30 centimes for the account. Exchange on London, 25 francs 15 centimes for checks.

BERLIN, April 21.—The financial interests here observed Good Friday today.

Late Report on Brighton Mine.

It has not been publicly announced before, but it has been known by the insiders for several weeks past, that the Brighton mine of the Pittsburg Consolidated Company has been opening a very valuable body of ore, extending over 200 feet on the fourth level east from the shaft, and a personal inspection of the property was made by Mr. Thomas Liggett of this city.

In conversation with Mr. Liggett he reports that there is no question but that this body of smelting ore will extend above the third level and below the fifth level, and that this body of ore alone, without taking into consideration any other body of ore which has been opened up in the Brigton mine, is sufficient to run the company's new mill full of ore, and put the property upon a paying basis at once.

A committee of directors and stockholders will leave on Monday for Colorado to visit the Pittsburg Consolidated Company's property and meet and hear report of an eminent engineer, who has recently examined and tested the property.

Standard Investment Bonds.

The Colonial Trust Company, No. 317 Fourth avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa., has for sale a variety of bonds yielding the purchaser from 3½ to 6 per cent, which it recommends as desirable investments. Inquire of Alexander C. Thompson, manager bond department.

ERRATIC WEATHER MADE TRADE VERY IRREGULAR

Week's Report on the Whole, However, Was Satisfactory—Industrial Activity Has Expanded.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, April 21.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade tomorrow will say:

Erratic weather has tended to make trade reports very irregular, but on the whole the week's results were satisfactory. Early delays were followed by increased activity, particularly in what might be termed Easter lines. It is noteworthy that numb business for fall delivery has appeared, and more supplementary spring and summer contracts are being placed than jobbers anticipated. Mercantile payments are also increasingly prompt. Industrial activity expands, textile plants securing larger orders, and footwear manufacturers are able to hold full prices without curtailing operations.

Labor controversies are few and cause little inconvenience, while immigration for the last week was more than double that of the corresponding week in 1904. Transporting interests are able to handle the increased business with little congestion, railway earnings thus far reported for April exceeding last year's by 10.2 per cent. Foreign commerce at this port for the last week showed a gain of $2,009,561 in value of merchandise exported, and imports were $3,415,922 larger than in the same week in 1904.

Higher wage scales becoming effective May 1 assure freedom from labor troubles at blast furnaces, and there is little friction at the steel mills, but the industry will be interrupted unless iron ore is freely mined. Otherwise the iron and steel industry is in splendid condition, contracts on hand delivery well into next year in many departments, and there is no division that can be styled dull. Coke output continues to eclipse all records, and the traffic conditions are favorable, the free movement threatens accumulation, so that this fuel is a little weaker. Both anthracite and bituminous coal are active.

Leather is steady, despite reports of sale at concessions, emanating from transactions in inferior goods, while belting butts advanced sharply. Packer hides are strong and active. Foreign dry hides are unchanged.

Failures this week numbered 200 in the United States, against 241 last year, and 21 in Canada, compared with 12 a year ago.

Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

Wheat, including flour, exports for the week ending April 20 are 1,242,267 bushels, against 1,202,501 last week; 1,645,428 this week last year; 3,889,542 in 1903, and 3,750,589 in 1902.

From July 1 to date the exports are 51,047,014 bushels, against 120,712,997 last year; 122,672,063 in 1903, and 256,601,241 in 1902. Corn exports for the week are 2,232,624 bushels, against 2,206,767 last week; 620,702 a year ago; 1,499,596 in 1905, and 376,186 in 1902. From July 1 to date the exports of corn are 65,877,045 bushels, against 48,745,306 in 1904; 53,104,708 in 1903, and 25,905,972 in 1902.

DECISION IS MADE ON TAX RECEIPT

An Important Ruling by Judge McIlvaine Clears Washington County Commissioners.

THE TAXPAYERS' LEAGUE LOSES

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, PA., April 21.—Judge McIlvaine handed down an opinion today which allows Councilman J. F. Schrontz of the Fifth ward, to retain his seat in the local municipal body. Quo warranto proceedings were brought against Schrontz who was elected on a Hallam or anti-organization ticket, to compel him to show cause why he should not be ousted. It was contended he had not paid tax, except as a member of the firm of Schrontz Brothers. The case was decided today in Schrontz's favor, Judge McIlvaine ruling that tax paid in a firm name by joint holders of property made each holder a qualified elector and entitled him to hold municipal office. This is said to be the first decision of the kind ever made in the state.

Judge McIlvaine also dismissed the suit brought by the Taxpayers' league of Washington county against the county commissioners and the contracting firm of Zelt & Company, late this evening, completely exonerating the commissioners from any charge of fraud. A quo warranto proceedings had been brought by the league to restrain the commissioners from making any additional payments on the contracts for the construction of a road between Claysville and Burnsville according to the provisions of the Flinn road law. It being claimed that the contract was not let to the lowest bidder and that the contract price was an exorbitant one. Judge McIlvaine in his decision contends that the bid under which the contract was let did not vary on the average with seven others let to various contractors; that mistakes made were due in a great measure to estimates made by assistant engineers who were non-potent; that the road constructed was admitted even by the prosecution to be worth the contract price of $27,000, and that while the commissioners erred in judgment in some instances, there was no evidence of fraud produced in any of the testimony submitted.

The real question, according to Judge McIlvaine, was not a legal one, but one of public policy. He contended that the Flinn road law was passed for the benefit of Allegheny county's rich district, and that the question for the poorer counties was whether or not they can afford to build expensive throughfares according to its provisions. The judge also held that the Taxpayers' league is remiss in that although they claimed in the beginning the contract was an illegal one, they did not bring any action until the work had been completed and most of the money paid the contractor. In his opinion Judge McIlvaine took occasion to score Capt. Gibson, the Democratic commissioner. Gibson created a sensation by asserting previous to the trial that the contracts had been awarded without consulting him, and that he had protested against it. On the stand he testified that he had been consulted and said that he had approved two bills and twice inspected the road. The Taxpayers' league was assessed the costs of the case which was dismissed from court.

SHERIFF GUARDS A DOG.

Proof of Ownership Will Probably Determine Whether Man Is Guilty of Murder.

SOMERSET, April 21.—(Special.)—Sheriff A. J. Coleman of Somerset county is carefully guarding a little yellow dog. The animal is said to belong to S. J. Turvey, held on a charge of killing William Sutton, a non-unionist. Sutton was shot from behind a tree. A man who was with Sutton saw a little yellow dog playing around the spot. Later he saw Turvey and the canine in a ravine nearby, the man carrying a shotgun. On this man's testimony Turvey has been held without bail. The dog will be kept until the next term of court. The guilt or innocence of Turvey will probably depend on proving the ownership of the dog.

Will Give Banquet to Peters.

COLUMBUS, O., April 21.—President Ralph Peters of the Long Island railroad will be given a farewell banquet Saturday evening, April 29, by the officials of the southwest system of the Pennsylvania lines, with whom Mr. Peters was associated as general superintendent. The banquet will be attended by all the division superintendents of the Panhandle, General Superintendent R. E. McCarty and a number of Columbus business men.

Postmaster Is Arrested.

WILKESBARRE, April 21.—(Special.)—Postmaster A. J. Baker of Lenox, Susquehanna county, was arrested today on the charge of defrauding the government by getting his mother's pension of $12 a month, although she died over a year ago. As postmaster, it is his duty to execute pension vouchers for pensioners and he got hangers-on at the postoffice to witness them.

Pittsburgh Company Options Coal.

WASHINGTON, PA., April 21.—(Special.)—Within the last few days more than 500 acres of coal land in North Franklin and South Franklin townships have been optioned by men representing J. V. Thompson of Uniontown and the Vasta Coal Company, an underlying concern of the Jones & Laughlin company. The price, including the service, is $200.

Saloons Close on Good Friday.

MEADVILLE, April 21.—(Special.)—At a recent meeting of the Ministerial association of the city, a resolution was adopted requesting all business houses, including saloons, to close from 12 to 3 o'clock on Good Friday. Every liquor dealer complied with the request, and for a period of three hours Meadville was "dry."

Accuses Man from Pittsburgh.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., April 21.—(Special.)—William Morrow, a saloonkeeper of this city, claims to have been drugged yesterday afternoon and robbed of two diamonds, worth $425, and $17 in money. He says the robbers gave their names as Dunn of Bradford, Pa., and Swaney of Pittsburgh.

Farmer Kills Himself.

ATHENS, O., April 21.—Jacob Stoffor, aged 60 years, a farmer living two miles west of Athens, killed himself today by blowing off the top of his head with a shotgun. He placed the muzzle of the weapon in his mouth and pulled the trigger with his foot. He is supposed to have been temporarily insane.

A Great Philanthropist.

One of the greatest and oldest philanthropists of this country, Peter Cooper, whose name is well known over the world, was a strong temperance advocate, never drank a drop of wine or liquor until 77 years of age, when, with old age and failing health, he was advised to use a few times daily Speer's Port Grape and Burgundy Wines, which he did, and he told his friends, among whom is the writer, that it built him up, made him young again, and his health and vigor returned. He lived until 98 years of age.

Stoop Down and Pick It Up.

MASONTOWN MERCHANT RECEIVES FATAL WOUND

He Says Four Men Entered His Store and Began Shooting at Him. They Are Captured.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CONNELLSVILLE, April 21.—Edward M. Trkulva, aged 40, formerly of Connellsville, was fatally wounded this morning in his store at Masontown. He was brought to the hospital here this afternoon, in a dying condition.

According to his statement four men entered the front door and began shooting at him, one bullet taking effect. After the shooting the men ran out of the store. Citizens who had heard the noise pursued them to the outskirts of the town, where the fugitives turned, drew their revolvers and compelled their pursuers to turn back. The county officers were notified and a posse captured them. They are: Steve Feamborn, Joseph Babyami, Frank Lambori and Andy Limivich.

They at first denied knowledge of the affair, but later said they entered the store to buy cakes and found Trkulva handling a revolver. They at once displayed their weapons and offered to trade. While handling the revolvers one of them was accidentally discharged.

May Be a Bittern.

BEAVER, April 21.—(Special.)—William Rose this morning shot but only slightly wounded a bird which local naturalists think is a bittern. The bird is a foot high and its wings spread three and a half feet. Its feathers are dark gray and ruffled about the neck. The legs are long but the feet are not webbed. The bill measures five inches. The bird was given to Clyde Todd of Beaver, ornithologist at the Carnegie museum, Pittsburgh.

Wilmerding Couple Celebrates.

IRWIN, April 21.—(Special.)—Mr. and Mrs. Jesse H. Cunningham of Wilmerding, this evening celebrated the 25th anniversary of their wedding in the Cunningham hall. About 100 relatives and friends were present, Pittsburgh, Oakmont, Irwin, Greensburg and Johnstown being represented. They received gifts of silver and cut glass.

Trinity Hall Is Leased.

WASHINGTON, PA., April 21.—(Special.)—A deal was closed today whereby Finis Montgomery and Charles G. Eckles, both of Washington, secured a five-year lease on the Trinity hall military preparatory school here. Mr. Eckles is at present head master in mathematics and Mr. Montgomery was formerly an instructor. Both are graduates of Washington and Jefferson college.

Refuse to Accept Scale.

BEAVER FALLS, April 21.—(Special.)—The United Mine Workers' local union held a meeting tonight to discuss the scale signed by the operators and President Dolan, 39 1-10 cents a car, and by a large majority the members voted not to go to work.

Ohio Millers Elect Officers.

SPRINGFIELD, O., April 21.—The Ohio State Millers' association this afternoon elected the following officers: President, J. W. Burk, Springfield; vice president, F. H. Tanner, Mansfield; secretary and treasurer, C. B. Jenkins, Marion.

Child Also in Hospital.

MONONGAHELA, April 21.—(Special.)—While visiting her mother, who is a patient at the Memorial hospital here, the 6-year-old daughter of Frank Warne of Carmichaels, was struck by a street car this evening and seriously hurt.

THE THREE RIVERS

The stage of water at Davis Island dam at 9 o'clock last night was 6.7 feet, and the river was rising.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CINCINNATI, O., April 21.—At 6 p. m. today the Ohio river at Cincinnati was 15.2 feet and falling. Today's departures of packets from the port of Cincinnati were: Tacoma, Pomeroy; Courier, Maysville; Levi J. Workum, Madison, and City of Cincinnati, Louisville. The Spragues, Allen Brown and W. W. O'Neil are about to leave Louisville with their second tow of coal this spring for New Orleans. Cloudy and colder.

GALLIPOLIS—River 9 feet 6 inches and falling. Good rains all day, and cloudy and pleasant.

PARKERSBURG—River 8.5 feet and rising. It rained nearly all day. Mild and clear tonight. The Bedford left for Wheeling, and the Ben Hur for Pittsburgh.

LOUISVILLE—River falling, 6 feet 9 inches in canal, 4 feet on falls, 15 feet below locks. Showers and colder.

WARREN—River 5 feet and rising. Rainy.

GREENSBORO—River 8 feet 2 inches and stationary. Cool with showers. Hite down Saturday, Dewey up.

MORGANTOWN—River 7 feet 8 inches and rising. Rainy and cooler.

POINT PLEASANT—River 7 feet 4 inches and falling. Rainy. Down, Keystone State, Tacoma, J. B. Lewis. Up, J. T. Hatfield, Kanawha, Tom Rees.

STEUBENVILLE—River 7 feet 7 inches and rising. Cold and cloudy. Down, Ben Hur, Tornado. Up, Virginia.

OIL CITY—River 3 feet 8 inches and rising. Cloudy and cold.

WHEELING—River 7 feet 9 inches and rising. Cloudy, colder with rain. Departed, Ben Hur, Parkersburg, noon; Virginia, Pittsburgh, 1 p. m.; Cricket, Parkersburg, 2 p. m. Down light, Tornado, 3:30 p. m. Up light, Charles Brown, 10 a. m. Up with empties, Iron Age, 11 a. m.

MARIETTA—River 7½ feet and stationary. Cloudy, windy. Ben Hur due from Pittsburgh. Helen White up.

MORE EGGS COME IN.

Two Steamers Bring in Over Three Thousand Cases from Below.

The Greenland, from Charleston and Kanawha river points, came into port yesterday forenoon with 1,500 cases of eggs aboard. The Lorena arrived about 5 o'clock last evening with about 2,000. The Virginia will get in this morning and will probably bring 1,500 more. In all about 5,000 cases of eggs will be added to the stock in Pittsburgh by this morning. The market has weakened considerably under the influence of the river shipments, and prices are expected to drop after tomorrow.

Maj. W. L. Sibert is busy tabulating bids for the work to be done on the Ohio and Allegheny rivers, and preparing for other bids which are to be received. The contracts which will be let this spring will call for an expenditure of about $700,000. The work is to be rushed as fast as possible in order to have the improvement completed by the fall of 1906.

The Rose Hite was the Morgantown boat in and out yesterday. She brought a heavy trip. Pool boats are all that are moving in the local harbor just now and they are busy bringing coal down for an expected rise. Rivermen are in hopes the rains will continue long enough to give a coalboat stage, as coal is badly needed at lower river ports.

GREENSBURG DEPRESSED BY THE FATAL FIRE

Fourth Child of Attorney Kunkle May Die—Funerals of the Victims This Afternoon.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

GREENSBURG, April 21.—The people of Greensburg are much depressed, owing to the fire at the home of Attorney John E. Kunkle last evening, when three children were burned to death. John E., Jr., the 11-year-old boy who was rescued from the bedroom in which his two sisters and a brother were burned, is in a critical condition, and the number of victims may be increased to four. So seriously was he burned that the attending physicians have found it impossible to remove him from the home of a neighbor to the hospital.

The funeral services for the three children will be held at the home of ex-Sheriff Lucien Chawson tomorrow afternoon. The playmates of the victims will attend in a body. The services will be conducted by the Rev. Stanley F. Krebs of the First Reformed church, and the Rev. William J. Miller of Zion Lutheran church. The interment will be private.

The mother and grandmother of the children are prostrated, the former's condition being alarming.

WOMEN MAY WORK IN MILL.

Rumor Whitaker-Glessner Company Will Import Them—Action Is Asked Against Strikers.

WHEELING, W. VA., April 21.—(Special.)—Judge Melvin today announced that he would have the strikers, charged by Attorney Conniff, for the Whitaker-Glessner company, with violation of his injunction, brought before him, but he denied issuance of the rules for them on account of the day being Good Friday. The strike leaders deride the contention of the Whitaker-Glessner officials, and assert their belief that not a single case of contempt will be proven to the satisfaction of the court.

There has been no change in the situation today, but a rumor is in circulation that women are to be brought from Pittsburgh and vicinity to work in the tin mills at the Whitaker plant.

HIGH COURT DECISIONS.

Opinions Are Announced in Different Cases by Supreme Tribunal of West Virginia.

CHARLESTON, W. VA., April 21.—(Special.)—In the supreme court of appeals today the following opinions were handed down:

Clark & Kroks vs. Clines, Cabell county, writ of error and supersedeas refused; Conway vs. Hyree, Braxton county, appeal and supersedeas refused; Cook and others vs. Crane & Co., Logan county, appeal granted; Clark vs. Emery, Monongalia county, appeal granted; Hendly, administrator, vs. West Virginia Central & Pittsburgh Railway Company, Randolph county, writ of error without bond granted; Aggleson vs. Middle States Building and Loan association, Tucker county, appeal granted; state vs. Meyers, Fayette county, writ of error to judgment, criminal court.

Bank Cashier Is Held.

MEADVILLE, April 21.—(Special.)—D. W. Tyron, cashier of the defunct Spartansburg bank, who was arrested charged with embezzling $1,500, had a hearing before Alderman D. W. Lockhart today. Tyron was held for court under bail in the sum of $700, which was furnished by County Treasurer D. N. Scott.

Twenty Hungarians Are Robbed.

ALLENTOWN, April 21.—Twenty Hungarian laborers were chloroformed last night in a boarding house at Ormond and robbed of more than $3,000. The police suspect John Tenuko, who gave a party and furnished his guests with liquor. He was traced to a railroad station, where he purchased a ticket for New York.

A Lincoln Elector Dead.

TOWANDA, April 21.—Maj. E. W. Hale died at his home here today, aged 89 years. In 1850 he took the census in this county, and was one of the electors that chose Lincoln president in 1864. For many years he was largely interested in the lumber and milling business.

ELECTED AS PHOTOGRAPHERS.

Pennsylvania Association Selects Its Officers and Amends Constitution to Include Other States.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The Photographers Association of Pennsylvania today concluded its annual session here by the election of officers for the ensuing year as follows: President, A. T. Proctor, Huntington, W. Va.; first vice president, H. H. Detrick, Altoona, Pa.; second vice president, G. V. Buck, District of Columbia; secretary, E. E. Seavy, New Castle, Pa.; treasurer, W. I. Goldman, Reading, Pa.

The convention amended the constitution of the association by making its title read: "The Photographers' Association of Pennsylvania, including the states of Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, West Virginia and the District of Columbia." Addresses were made by J. C. Cramer, H. A. Collings, George H. Bolton and James Henry Moser. The next convention will be held in this city.

PLAN TO CONSOLIDATE INDEPENDENT STEEL PLANTS

DENVER, April 21.—(Special.)—President Hearn of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company was recently approached by heads of independent steel plants in the east with a proposal to unite all concerns outside of the United States Steel Corporation under one head. President Hearn and the executive committee of the Colorado company favor the idea and Mr. Hearn is now conferring with the various independent concerns in the east over the plans.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Secretary Taft and Secretary Morton today personally accepted invitations to attend and make addresses at the opening of the railway appliance exhibition to be held here in connection with the international railway congress. The exhibition will be opened May 3.

SUIT OVER A GALLOWS.

Contractors Carry Instrument of Death Away and County Brings Action To Recover It.

LEWISTON, MONT., April 21.—A novel law suit in which possession of a gallows is involved has been filed by the county against Tubbs Bros., contractors. Tubbs Bros. recently bought the old county jail and understanding they were to have all the old timbers in the jail yard they carried away the double gallows used some time ago for the execution of William Calder.

This week the sheriff of Meagher county applied to Sheriff Slater for the use of the gallows for the execution of H. H. Metzgar, when it was discovered the gallows had been taken by Tubbs Bros. The county commissioners instructed the attorney to bring an action to compel the contractors to return the gallows or to pay $300.

PROF. HUEY'S LECTURES TO SCHOOL TEACHERS

Prof. E. B. Huey of the Western University of Pennsylvania will today deliver the fourth of his series of Saturday lectures to teachers in the public schools. The subject of this lecture will be "Child Study, Its Methods and Results." The lectures will be held in the library of the university, beginning at 10:30 a. m., and will be continued one hour. They will be given each Saturday until June 15, and will discuss the more important problems in educational psychology, and references are given to the most important literature of the subject.

Another Case of Smallpox.

One new case of smallpox, one of diphtheria and three each of scarlet fever and typhoid fever, were reported to the bureau of health yesterday. The smallpox patient is W. R. Deaf People Now Hear Whispers

Listening Machines Invented by a Kentuckian.

Invisible, When Worn, but Act Like Eye-Glasses.

Ever see a pair of Listening Machines? They make the Deaf hear distinctly. They are so soft in the ears one can't tell they are wearing them.

And, no one else can tell either, because they are out of sight when worn. Wilson's Ear Drums are to weak hearing what spectacles are to weak sight.

Because, they are sound-magnifiers, just as glasses are sight-magnifiers.

They rest the Ear Nerves by taking the strain off them—the strain of trying to hear dim sounds. They can be put into the ears, or taken out, in a minute, just as comfortably as spectacles can be put on and off.

And, they can be worn for weeks at a time, because they are ventilated, and so soft in the ear holes they are not felt even when the head rests on the pillow. They also protect any raw inner parts of the ear from wind, or cold, dust, or sudden and piercing sounds.

These little telephones make it as easy for a Deaf person to hear weak sounds as spectacles make it easy to read fine print. And, the longer one wears them the better his hearing grows, because they rest up, and strengthen, the ear nerves. To rest a weak ear from straining is like resting a strained wrist from working.

Wilson's Ear Drums rest the Ear Nerves by making the sounds louder, so it is easy to understand without trying and straining. They make Deaf people cheerful and comfortable, because such people can talk with their friends without the friends having to shout back at them. They can hear without straining. It is the straining that puts such a queer, anxious look on the face of a deaf person.

Wilson's Ear Drums make all the sound strike hard on the center of the human ear drum, instead of spreading it weakly all over the surface. It thus makes the center of the human ear drum vibrate ten times as much as if the same sound struck the whole drum head. It is this vibration of the ear drum that carries sound to the hearing Nerves. When we make the drum vibrate ten times as much we make the sound ten times as loud and ten times as easy to understand.

This is why people who had not in years heard a clock strike can now hear that same clock tick anywhere in the room, while wearing Wilson's Ear Drums.

Deafness, from any cause, ear-ache, buzzing noises in the head, raw and running ears, broken ear-drums, and other ear troubles, are relieved and cured (even after Ear Doctors have given up the cases), by the use of these comfortable little ear-resters and sound-magnifiers.

A sensible book, about Deafness, tells how they are made, and has printed in it letters from hundreds of people who are using them.

Clergymen, Lawyers, Physicians, Telegraph Operators, Trainmen, Workers in Boiler Shops and Foundries—four hundred people of all ranks who were Deaf, tell their experience in this free book. They tell how their hearing was brought back to them almost instantly, by the proper use of Wilson's Ear Drums.

Some of these very people may live near you, and be well known to you. What they have to say is mighty strong proof.

This book has been the means of making 229,000 Deaf people hear again. It will be mailed free to you if you merely write a post-card for it today. Don't put off getting back your hearing. Write now, while you think of it. Get the free book of proof.

Write for it today to the Wilson Ear Drum Co. 304 Todd Building, Louisville, Ky.
